Shop-Easy breaks tie for top spot

Shop-Easy edged Sea Kings 8-7 Saturday night to break the three team tie for first place in the Prince Rupert little league baseball loop.

Shop-Easy will play Kinsmen at 7 p.m. tonight at Algoma Park for first place.

Winning pitcher was Brian Specht. Sven Rasmussen was the loser.

At tonight's game the Little League Baseball association will present a cheque to The Larry Bolton Fund and one to the School for Retarded Children, league official Danny Johnson said today.

Folley shatters Rademacher's comeback dream

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Big Pete Rademacher tried his hand at professional boxing for the second time Friday night. It was even worse than the first.

Rademacher, 1956 Olympic Games champion who made the mistake of taking on Floyd Patterson in a world heavyweight title match last year, was knocked out by Zorra Folley at 1:15 of the fourth round.

It took Patternson six rounds to do it last August.

Knowledge of car licence may net $15

Persons who do not keep track of what their car licences are, are losing money, a city businessman said today.

He said that he had displayed the car licences of two city drivers in the window of his business place over the past two weeks and neither turned up to collect the money offered.

Two weeks ago, for $5, John E. Sedgwick, 341 Fourth Avenue East, with licence number 386-429, failed to call in. Last week, Edward Wahl, Digby Island, with licence number 383-120, lost $10.

This week the jackpot is $15 for the person who recognizes his licence in the window of the Third Street business firm.

Bill Smith to attend ball school

A 17-year old city baseball player who has already chalked up five years experience on the ball diamonds of Prince Rupert, left Sunday to attend a baseball clinic in Vancouver.

William (Chilly) Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, 840 Third Avenue West, is one of two ball players in the whole of British Columbia outside of Vancouver to be chosen to attend the baseball clinic being staged in Capilano stadium by the Vancouver Mounties baseball club and a Vancouver newspaper. There are 34 Vancouver players attending the week-long course.

Expenses for Gordon and Anderson's second baseman are being paid by the Prince Rupert District baseball association.

While learning more about baseball and the best ways to play it, Smith will be under the watchful eyes of major league scouts and will receive instruction from major league ball players.

Smith wasn't always a second baseman.

When he began his ballplaying career in 1953, at the age of 13, he was a catcher for the Section 2 Wildcats in the Unofficial Prince Rupert Little League baseball loop. The next year, when Little League went "official" Bill was too old so he became a Pony Leaguer with the Gyro club entry.

He remained a catcher in Pony League after he transferred to the Moose squad but finally in his last year of Pony League in 1956, he shifted to the keystone sack.

It was as a second baseman that he began his tenure with Gordon and Anderson of the Prince Rupert District baseball league and as a result of his sharp handling of second base last year was awarded "The Rookie of the Year" trophy.

A good hitter when he gets the ball he likes, Smith's size, 5 feet 6½, often awards him a free pass to first base since he has one of the smallest strike zones in the league. His 20 walks this season is second only to his former team-mate, Don Scherk, now coach of Esquires.

Smith who now works at The Sports Shop as a sales clerk was a member of Annunciation School's first grade 12 graduating class this year.

He will be back with his newfound baseball knowledge in time to play his usual position for the Rupert All-Stars in the $1,000 baseball tournament August 2 and 3.
