CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS
—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, July 24th — Holiday happiness ahead? Take it easy—and serve many a salad with the quick-as-quick Minute Mayonnaise we can all make with BORDEN'S EAGLE BRAND Sweetened Condensed Milk. Delectable with all salads—but, methinks, 'specially so with Waldorf Salad—made with chopped apples, raisins, celery. . . . Minute Mayonnaise

2/3 cup Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk — 1 egg yolk — ½ tsp. salt — 1 tsp. dry mustard — 1½ cup vinegar — ¾ cup salad oil — touch of cayenne.
Place all ingredients in mixing bowl. Beat with rotary beater until mixture thickens. If you'd like a thicker consistency, chill before serving. Makes two cups.

I'M IN ENGLAND FOR JULY . . . and having a wonderful time, thank you. Left a case of DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION DOG FOOD for our Mr. Kipps, the white West Highland Terrier who bosses us all. It's such a fine meal for your dog—the veterinary diet that contains all the nutrients he needs. Comes in Chicken, Liver or Regular—each one a flavor your pet will bolt with gusto. Dr. Ballard's has constant uniformity and quality in every tin—with balanced nourishment that encourages a shiny coat, bright eyes, good digestion and a cheery outlook on life. Let your pet enjoy Dr. Ballard's Champion Dog Food, too, won't you?

ARE DOOR-LOCKS ENOUGH . . . to safeguard your valuables? There's always the danger that they may be lost through fire or theft—especially when you're off on vacation. Surely the safest place for your jewellery and valuable papers is behind the steel doors of a BANK OF MONTREAL vault! You can rent a B of M Safety Deposit Box for less than two cents a day and know you have the utmost protection from fire or theft. Why not add this to your list of "things to do" today or tomorrow? See about this sure, low-cost protection while it's on your mind.

Francois Lake news

By AGNES H. NEAVE

Dan Bartko and Henry Cap stayed over with us here for three nights where they caught some trout and a sun tan. They both work in Prince Rupert and are holidaying with their car.

There is a splendid hay crop, and it is being brought in under ideal haying conditions. The oat and wheat crops look good and are just coming into ear. We are enjoying gree peas, carrots and new potatoes.

Mrs. Reg Partington was guest speaker at the Central Interior District Women's Institute convention held at Pine View near Prince George on June 19. Mr. and Mrs. Partington were guests at a joint banquet and dance in the Prince George Hotel. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Partington gave a luncheon party in their home here. Amongst their guests were Hon. N. P. Steacy, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, Mr. L. W. Johnson, superintendent of Farmers Institutes, and Mrs. Stella Gummow, Superintendent of Women's Institutes.

Staying in our Log Cottage are Mrs. Joseph Fielding, her daughter Darlene and two small sons Robbie and Ricky. They are on their way home to Prince Rupert by car from a stay in Vancouver. Mrs. Fielding drove the car and except for some tire trouble they had a comfortable trip. This is the fifth time that Darlene has spent her holidays here at the Landing, and she is now an accomplished horsewoman and has been a great help as she saddles and bridles the ponies for the other youngsters staying here to ride. The lake has been wonderful for swimming this year, as it's been so warm, and the youngsters have been swmiming three and four times a day.

The skin diver who tried to find the bodies of Neville Talbot and Bill Michaylenko had to give up the search as the water below the surface in Ootsa Lake is too muddy.

Elsie Kornarski feted at premarital shower

Newly-wed Mrs. St. Clair Langille and Mrs. E. A. Evans were co-hostesses last night at a miscellaneous shower held for bride-elect Miss Elsie Kornarski at the home of Mrs. Evans, 1266 Beach Place.

Miss Kornarski's marriage to Harold Paulson will take place at St. Andrew's cathedral on Friday, August 1.

Gladioli and sweet peas decorated Mrs. Evans' home with a guest-of-honor seat placed under a rose-covered arch. On her arrival Miss Kornarski was presented with a corsage of red roses.

Winners of games played during the evening were Mrs. Daniel Kristmanson and Mrs. Evan Shier.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses.

Other invited guests were: mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Michael Kornarski; grandmother of Miss Kornarski, Mrs. Kay Eyolfson; the bride-elect's sisters Miss Mary Anne Kornarski, Miss Rosamond Kornarski and Miss Marjorie Kornarski and Mrs. Mary Fields, Mrs. Frederick Barber, Mrs. Harry Paulson, Miss Alice Paulson, Mrs. Erik Erikson, Mrs. Harold Marshall, Mrs. Sophie Carr, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. Gunnard Anderson, Mrs. Mark Cavenaile, Mrs. August Voegele, Mrs. Harvey Dumas, Miss Marion McDonald, Miss Jeanette MacDonald, Miss Sharon Bond, Miss Marlene Dumas, Mrs. Emil Carlson, Mrs. Floyd Mooney, Mrs. A. S. Hamilton, and Mrs. Victor Morrison.

Pietro Altomari, known as Bruce Yarnell in his new home base of Los Angeles, will be here Monday to Wednesday as the 6 foot, five inch singing master-of-ceremonies of the B.C. CENTURAMA.

DON MESSER, favourite of western music fans, and Charlie Chamberlain and Marg Osborne are heard on "Don Messer and His Islanders" on the CBC Trans-Canada Network Saturdays.
