PERSONALS

Mrs. Rupert Greissel, 512 Eighth Aveue West, leaves by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane tomorrow to accompany her son David to the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland, Oregon, where he will receive medical treatment.

ROYAL PRETENDER—Striking a regal pose in Rome, Italian starlet Terry Terrone displays the charms which may make her a new movie queen. Italian newspapers have reported that she has been signed for the leading role in a fil minspired by the story of ex-Queen Soraya of Iran, recently divorced by the Shah because their marriage produced no heir to the throne.

Parks painting offers chance to art fans

Students between the ages of six and 16 who would like to receive extra art instructions will have an opportunity to do so again this summer.

The popular "Painting in the Parks" program, held for the third year, begins July 15 for two weeks.

Fred Owen, Civic Centre director of arts and crafts, will conduct the series, to be divided into three age groups.

The classes, sponsored by the Parks Bard in conjunction with the Civic Centre, will be held mornings and afternoons and enrollment is restricted to 60 students, Mr. Owen said.

Registrations are now being received at the Civic Centre and deadline for entries has been set for July 12.

To date more than 20 registrations have been received and it is anticipated that the total will exceed last year's figure of 46 entries.

Many register for lessons at Gyro pool

Registrations for swimming lessons at Gyro swimming pool are moving along at a brisk pace, aquatic examiner Bill Kincaid reported today. Approximately 200 applications from all age groups have been received so far.

Registrations for swimming classes may be made by calling 4045, Mr. Kincadi said.

Lessons for beginners are held every Tuesday from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Lessons for juniors and intermediates and diving sessions are held Thursdays between 1 and 3 p.m.

Seniors have the run of things Fridays between 1 and 2:30 p.m.

Every Thursday night at 7:30 Mr. Kincaid will conduct a class for adults, followed by general swimming for adults from 8:30 to 9:30.

Russian rowing crew takes Challenge Cup

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (CP)—Russia's heavyweight crew won the Grand Challenge Cup with an easy sweep over an Australian eight at the Henley regatta Saturday.

In the seven finals open to overseas competitors, Britain won three, Russia two, the United Sates one and Australia one.

The Russian Trud Club of Leningrad, conquerors of the University of Washington crew, took the big one as expected. They rowed massively to a 2½-length victory over the Leichhardt Rowing Club of Australia in the grand-premier event of the four-day regatta.

VITORIA (CP)—Two veterans and a newcomer were named Sunday to the British Columbia team that will defend the Willingdon Cup this year and, for the second straight year, a playoff will be held to decide the fourth team member.

Directors of the B.C. Golf Association, meeting after the windup of the B. C. Closed Golf championship here, named Doug Bajus and Bob Kidd of Vancouver and Laurie Kerr of Victoria to the Willingdon team.

TORONTO (CP)—Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, Que., and Don Fontana of Toronto, given the task of making sure Canada would meet the United States in the next round of North American Davis Cup competition, came through Saturday to deliver the knockout blow to Cuba in the first-round series.

Bedard, a husky, 170-pounder who holds the Canadian title, teamed with the lanky, 155-pound Fontana to slam out a 6-2, 6-2, 6-4, doubles win victory over youthful Raul Karman and Adolfo Minoso and oust Cuba from the North American zone play for the famed international tennis trophy.

The victory, coming on top of Bedard's and Fontana's straight set wins in the two opening singles Thursday, gave Canada a commanding 3-0 lead. The Canadian squad, after winding up the best-of-five series today, with the two concluding singles that can have no bearing on the outcome, will meet the U.S. here starting next Thursday.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Little Pancho Segura won first place singles money of $3,000 by decisively beating Ken Rosewall, 6-3, 6-3 Saturday in the $15,000 Masters round-robin professional tennis tournament.

PALMYRA, N. J. (AP)—Rafer Johnson won the United States decathlon title Sunday to set up a meeting with Russia's Vassily Kuznetsov later this month.

Johnson, University of California, scored 7,754 points, far below his own listed world record of 7,985 and Kuznetsov's pending mark of 8,016. They'll clash in the U.S.-Russia meet July 27-28.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Race driver Art Bisch of Phoenix, Ariz. died Sunday of injuries suffered when his car smashed into the back rail and flipped over twice during a 100-mile event at Lakewood Speedway July 4.

WASHINGTON (CP)—Toronto is in the running for the Washington Senators American League franchise if speculation proves true that the club plans to withdraw from the United States capital.

Calvin Griffith, president of Washington's last-place team, said he would sound to club owners at a meeting today in Baltimore, where officials are gathering for the all-star game Tuesday.

The Washington Post said in a copyrighted story today that Griffith seeks permission to transfer the Senators' franchise to Minneapolis, Houston, Dallas or Toronto.

WINNIPEG (CP)—British Columbia gained a share of the Canadian junior cricket championship Saturday, defeating Ontario by three wickets and one run on the last day of the double round-robin tournament.

The victory gave the west coast team a first-place tie with Ontario each having four wins and one loss. Ontario had beaten B.C. Tuesday by five wickets and 119 runs.

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—Mrs. Michaux Nash of Dallas, Tex., claimed a record Sunday for landing a tuna on a 30-pound test line.

Mrs. Nash Saturday caught a 43-pound Allison tuna after a 32-minute battle. The fish beat the former 30-pound test record for women held by Mrs. Joan Arthur, who landed a 33½ pounder last year in Australia.

UNREHEARSED SHOT—The roving eye of the camera caught this "off guard" shot of Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida in Rome. The lovely screen queen was attending a theatre premiere.
