Indians consider leaving Cleveland

MILWAUKEE (AP)— William R. Daley, chairman of the board of directors of Cleveland Indians, said today the American League club may move out of Cleveland by next year.

There was a strong possibility the Indians might transfer to either Minneapolis or Houston, Tex.

Daley is known to be disappointed by attendance in Cleveland.

Messages of condolence pour into Vatican City

LONDON (Reuters)—The world greeted the death of Pope Pius XII today in sadness.

Great cathedrals and tiny parish churches organizer requiem masses for the dead pontiff as the bells tolled in mourning.

Non-Catholics joined the nearly 500,000,000 Roman Catholics throughout the world in hailing Pius XII as the "Pope of Peace."

Temporal rulers, statesmen and church leaders of all faiths issued messages of sympathy.

Italy's Prime Minister Amintore Fanfani called for three days of official mourning throughout the nation which harbors the Holy See. The Italian flag was lowered to half staff on all public buildings. Schools, theatres and other public entertainment places were closed.

President Eisenhower issued a statement saying "the world is poorer" for the pontiff's death and Queen Elizabeth, Prime Minister Macmillan and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd all sent messages expressing "deep sorrow" to the Vatican.

QUEEN IS TOLD

News of the Pope's death was given this morning to the Queen at Balmoral Castle in the Scottish Highlands where she is vacationing.

The Queen's message, sent to the British minister in the Vatican, Sir Marcus Cheke, said:

"The Queen commands you to convey . . . an expression of the deep sorrow with which Her Majesty and the Duke of Edinburgh have received the news of the death of His Holiness Pope Pius XII.

"This sad event has revived in Her Majesty's mind the memory of her meeting with His Holiness in 1951 and her recollection of his unfailing kindness to members of the Commonwealth forces in Italy during the war years."

Macmillan sent his message from Bonn, where he is meeting with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Adenauer, himself a Roman Catholic, said the Pope's death was a grave loss for thew hole world and for the German pepole in particular.

DE GAULLE TRIBUTE

French Premier Charles de Gaulle described Pope Pius' reign as "grand and illustrious." His life inspired courage and hope when mankind had "undergone the most terrible tests," de Gaulle said.

King Baudoin of Belgium sent a message of condolence to the Vatican.

Austria's Chancellor Julius Raab said in Vienna that "history will number Pope Pius XII as the most prominent Pope who ever sat on the throne of Peter."

In Madrid, Spanish Foreign Minister Gernando Maria Castiellay Maiz said: "We have lost a father. He was a saint. In him we have a new intercessor in heaven."

Ireland was in mourning, flags everywhere were flown at half staff. Many private houses had drawn blinds. Radio Eireann cancelled scheduled programs to play solemn music.

Canada pays homage

By The Canadian Press

Canada paid homage today to the man who was spiritual leader of 7,000,000 of its population.

Political and religious leaders of all faiths expressed tributes to Pope Pius XII, who died at his summer palace at Castel Gandolfo, Italy.

Roman Catholics of Canada, representing 44 per cent of the population, had been much affected by decisions and acts of the Pope during his 19-year reign. In Canada, as elsewhere, he was regarded as among the most worthy man ever to occupy the Holy See.

Word of the pontiff's death reached Canada about 8 p.m. MST Wednesday night. Across the country radio and television stations interrupted programs to give the news. And church bells peawed in city and village to spread the word.

DIEFENBAKER TRIBUTE

Prime Minister Diefenbaker was among the first to pay tribute, saying: "All Canadians would want to join with me at this time in expression of deep regret at the passing of His Holiness . . . The death of this gentle and studious man of peace removes from the world one who had the respect of multitudes."

Special prayers and services were ordered in thousands of churches and chapels from the Yukon to Newfoundland.

The influence of Pope Pius in Canada was great. He named both Canadian Cardinals, 17 of the Canadian church's present 40 archbishops, and 54 of its 65 bishops.

James Cardinal McGuigan of Toronto said: "We shall all miss this great figure . . . Those who met him and knew him intimately will miss something personal that radiated from a meeting of hearts."

JOHNNY ARRIVES—Kim Chung-Wha, known as Johnny to thousands of Canadians who served in the Korean war, was met on arrival at Ottawa by Bill Boss, former Canadian Press war correspondent now connected with the University of Ottawa. Johnny interpreted for all three Canadian regiments in Korea. He is to attend to university in Ottawa, sponsored by Mr. Boss, who reported the Korean campaign. —CP Wirephoto.

Driver Training Biggest Bargain In 'Teen Safety

By Jeanne Smith,
Dodge Safety Consultant

IF YOU'RE INTERESTED in promoting safe driving among teenagers in your community, here's some worthwhile advice from the American Trucking Association.

Miss Smith

For less than $35 a pupil, your local high school can provide an adequate driver education course—30 hours of classroom instruction and six hours of behind the wheel training from a certified instructor.

This is a real "bargain", say trucking officials; it costs about $1000 to train a professional truck driver. And, of course, the savings in young lives and in property is well worth the investment, they point out.

To provide driver training to teenagers in your city, the schools and community must first be sold on its advantages. This "selling job" is best handled, trucking and safety officials believe, by civic, service, business and professional organizations.

The ATA has gathered these interesting facts on driver training for use by civic groups in encouraging schools to adopt the program.

Graduates of driver education courses, in addition to developing right attitudes toward other drivers, have 65 percent less accidents than untrained drivers. Untrained teenagers have 37 percent more warnings, 25 percent more arrests and 45 percent more suspensions and revocations.

Many insurance companies, prompted by these statistics, now offer reduced rates to youths who complete an approved course in driver education.
