ACCUSED AND CONVICTED—THE VAGARIES OF CANADIAN JUSTICE.

The way in which the prison farm system in various cities and counties of Canada has been abused has called forth the above cartoons by James Frise. The upper scene, "Presumably innocent," shows the accused man in the depth of misery and bad company in a police or jail cell, while the lower one, "Convicted," indicates a veritable picnic for the tried and found guilty prisoner. Mr. Frise asks: "Why is it that a man when arrested, and perhaps innocent, is thrown into a cell amid dirt and discomfort, whereas the man convicted of guilt becomes an object of concern and is handsomely housed in the country?" Why not treat decently those who are merely accused and who are presumably innocent?

GRAHAM ISLAND NEWS NOTES

A meeting of the ladies of the Queenstown was held last Saturday at Mrs. E. J. Tingley's residence to arrange details in connection with the masquerade dance to be held Hallowe'en night. After the business was completed afternoon tea was served.

Frank Portmore of Woden River is something of a farmer when it comes to potato growing. His crop this year is almost unbelievable. From two rows, forty-five feet long, he dug five sacks of the finest tubers one could wish to see. Local mathematicians, figuring it up, estimate that the crop would average seven hundred bushels to the acre, roughly guessing. Frank has a large field, besides many other assortments of vegetables.

Mr. Seip, whose name spelled backwards, amounts to "pies," is the latest acquisition to the Woden settlement. He is not very tall but carries a pack like an old timer. Who says that a Vancouver man has no ambition?

C. C. Grange, store-keeper, has been appointed postmaster at Woden, Wharf, telephone, post office. Just think! Last year this time, we were nothing but tall timber.

Rapid progress has been made on the new wharf at Queenstown during the past few days. Nearly all the piles have been driven.

Queenstown young men, when calling on their lady friends, now take a cake with them. Very considerate of the boys. But we rather prefer a box of candies.

A general meeting of the Queenstown Tennis Club will be held on Saturday evening at the Yakoun Hotel.

The contract for building the new Anglican church at Graham Centre has been let, the successful bidder being Mr. Wormold, who has had considerable experience in the building trade, and we feel assured that the contract could not have been placed in better hands. Work on the lots will commence at once and as soon as they are cleared the building will be erected.

A notice has been posted at the post office calling a meeting of residents for the evening of the 25th for the purpose of forming a debating society. This is a good move and should prove of immense benefit to the community.

Mr. T. L. Williams, who has been contemplating some additions to his home for some time past, has secured the services of Mr. McDougall to make the improvements.

Mr. Richardson has taken a contract to make some much needed improvements on Third avenue, Graham Centre. This work will be much appreciated by those living on the townsite and vicinity.—Queenstown Islander.

"Once a friend of mine and I agreed that it would be helpful for each of us to tell the other his faults."
"How did it work?"
"We haven't spoken for nine years."

TITLE TO FORTUNE HANGS ON INFANT

Living Baby Claimed to Have Been Substituted for Dead Child of English Heirs

The famous Slingsby baby substitution case is to be reopened in San Francisco. A Carnegie Ross, British consul to San Francisco, has been appointed by the high court of chancery in England to take the testimony of witnesses, and upon the result will depend the disposition of the large Slingsby estate in Yorkshire, yielding an income of $50,000 a year. Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Slingsby, who claim the infant as their own, are said to be on their way from Vancouver, B.C., to San Francisco to testify.

The Slingsby case came into international prominence more than a year ago when the lieutenant, who holds that rank in the British army, began a fight for the family fortune. He was opposed by his brother, who declared that the child was not the offspring of Mrs. Slingsby, but that of a California school girl, which was substituted for the dead baby of Slingsby's wife.

Among the witnesses whose depositions will be taken are Mrs. Hattie Bain, Mrs. Slingsby's nurse; Dr. W. W. Fraser, who issued the birth certificate in the case, and Dr. W. F. Snow, secretary of the state board of health, who investigated the circumstances of the alleged baby substitution.

Money is only of abstract interest to John D. Rockefeller, says a Montreal paper—"abstract" is good.

PRINTING

Summer is over and the Fall trade has begun. To get your share you must have some sort of printed matter—a circular, folder, booklet or catalogue. Be sure to have that work done properly. You would not send out a shabby salesman to represent you; then don't make the mistake of sending out a poorly printed circular or booklet. We are QUALITY PRINTERS and can produce a piece of printed matter that you would be proud of and which will get results. Try us. Phone 98.
