

The Cup That Cheers

All lovers of "a good cup of tea" know that tea never tastes just right unless it is made in an earthenware teapot.

The spout of your teapot is chipped or unsightly and —from the little "Brown Betty" at 25c to the portly old grandma of a teapot that is big enough for a large family. Then there is the same old "Brown Betty" disguised with fancy decorations to make her look like a real grand dame, but underneath her flowery robes she's just the same old Betty and makes the tea in the same old homely style.

Then we have fancy teapots in great variety—for the five o'clock callers—the prices are reasonable; the choice is wide, and you can get them at

THANKSGIVING BANQUET OF METHODISTS A BIG SUCCESS

of the opportunity to pay compliments to the new pastor, the choir and the Men's Own. He concluded by an appeal for a thank offering which was generously responded to.

Rev. Mr. Dimmick, pastor of the church, who acted as toast master, proposed a toast to "Our Sister Churches." He referred to the splendid spirit that seems to prevail among the people of the city. We have a people whose hearts are large and whose sympathies are broad. All seem to be working for the general good of the city. The people are optimistic, buoyant and hopeful in life. All the churches of the city regard to the responsibilities of stand together a working force.

The toast was responded to by Rev. G. A. Rix of the Anglican church in the most humorous speech of the evening. In a jovial way he related stories causing hearty laughter at the expense of the various churches, not omitting the Anglican church itself. The churches, he said, may differ but it is the object of all to make the way smoother and easier for those who have to go up against the stern realities of life.

Rev. Jas. Scott of the Baptist church was glad of the Christian fellowship that prevails. He would also be glad if he could see as many gathered together for a prayer meeting as were present for the feast. We feast too much, he said, but do not fast enough. He was glad that one of the speakers had thrown bouquets at the pastor and urged the congregation to continue so doing.

Capt. Stride, the only lady speaker, responded for the Salvation Army in a very pleasant manner. She related a little experience of the late General Booth to explain the mission of the army which is summed up in the words "fetch 'em."

Bishop Du Vernet and Rev. F. W. Kerr who were down to respond were unavoidably absent. "The City of Prince Rupert" was proposed by C. C. Perry, of Metlakatla. He briefly complimented the city on its various institutions.

Mayor Pattullo in responding said that the city had a great deal to be thankful for. It should be thankful for a Methodist church which has grown and prospered and has been a great factor for so much good in the world. The city should be thankful for having better buildings, better citizens, more families and more babies. Each time he went away from the city he returned more than ever convinced of its great future. All that is required is courage and a little patience.

Aldermen G. R. Naden, L. Bullock-Webster and Geo. W. Kerr also responded with brief addresses.

The toast to the Press was proposed by W. R. Jones and responded to by O. H. Nelson and D. B. Taylor.

The last but not the least important toast, that to "The Ladies" was very ably proposed by W. H. Sherman and responded to by Mr. Barrie and Mr. Button. Interspersed with the speeches were songs by M. Davies, Mr. Ling, Miss C. Eason, Mr. Claperton, Mr. Waddell. There was also a reading by Mrs. C. L. Munroe.

The proceeds amount to nearly two hundred dollars. The ladies who had charge of the affair undoubtedly merited every word of praise that was showered upon them.

Sales ladies wanted immediately at Demers. 246

City Cup Competition.

In the contest yesterday at the rifle ranges between the Civilians' Rifle Association and the Earl Grey's Rifles for the city cup, the latter were victorious. The civilians won both last year and the year before. It is understood that the cup must be won three years in succession by the same team before it becomes the property of the team. A detailed report of the shoot is unavoidably held over until tomorrow.

Notice.

SONS OF ENGLAND HAD JOLLY EVENING

First of a Series of Social Evenings Was Held Friday Night—Music, Games and Dancing.

The first of a series of social evenings given by the local lodge Sons of England to the wives of members and their friends took place last Friday evening in the K. of P. Hall. In the absence of the president, A. H. Silversides, the duties of chairman were well looked after by the vice president, Thomas Silversides. In addition to cards, games and dancing, a delightful musical program was rendered. Vocal solos were contributed by Mr. Hutchinson, Mr. Barker, Mr. Froude and Mr. Evitt. There was also a mandolin solo by Mrs. Freeman, accompanied on the piano by Miss Freeman. Miss Froude and Mr. Briggs acted as accompanists for the vocal selections. During the evening dainty refreshments were served. About a hundred, including members and friends, were in attendance and all were unanimous in voting the evening a most successful one. It is the intention of the lodge to hold similar functions about once a month during the winter.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

Rev. G. A. Rix preached to a large congregation in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday. The day was not only the celebration of the Harvest Thanksgiving Festival, but was also the time set for special children's services throughout the Dominion. The church was most beautifully decorated by the ladies of the congregation with the fruits of the earth. Great sheaves of grain hung with fruits garnished the chancel, while the window ledges and almost every available space were banked with flowers. Three services were held, at which the choir, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Mellor, with Mrs. Armstrong at the organ, rendered the music for the day. At the morning service Mr. W. H. Mellor delighted the congregation by singing "A Dream of Paradise."

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Mrs. Jenns entertained at a delightful chrysanthemum tea and linen shower on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Chapman, whose marriage to Mr. C. W. Peck will take place early in the new year. The drawing and dining rooms were most lavishly decorated with yellow mums and greenery. The gifts for the bride-elect were placed in a large inverted bell, which upon being pulled into its proper position gave forth a large quantity of pretty and useful articles. The girl friends of the guest of honor each presented her with tried recipes which were arranged in a daintily bound book. Mrs. Jenns received in a handsome gown of purple coliere, with effusite lace collar and was assisted by her daughters, who wore girlish frock of dainty materials. Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Hubert Ward presided at the flower laden table and were assisted by Miss Phyllis Jenns, Miss Alice Cars, Miss Marguerite Young and Miss Lillian Bull. The invited guests included Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Hubert Ward, Miss Chapman, Miss Johnstone, Miss Milligan, Miss Grant, Miss Olive Saunders, Miss Blanche Brydone-Jack, Miss Ola Phelan, Miss Irwin, Miss Curtin, Miss McNair, Miss Lillian Fisher, Miss Thompson, Miss McIntosh, Miss Beckwith, Miss Froud, Miss Campbell, Miss Du Vernet, Miss Marguerite Young, Miss Newton, Miss Isabel Newton, Miss Alice Cars, Miss Lillian Bull.
