Esquires take runner-up spot

Bees delay Giants' bid

By The Associated Press

Salt Lake City delayed Phoenix hopes of catching up with Vancouver for the Pacific Coast League baseball lead as the Bees took a doubleheader from the Giants yesterday, winning the opener 7-3 and the nightcap 9-8.

In other contests, San Diego won both games of a twinbill, 3-2 and 7-2, while Seattle split a doubleheader with Vancouver, winning the first game 4-2 and dropping the second 3-1. Spokane defeated Portland, 7-2.

The Rainiers won the opener with the league-leading Mounties in the seventh as Hal Bevan and Dutch Dotterer hit back-to-back homers.

Mel Held won the nightcap by holding the Suds to six scattered hits while Max Surkont scored his first victory for Seattle since his arrival from Phoenix.

Friday's Scores

Seattle 5, Vancouver 9; Sacramento 4, San Diego 12; Portland 4, Spokane 0; Salt Lake City 3, Phoenix 12.

Both Rupert teams sweep twin bills

After a doubleheader at Roosevelt Park yesterday between Kitimat Vikings and Prince Rupert Esquires, the Clothiers now hold down second position in the Prince Rupert and District Baseball League. They downed the Aluminum City team 4-0 in the first game and 9-8 in the second.

The other Prince Rupert team, Gordon and Anderson, stretched its first-place lead over Esquires to four games by sweeping a doubleheader from Terrace Loggers in Terrace, 8-2 and 7-5.

Len Shankel chalked up his seventh straight win with a seven-hitter in the second game. Giving up one base on balls, Shankel struck out four Terrace batters.

In the first game, Gordie Cameron ran his pitching record to five wins and one loss, as he fed Terrace a six-hitter, walking three and fanning two.

G & A's rightfielder Darrel Young once again proved his prowess at the bat with a booming bases-loaded homer in the seventh.

The first game at Prince Rupert saw Esquires pitcher Al Adams score a 4-0 shutout.

Esquires' first run came in the first inning on manager Don Scherk's single, two steals, and an error.

The Clothiers' second tally came in the third when Rey McKay walked; Scherk singled to centre and Joe Davis was safe on first on an error which scored McKay. Bottom of the fifth inning saw Esquires add two insurance runs when Scherk doubled in McKay who had been issued a free pass and Joe Giordano singled to score Scherk.

In his winning role Adams struck out three and walked two, while losing pitcher Bud Goody gave up four hits, fanned 11 Esquires and gave up three bases on balls.

Second game of the day was started off with a bang when Kitimat's pitcher Bud Goody knocked a home run over the left field fence, bringing in John Rusnick.

Top of the second inning saw John Rusnick hit a home run that bounced off the top of the right field fence, bringing in Jack Bradford and Rex Rexziedler to make the score 5-0 for Kitimat.

The clothiers came to life in the bottom of the second when Andy Marshall scored from third on an error and Dick Bury stole home.

In the bottom of the third inning Esquires tied the game when Dawn Bodger, Marshall and Ron Ciccone all scored.

The clothiers took the lead late in the fifth inning as result of a home run smacked over the left field fence by Dan Bill, scoring Bodger to make the score 7-5.

Kitimat Vikings came back in the game early in the sixth inning when Rexziedler scored on a single by Wally Hennie and Rusnick and Hennie scored on a double by Ray Chenosky.

The Esquires clinched the game in the bottom of the sixth when Joe Giordano and Dawn Bodger scored making the final score 9-8.

In his seven-inning stint Goody gave up eight hits, walked three and struck out six.

Esquires' starter John Lambie allowed eight hits, gave up four free passes and fanned four. Scherk in his two thirds of an inning relief role gave up two hits, struck out one and walked no one.

Haddix hurls shutout as Redlegs take brace

By The Associated Press

Experts raised their eyebrows when Cincinnati Redlegs disposed of a good portion of their power for pitching last winter. Today this same pitching is largely responsible for the Reds' third place position, only 3½ games behind the league-leading Milwaukee Braves.

Harvey Haddix, who came from Philadelphia for slugger Wally Post, pitched his best game of the year for the Reds Sunday as Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Chicago 7-0 and 4-2. The little left-hander permitted only seven hits in the opener in pitching the team's third shutout in a five-game span. The double triumph gave Birdie Tebbetts' crew 11 victories in the last 16 games.

The Braves came from behind to defeat St. Louis Cardinals 4-2 and retain their 1½-game advantage over the runner up San Francisco Giants who defeated Philadelphia 3-1. Three Pittsburgh home runs in one inning highlighted the Pirates' 12-1 rout of the Dodgers in Los Angeles.

In Saturday's games St. Louis nipped Milwaukee 2-1, Philadelphia edged San Francisco 3-2, Chicago downed Cincinnati 4-3 and Los Angeles defeated Pittsburgh 4-2.

Friday's games: Philadelphia 1, San Francisco 7; Pittsburgh 4, Los Angeles 5; Milwaukee 2, St. Louis 0.

Frank Lary and Jim Bunning did the pitching for Detroit Sunday as the Tigers shut out the American League leaders, New York Yankees twice, 2-0 and 3-0

Ossie Virgil, Harvey Kuenn and Gail Harris drove in the key runs in the first double shutout the Yankees have suffered in eleven years.

The Tigers, in last place a week ago, are now fifth, only two games behind second-place Boston, nine games in back of the first place Yankees.

Boston muffed a glorious chance to close in on the Yankees as Kansas City smacked the Red Sox down in a doubleheader 17-6 and 9-4 to leave them still seven games off the pace. Cleveland took two from Washington 5-3 and 4-2 and Chicago shut out Baltimore twice, 3-0 and 4-0.

