

TEN THOUSAND RENDERED HOMELESS IN SHANGHAI

DR SUN YET SEN ARRESTED IN JAPAN—SULZER FOUND GUILTY AND NO LONGER GOVERNOR

WILLIAM SULZER OUSTED FROM HIS HIGH SEAT AS GOVERNOR

COURT OF IMPEACHMENT FINDS HIM GUILTY ON THREE COUNTS—REMOVED FROM OFFICE AND SUCCEEDED BY LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Gov. William Sulzer has been found guilty on certain counts by the court of impeachment. He will be removed from office today, and not disqualified from holding office within the state. The court finds him guilty on:

Charge 1. That he filed with the secretary of state a false statement of his receipts and other monetary transactions during his gubernatorial campaign.

Charge 2. That he committed perjury in this statement.

Charge 4. That he suppressed evidence by means of threats to keep witnesses from testifying before the investigating committee.

On charge 3, that he bribed witnesses to withhold testimony from the investigating committee which investigated his campaign statements, he has been declared innocent, and he will probably be declared innocent on the four other charges against him. These were that he dissuaded a particular witness under subpoena from attendance; that he committed larceny in speculating in stocks with money and cheques contributed for his campaign; that while governor he corruptly used his authority to affect prices of securities on the New York Stock Exchange, in some of which securities he was at the time interested; and that as governor he threatened to use his influence to affect the vote of certain public officers.

After the findings the court of impeachment went into secret session and formally removed Sulzer from office by a vote of 43 to 14.

Lieutenant Governor Martin Glynn, who since the impeachment of Sulzer has been acting Governor, will this afternoon be officially declared Governor.

NAVAL BASES FOR AUSTRALIA AND THE BRITISH ADMIRAL VISIT

SIR MAURICE FITZMAURICE SELECTED ON THE ADMIRALTY'S SUGGESTION AND IS ABOUT TO LEAVE ON IMPORTANT MISSION.

London, Oct. 14.—The Commonwealth government having established the Australian naval unit and organized the initial arrangements for training is now proceeding with the formation and expansion of naval bases as recommended in Admiral Henderson's scheme.

In pursuance of this program the Commonwealth government has asked the admiralty for the services of an eminent engineer, who should be an expert in works connected with naval dock yards, and as a result Sir Maurice Fitzmaurice was selected, and is about to leave for Australia on an important mission.

Sir Maurice has lately been acting as chairman of the admiralty committee on British naval bases. In the course of his mission he will visit Fremantle and report upon the proposed works there for the construction of a naval base.

Sir Maurice Fitzmaurice will doubtless also visit Western Point in Victoria, where the establishment of a torpedo naval base is contemplated. He will also report upon Jervis Bay in New South Wales, the sea outlet for the new federal capital, and also the site for the naval college.

An official memorandum has recently been drawn up dealing with the splendid progress that has been made in Australian naval defence. While the expenditure for this purpose amounted to $7,280,355 in 1910-11, the estimates for 1912-13 are no less than $11,746,275. On June 1 of this year the naval personnel numbered 3,400, as against a total of 240 in 1910.

The first Australian unit is now complete except for two submarines which are under construction in England and the additional three destroyers and the cruiser now building at Sydney.

ELECTIONS IN ITALY

Political Activity is Taking the Form of Violence

(Special to The Daily News.)

Rome, Oct. 17.—The campaign for the general election to be held on October 26 is waxing warm, and in some cases political activity has taken the form of violence. The government has issued orders for the suppression of all disturbances.

Insane Man Sent South.

John Powers, the man who gave Constable Adams, assisted by four workmen, a hard tussle on Wednesday morning, was sent south on the Prince George this morning. Powers arrived here Wednesday, immediately showing signs of being mentally deranged. Later he became violent and had to be taken in charge. Since Wednesday he was more or less rational at times, but frequent violent spells. He was very quiet when put on board the boat this morning, although the precaution was taken to shackle his hands behind his back.

"BULLETS OF LAW."

The late P. T. Barnum, one of the greatest circus men the world has known, undoubtedly has an ardent follower in Prince Rupert in the person of S. M. Newton, editor of the Evening Empire. If Barnum's theory is still true that the public likes to be fooled, those in this city who are being daily deceived by the Empire's misleading, and in many cases untruthful, articles have no reason to complain. The article yesterday in reference to the issuing of road tax receipt books is a deliberate misrepresentation of facts. When Arthur Cuthbert made application to the mayor for these forms he was told that others had been refused and that there was no evident reason why they should be granted to him. Mr. Cuthbert then explained that he is a commissioner of the supreme court for taking affidavits, whereupon he was willingly supplied. The Empire says that bullets of law forced the mayor to give them grudgingly. As a matter of fact, the law does not require that these forms be given out of the hands of the city collector. The only reason they are given out is to expedite the collection of the road tax and to enable workmen to get on the roll who do not find it convenient to come to the city hall. When the Empire says that "bullets of law" secured the forms and that they were given grudgingly it is only adding to its list of lies to prejudice the public mind.

