Seppa leads outboarders

Henry Seppa took over the lead in individual scoring in Prince Rupert Otuboard association races by grabbing 800 points yesterday to run his season total to 2,300.

More than 400 spectators lined the CNR dock in bright sunshine to watch the first race of the season held in the harbor. Despite choppy water, there were no accidents.

Seppa took first place in scoring from Bob Armstrong who amassed 525 points yesterday for a season total of 2,125. Dave Yule is in third place with 2,000, followed by Wally Ballanger with 1,925, Mike Wayman with 1,700 and Doug Souter with 7,650.

In the two heats in the Class D Utility and hydroplanes, Seppa placed first and second, Souter second and first, Wayman twice third and Chris Harvey once in fourth. Harvey didn't finish the second race.

In A and B Utility Class heats, Ballanger won twice, Yule placed second and third, Armstrong fourth and second, and Bob Yamada finished third and fourth.

Winners' awards went to Ballanger, Yule, Seppa and Souter.
