Evan Kemp draws 2,000 to revue

By CHARLES GIORDANO
Daily News Staff Writer

The Rock 'n Roll singing of Gary Rogers and the accordian wizardry of polka king Karl Karleen, along with the smooth western singing of Evan Kemp made more than 2,000 Prince Rupert people happy in the Civic Centre Friday and Saturday night.

Rock 'n Roller Rogers not only had the teenagers screaming and sighing but also had many of the adults jiving as he was called back for encore after encore.

Karl Karleen. polka expert drew a great deal of applause with his accordian rendition of "Lady of Spain" which he presented with professional ease.

Other artists in Evan Kemp's 1958 revue included "Little Joe the Wrangler" pounding a steady beat on the drums and Bus Toten who kept the crowd full of laughs playing the violin normally as well as over his head and across his chest.

Francois Lake News

A traveller called in at the store the other day on his way home from a visit to Swift Current, Saskatchewan. He says that wheat and oats have headed out but it has been so hot and dry that the grain is too poor to cut. Grass for the cattle has been scorched, and there is no hay. To top things off, they had a black frost at the end of June which froze most of the gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Pease (Curly and Belle) stayed for the night here on Wednesday, and visited their friends who live near the landing. They have sold their Nitni River Lodge, but will stay to help the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Kohn Kost and Eddie Adamowski until Fall.

We saw the weirdest craft the other day coming to the landing from the east end of the lake. It looked for all the world like a bug, but it was a hydrophile. The owner was Joe De Laird, the Vanderhof barber, and the craft is valued at $3,000. It's really a boat with skis, and the propellor shaft has an extension. As the boat increases speed it lifts up out of the water and travels on the large skis so that sometimes the boat itself is completely out of the water 28 inches. This craft was driven by a 30-horse power Mercury motor and travelled at 30 miles an hour.

John Peters of Port Alice is visiting his brother Abe and his family for a few days.

Michael O'Meara celebrated his eighth birthday on Tuesday by having his numerous cousins and friends in to a party. As there were games and lots of good things to eat, needless to say all had a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hazelton are staying with their son Bob and his family. They travelled up from Vancouver by PGE and enjoyed the trip very much.

There was an enjoyable Sunday School picnic in the little bay by the Church on Sunday after Sunday School, to which parents and friends were invited. Coffee was boiled over a rock fireplace, and cold drinks consumed as well as heaps of sandwiches and cakes. The children were taken for boat rides after lunch which they thoroughly enjoyed.

We were amused to hear over "Neighbourly News" on Tuesday that ladies' underwear was vanishing from the clothes lines in Prince Rupert. Prince Rupert is not the only town having this trouble, our son Peter's wife lost all her underwear from the line one night in North Vancouver although it was so high that a ladder was needed to reach it from the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Garland, Ruth, Mary and Billy arrived by car from Prince Rupert on Saturday. Mr. Garland returned on Monday morning for a few days in connection with his business, but is expected back any day now.

When Louie McClure called in for some gas at our station, our son Hugh saw a few feathers sticking out below the grill. He fished in and pulled out a live grouse. It was a bit dizzy at first, but in a minute or two ran to the bushes and hid, so it was not badly hurt.

Stanley Calder has returned from a week's visit to Prince Rupert where he attended the wedding of Lucy Evans, daughter of the Calder family's old friends Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evans. Since then Arthur Evans has undergone an operation and it is hoped that he will be well again before his daughter Marlon's wedding on Friday.
