MOVIES INVADING THE LEGITIMATE.

The Pollard company played a successful engagement here because it was a good company and also because it was a change from the "movies," which are well attended every night at all three theatres. But it is becoming more and more apparent from outside newspapers that the motion picture business has turned the art of playwriting upside down, and robbed the stage of a large per cent. of its capital stock by the bodily appropriation of the Villian in Search of the Papers, the Unfortunate Maiden Nicked of Her Inheritance, and the Hero Who Throws the Villian Over the Precipice. It has also taken the Stage Snow Storm and left only the Stage Thunder because it was impossible to make a picture of it. The movies have even appropriated Eliza and the wonderful ice scene, with the Thrilling Pursuit of the Bloodhounds, and the Cruel Overseer in the Distance. Instead of paying twenty and thirty for this kind of recreation, as formerly, the tired worker of the larger cities may now absorb it for five and ten, going home with his eye full instead of a gorged ear.

The stage has been driven to desperate expedients to preserve its high position in human affairs. Well knowing that it is impossible to take a clear negative of a moral problem, the playwrights have burned the midnight oil on problem and morality plays, so that the devotees of the old regime may still have their feelings harrowed among the old familiar surroundings.

Musical comedy, vaudeville and grand opera, of course, have remained undisturbed through all the changes and chances of this mortal life but whenever Edison gets his phonograph in satisfying correlation with the moving figures on the screen the day of special trains for operatic stars and five dollar seats will have passed forever.

ADDING TO THE GAITY OF HOME RULE CAMPAIGN

Sketches of the leading Unionists identified with Ulster Provisional Government or Ulster Committee organized to oppose the Home Rule Bill by threatening rebellion should the measure pass. Their opponents lightly refer their protest as Ulster hysterics.

HOW JOHN REDMOND POKES FUN AT THE ULSTER "PARLIAMENT"

SAYS CARSON IS SUPPLYING NEWSPAPERS WITH SILLY SEASON COPY WHICH RIVALS SEA SERPENT STORIES, AND IS ALL A BLUFF

Carciveen, Ireland, Sept. 29.—"Sir Edward Carson and his friends have supplied the newspapers with amusing silly season copy which has made the sea serpent pale into insignificance," said John E. Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, replying to an address of welcome here today.

The Ulster provisional government, he declared, would require many millions of capital, would cut itself off from the imperial government and the Irish government from old age pensions and the benefits of the insurance act, from imperial aid for education, agriculture and public works, from the operations of the housing and land purchase acts, and from the post office. No merchant could draw a legal check, give a legal receipt or recover a debt outside of Ulster.

"The whole thing is a gigantic and preposterous absurdity," he exclaimed. "It is meant merely the English people are not fools or cowards. They won't be humbugged by talk about provisional governments, nor intimidated by the wooden muskets of Ulster."

In a second speech, Mr. Redmond declared that the home rulers had been silent, law abiding and orderly, while their opponents had been shrieking and boasting of illegality and inciting to riot and bloodshed.

Athlete's Heart on Wrong Side

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—Physicians who examined Ralph Rose, at the Central Emergency Hospital yesterday discovered that his heart was on the wrong side of his body forced there by an attack of pleurisy. He was sent to a private hospital where his case is attracting attention from the medical profession. His chances for recovery are said to be good.

IS GOING TO GREENVILLE

Popular Pastor Transferred to the Naas for Winter Months

General regret will follow the announcement made by Bishop Du Vernet of the Church of England that Rev. William Crarey, rector of St. Mark's church, is to be transferred for the next five months to the Greenville Indian Mission on the Naas river. He is to take over the work founded there by Rev. Mr. McCullough, who will proceed to Aiyansh. Rev. Mr. Crarey and his wife returned on the Thursday boat from Prince Rupert where they have been attending the Anglican Synod of that diocese, and are busily engaged in packing up their furniture pending the arrival of the "Northern Cross," the mission boat, to take them to Kincolith, en route to their future residence. They expect to return to Stewart in spring, and meanwhile St. Mark's and the rectory will be closed. Rev. Mr. Crarey has resided here for a little over a year, coming to Stewart from Dawson, and through his manly ways made himself very popular with the congregation and the public generally, and both he and Mrs. Crarey will be greatly missed by their many friends.—Portland Canal Miner.
