Finney Balks At Contract With Bisons

CALGARY () — Sid Finney, high-scoring centre with Calgary Stampeders of the Western Hockey League last year, was reported today to have balked at a contract offered him by Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League.

Finney, who fired 41 goals for the Stamps last season, was drafted by the National Hockey League Chicago Black Hawks last spring and attended the Hawks' training camp at St. Catherines, Ont., this fall.

However, it was reported he is heading back to Calgary and may be with Stamps again this season.