On Saturday, Detroit beat New York 5-4, Cleveland walloped Washington 10-2, Boston beat Kansas City 7-1 and Chicago belted Baltimore 9-1.

Friday's games were as follows: Cleveland 10, Washington 1; Detroit 4, New York 2; Kansas City 3, Boston 9; Chicago 5, Baltimore 5 (called at curfew.)

LOCAL SOFTBALL GALS SPLIT IN TERRACE DOUBLEHEADER

Prince Rupert Girls Softball league All Stars won one game and lost another as they played Terrace and Kitimat girls aggregations in Terrace yesterday.

The Rupert girls lost the first game to Terrace girls 8-6 and then edged Kitimat girls 7-6 in a second encounter.

Betty Senum lost the first game while Fay Trudeau pitched the Rupert squad to victory in the second. Carol McKay was receiver for both games. Selma Standring led the local hitters with a .800 batting average for the day.

Making the trip to Terrace for the All Stars were Kay Schooley, Jeanette McDonald, Fay Trudeau, Carol McKay, Carol Bryant, Selma Standring, Marilyn Farmer, Marge Brunelle, Vicki Kryklywyj, Doreen Pilford and Betty Senum.

Mounties hit skids in softball league

RCMP sank deeper into the cellar of Prince Rupert Men's Softball league over the weekend after dropping two decisions to Atlin and Savoy Hotel.

On Friday, Atlin won 13-10 over the constabulary on the strength of a seven-run explosion in the sixth inning. RCMP pitchers Ken Friesen and Dick Wallin gave up a total of 13 hits. Veteran Ian Dunbar handcuffed RCMP on 10 hits.

RCMP absorbed their second loss Sunday when Savoy hammered out four runs in the last inning for a 9-7 victory. Jimmy Leniuk was credited with the win for the hotelmen, giving up 10 hits and only one walk. RCMP used Ken Friesen and Fred Meyer on the diamond.

In Saturday's action, Local 708 slaughtered General Kiewit 25-12, connecting with 16 hits off loser Bill McDonald.

Winning pitcher Johnny Leniuk was equally effective on the mound and at bat. He held Kiewit to five hits, giving out 14 free passes. At the plate, he banged out a single and two doubles in four trips.

Softball game cancelled

Men's softball league game between Atlin and Army and Navy, scheduled for tonight, has been cancelled because of the visit of three navy ships.

There will be a general meeting of the association tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Savoy Hotel Sample room.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

Newcombe to Redlegs in last-minute trade

NEW YORK (AP)—Cincinnati's fast-moving Redlegs have Don Newcombe and the American League has a "new look" today following a frenzied final day swapping sprees shortly before the major's midnight trading deadline

Newcombe, pitching ace of the Dodgers for nearly a decade but a winless, 0-6 flop in seven starts as a transplanted Californian, went to the Redlegs in an eleventh-hour deal that sent righthander Johnny Klippstein, first baseman Steve Bilko and cash to Los Angeles.

In the only other National League trade, St. Louis sent shortstop Dick Schofield and cash to Pittsburgh for utility infielders Gene Freese and Johnny O'Brien.

HATZIC LAKE, B.C. (CP)—Chuck Hickling of Seattle, piloting the 226 cubic inch hydroplane Thrifty Chevrolier owned by Bill Muncey of Seattle, set a new course record Sunday to win the 12th annual Northwest Gold Cup races for limited boats at Hatzic Lake.

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—It took 12 years of playing professional golf to teach Tommy Bolt the meaning of the old saying about golf being a humbling game. Once he learned that lesson, Bolt got "what I've always wanted"—the United States Open championship.

He won the title on the sweltering Southern Hills course Saturday by playing the conservative, non-gambling kind of golf that lets the other fellow beat himself. He scored 71-71-69-72—283, three strokes over par.

HAMILTON (CP)—Don Fontana of Toronto won the singles title and teamed with Don Platt to win the doubles Sunday of the Southern Ontario tennis championships.

Ronnie breaks up Knox twosome

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ronnie Knox, the handsome footballer who would like to cash in on both his passing arm and his profile, says he doesn't want his stepfather to call signals on his career any longer.

But Harvey Knox, who might be called a quarterback's quarterback, since he's called the plays for Ronnie since the youngster first hit the headlines as a high school passing whiz, has other ideas.

Right now he's "terribly, terribly hurt" over Ronnie's decision to strike out on his own. The 23-year-old football star has contracts with both Chicago Bears of the National Football League and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. He announced his decision Friday.

GET OUT ON HIS OWN

Harvey wishes the boy luck, but adds: "I have a contract for a percentage of his earnings that has six years to run."

In explaining the break-up of the father-son act that has made Ronnie one of the most publicized athletes in the country, the former UCLA tailback said he thought it was time he went out on his own.

"It isn't that I don't love Harvey, or don't appreciate all he tried to do for me," he said. "It's simply a matter or evolution. You've got to grow up some time, and I figure I'm way overdue."

Harvey married Ronnie's mother when the boy was eight and started grooming him for a football career at once.

Under Harvey's tutelage Ronnie became an outstanding passer. In pursuit of the proper coaching for his son, Harvey enrolled Ronnie in three high schools and two colleges in successive years.

His talkative stepfather guided him to a brief fling in Canadian pro football in 1956. He started out with Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four League and then moved on to Calgary Stampeders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union after Harvey argued with Hamilton club officials how they should play Ronnie.

When Ronnie became interested in an acting career a few years ago, Harvey got him a top agent, a drama coach, and an M-G-M contract.

Knox said his disappointment over Ronnie's decision hasn't changed the way he feels about the boy.

"I like the guy, that's all," he said. "I don't care what he says. I like him.