GREAT BUILDING ACTIVITY IN NEW TOWN OF SMITHERS

OVER SIXTY STORES AND HOUSES ARE UNDER CONSTRUCTION—BIG DEMAND FOR CARPENTERS.

A J. Burroughs, of the Prince Rupert Lumber Co., returned by last night's train from Smithers and other interior towns. He reports fine weather during his week's stay in the interior.

The town of Smithers, according to Mr. Burroughs' statement, is a "town in the making." During the three weeks since the railroad began giving service there upward of sixty houses and business buildings have been started, but very few are completed by reason of the shortage of lumber. To relieve this situation Mr. Burroughs has shipped several cars from the local yard and brought back orders for five carloads more, to be shipped from the Prince Rupert stock, besides seventeen carloads which are now en route by steamer from Vancouver. There is a small local sawmill at Smithers which is cutting about ten thousand feet per day, and the mill at Terrace has also supplied some dozen cars. This will fill all the requirements which the contractors of the place consider will be possible to use before the severe winter weather sets in, which will probably stop work until spring.

Mr. Burroughs also completed arrangements for a branch yard at Smithers, to be handled by local people there, and he will therefore have a permanent local supply in that market.

W. P. Luch and George J. Frizzell of this city are at Smithers and getting their share of the business in their respective lines, according to Mr. Burroughs' report. These gentlemen, together with all others doing business there are housing their stocks in tents pending completion of buildings.

There is demand for a few more good carpenters at Smithers now, but few contractors there require carpenters who are carpenters and will not employ any other.

SAMPLE OF MEXICAN WARFARE SHOWING THEIR CIVILIZATION

HOW GENERAL ALVIREZ WAS KILLED AND HIS WHOLE FORCE ANNIHILATED BY A FORMER BANDIT KNOWN AS "PANCHITO."

Mexico City, Oct. 13.—The interior department has received a telegram from San Luis Potosi, which describes the engagement near Torreon, in which General Alvarez was killed and his force annihilated. It says that only three persons escaped, a captain, a sergeant and a private. General Alvarez left Torreon with 400 men and a battery of artillery. General Arguemedo followed a short distance behind with 200 men.

When Alvarez was ambushed by 4000 rebels under General Francisco Villa, a former bandit known as "Panchito," the rebels poured in between him and Arguemedo, surrounding the federal forces. General Alvarez saw himself hopelessly surrounded and his men being shot down on all sides. When only half a dozen men were left the federal commander broke his sword, sat on his horse and waited till the rebel bullets put an end to his life.

Villa ordered his men to take the body of Alvarez into Torreon. There it was suspended from a telegraph pole in a conspicuous place in the centre of the city.

SHORTAGE OF LUMBER DELAYS GOVT. WORK

Construction of Wharves on Masset Inlet Is Held Up by Lumber Shortage.

W. G. Gillette, contractor, who has been doing considerable work for the Dominion government at different ports in the Queen Charlotte Islands, arrived in the city from Masset this morning. Recently he has been engaged on the building of a new freight shed at Masset, landing floats at Woden River and a wharf at Queenstown. The total cost of these works is about $9,000. Mr. Gillette has been handicapped in his work through shortage of lumber. In order to expedite matters he has put a gang of men at work getting out logs for one of the sawmills at Masset Inlet. He left this morning for Vancouver and will return as soon as a sufficient supply of lumber is ready to resume the work.

POLLARD OPERA CO. CLOSES ENGAGEMENTS

Favorites Were Showered with Boxes of Bon Bons from Their Admirers.

As a farewell performance the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company last night rendered the most popular selections from their entire repertoire, with a few new features added. The program included many of the more popular songs as well as several of the real gems. Of the latter the duet from "Il Trovatore" by Nellie McNamara and P. Phillipson was probably the best. Queenie Williams and Melba Valrose in their several numbers were enthusiastically received. The character sketch by Charlie Bennett was extremely well rendered. There was some clever toe and ballet dancing to add variety. The popularity of the different members was shown by the shower of bon bon boxes that came down from the box at the left. Teddie McNamara was the recipient of a cold boiled crab and a bottle of gin (sample size). Altogether the program was enjoyed by the large audience that assembled for the farewell. The company will leave for the south tomorrow on the Princess Sophia.
