London, Oct. 15.—The royal chapel of St. James was used for a royal wedding this morning for the first time since the wedding of the Prince of Wales, now King George V. The pews had been removed and raised stands erected in their place. A semi-circle of gilt chairs was placed at the railing and behind were seated Queen Mary, a little higher than the rest, with the Queen Mother and three other Queens on either side of her. The bride, the Duchess of Fife, was attended by twenty bridesmaids, the flowers of royalty and the peerage, and Prince Arthur of Connaught's supporters were Prince of Wales and Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.

WANTED: A GENIUS TO WRITE THE EPIC ON PANAMA'S CANAL

"ALL THE RACES HAVE MET AND MINGLED AND PRAYED AND CURSED AND LABORED ON THE CANAL ZONE."

A great undertaking that defied the resources of the Suez Canal maker and the old world's greatest republic is brought to triumphant conclusion by your federal government. Without whisper of slander or hint of graft, your engineers have conquered a deadly climate, brought sufficient labor into the jungle, drained and leveled and erected, until the Panama Canal is become a fact. The dry excavation was finished ten days ahead of schedule; dredging remains, but with the waters of the two oceans flowing into the great locks the end is within grasp. The Panama Canal is one of the world's nine wonders; to gaze upon it is to feel like the "watcher of the skies" younger burst full fledged into greatness, soaring high upon a large imagination? Some of the greatest poems in the past have been paid for only in posterity's admiration. We hope that the digging of the Panama Canal will evoke a poem as great as any occasional poem in the past—and if it does we shall see to it that its author receives a bigger check for it than Milton did for "Paradise Lost."—Collier's.

WORK IN GROUNDHOG Anthracite Company Strikes New Seven Foot Seam.

"The effect of the season's development work in the Groundhog district has been to fully confirm my faith in the field," said Amos Godfrey, who has charge of the field operations of the B. C. Anthracite, Ltd., a Vancouver corporation with large holdings in the upper Skeena field. On the company's property the season's work has disclosed a new seam containing seven feet of good coal, and another with four feet six inches of excellent clean coal. Mr. Godfrey says. He is taking samples of the coal to Vancouver with him. The extension of the company's long tunnels has shown, he says, that the coal becomes cleaner as depth is gained. While more work is required on the Groundhog trail, Mr. Godfrey stated, the work done this season had greatly improved it. He found it very much better on his return than when he went in last spring.—Omineca Miner.

PARTIES OUTLINING THEIR LANDS POLICIES

Proposed Land Laws for Great Britain Certain to Bring On Political Battle.

London, Oct. 12.—Right Hon. David Lloyd-George's great land fight begins tomorrow at Bedford. The chancellor of the exchequer's speech will be the signal for battle all along the line. The Unionists, as well as the Liberals, however, have a land program, for the wants of the farmers and agricultural laborers cannot be ignored by either party. The Unionist policy, of which Lord Lansdowne is the protagonist, is to make the worker of the soil the owner of the soil he works. He then will be a property person. The Liberal policy is to let the farmer remain a tenant, with his interests safeguarded.

CAPITAL STRIKING FOR HIGHER WAGES

Lord Milner Refers to World-Wide Depreciation of Government Stocks.

Birmingham, Eng., Oct. 9.—Lord Milner in his presidential address at the Midland Institute here yesterday referred to the world-wide depreciation of government stocks and said: "Capital has struck for higher wages. The whole vast continent of South America is open. The twentieth century may see a competition there on even a greater scale than in the United States. Germany's dash into the front ranks of international nations has been stupefying. "Really, only the United States, Great Britain and France has any surplus capital."
