Little Europe Introduces Equal Tariffs

LUXEMBOURG (Reuters)—A uniform customs tariff for steel imports went into effect today throughout the six countries of "Little Europe."

The new tariff marks a step closer to full economic inegration of the countries—France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Steps to create the new tariff were first undertaken in 1953 with the creation of a common market for coal. This was followed by the Schuman Plan treaty creating a coal-and-steel community out of the six nations.

The "harmonized" steel tariff, varying from three to 12 per cent for different steel goods, follows the end of a five-year transition period.

Two Americans To Try Out With Riders

REGINA (CP) — Two linemen, one from the University of South Dakota and the other from Kansas State, have signed tryout agreements with Saskatchewan Roughriders, president Sam Taylor of the Western Conference club announced today.

The linemen signed are Harry Hauffe and Ellis Rainsberger.

Hauffe, 25-year-old guard and tackle, was with South Dakota the last four seasons. He stands six foot, four inches and weighs 240 pounds. Hauffe was named "most improved player" in 1956 and made the North-Central Conference All-Star team as a tackle last year when he captained the South Dakota team.

Rainsberger, 25 and weighing 212 pounds at an even six feet, played with University of Missouri for two years before returning to college at Kansas State after a hitch in the army. He plays guard, tackle or centre and was on the Big Seven All-Star team the last two seasons earning honorable mention in All-American rating in 1957.

Taylor also stated that Riders' efforts to get King Hill, starry Rice University quarterback and everybody's All-American, have failed. Riders were out-priced by Chicago Cardinals of the U.S. National Football League, Taylor said.
