LADY NEW YORK RIDES OUTSIDE TAMMANY TIGER

MILITANTS ARE ORGANIZING ARMED FORCES — UNCLE SAM PREPARING TO FIGHT HUERTA

TAMMANY IS DEFEATED BY THE FUSION FORCES OF NEW YORK

LONDON NEWSPAPERS CONGRATULATE AMERICAN PEOPLE ON DEFEAT OF TAMMANY AND BIRTH OF HIGHER CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY.

(Special to The Daily News.)
New York, Nov. 6.—Not even on the night of a presidential election was there ever such wild rejoicings as filled the city last night. John Purroy Mitchell, the fusion candidate, was elected by a good majority beyond doubt, but the official returns were not published. Everywhere there were horns blowing and loud yells that "Tammany is defeated," "The tiger is dead," and so on. The chief by-product of the campaign and what undoubtedly did much to do with the success of the fusion ticket was a John Doe investigation of the charges brought by John Hennessey against Edward E. McCall, the Tammany candidate for mayor, and against Tammany Hall. But although defeated Tammany is by no means dead, and Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany chieftain, declares that nothing will force him to retire. The Tammanyites themselves, however, had their blood chilled by the disclosures made, and may retire the boss against his will and make a pretence at a complete reorganization.

London, Nov. 6.—All the morning newspapers congratulate the American people on the defeat of Tammany, which they consider gives hope of a new birth of democracy in the United States and a higher standard of civic responsibility.

MILITANTS TO ORGANIZE ON LINES OF ULSTER MILITIA

CAPTAIN SIR FRANCIS VANE, FAMOUS BOER GENERAL, TO COMMAND VOLUNTEER ARMY FOR PROTECTION OF MILITANTS AND LABORITES.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 6.—By a clever stratagem, which hoodwinked a large force of police sent to prevent her from speaking, Sylvia Pankhurst was enabled to announce last night at Low Baths the formation of a volunteer corps organized under the command of Captain Sir Francis Vane, a Boer war veteran. The organization is claimed to be for the protection of militants and labor unionists, and the general staff is to be drawn from men who have seen service. Both men and women are eligible for the ranks.

Miss Pankhurst said the plan was based upon the Ulster model and it was expected that it would enjoy the same immunity from government interference as was enjoyed by the followers of Sir Edward Carson.

When Miss Pankhurst left the meeting she was surrounded by a strong bodyguard of East Londoners and made her escape after a lively battle with the police, who surrounded the exits with drawn clubs. The bodyguard carried cudgels and retaliated to the police attack in kind. The shillalah shindy lasted for several minutes, during which several belligerents were injured. Miss Emmerson, a notorious hunger striker, was struck on the head and knocked down. But she was carried away by sympathizers and escaped.

NEW INDUSTRIES LIKELY TO BE ESTABLISHED HERE SOON

APPROACHING COMPLETION OF GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION TO PRINCE RUPERT AS AN INDUSTRIAL CENTRE

With the approaching completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway there is a growing interest in Prince Rupert as an industrial centre and aggressive concerns in many lines of industry are already investigating local conditions as they might affect the particular line in which they are interested. One industry that is already assured to Prince Rupert on a very large scale is ship building which will be carried on at the dry dock now under construction. It is not improbable that independent concerns will also engage in this industry, and there is in the city at the present time making an investigation Mr. Barbare, of Barbare Bros., large ship-builders at Tacoma.

Mr. Barbare is negotiating for a site at Port Edward and while he has not yet decided as to a location seems to be quite settled in regard to establishing a plant in this vicinity. He may also, it is understood, engage in the fishing industry.

Another industry that seems almost assured for Port Edward is a shingle mill. Messrs. McCready and Elliott, residents of the United States, were here recently in regard to the matter and looked over Port Edward sites.

As soon as the matter is decided machinery will be shipped, and the plant put in operation with as little delay as possible.

PERIPATETIC COURT

Lord Haldane's Scheme for Empire Court of Appeals.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 6.—If Lord Haldane's scheme for a peripatetic Empire court of appeals is adopted the law lords would hold sessions in Vancouver and Victoria. English lawyers regard the proposal as impractical.

GOING TO ENGLAND

Minister Foster Will Attend Imperial Trade Commission.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Hon. George E. Foster will leave about Christmas for England to attend the further sittings of the Imperial Trade Commission. He will be absent about a month and return shortly after the session opens.

OVER FORTY KILLED IN RAILWAY SMASH

Marseilles-Paris Express Comes Into Collision with Local Train Near Melun.

(Special to the Daily News)
Melun, France, Nov. 6.—Over forty were killed and forty injured when the Marseilles-Paris express was wrecked in a collision with a local train near here last evening. When darkness caused a suspension of rescue operations thirty-nine bodies had been taken from the wreck and others are believed to be under the ruins. Several of the injured are in a dying condition.

LOCAL COUPLE WEDDED

Happy Event at Empress Hotel Last Night.

The Empress Hotel was the scene of a happy event last night when Mr. James Ward and Miss Belle Hawthorne were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Dimmick of the Methodist Church in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties, who are both popular residents of the city. The bride has spent the last year here as the guest of Mrs. Casley of the Empress Hotel while the groom has for a considerable length of time been connected with Frizzell's meat market. During the ceremony the happy couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Casley, while Misses Lottie Daughtry and Muriel Bowen acted as flower girls. The bride and groom were made the recipients of a number of beautiful presents.

Among those who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. George Frizzell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul, Miss Della Groves, Mr. J. Raiz, Dr. and Mrs. Evans, Miss Bennett, Mr. Harry Potts, Mr. A. W. Gottstein, Mr. L. Reilly and Mr. R. Butler.

HAD HIGH OLD TIME

Storming Party Takes Possession of Sam Johnson's Home.

Although the rain was coming down in a very much advanced degree last night a jolly party about 9 o'clock entered and took possession of the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson on Ambrose avenue.

Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Langlo, Mr. and Mrs. Harberg, Mr. and Mrs. Holmquist, Mr. and Mrs. Hellman, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Johnson, Mrs. Lofquist, Mrs. J. McLeod, Mrs. Galland, Mrs. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Akerberg, Mrs. White, Miss Naslund, Miss Rorvik, Miss Fagerli, Miss Peterson, Miss Reinbold, Messrs. E. Stokland, C. Jedin, Foley, Morse, Bergman, Berner and J. Dybhavn.

Refreshments were served by the storming party and a very enjoyable time was spent. On behalf of those present Alderman Dybhavn handed Mr. and Mrs. Johnson as a present a very nice cut glass dish. The party withdrew about midnight.

WEIRD MYSTERY OF THE DEEP BROUGHT INTO NEW BEDFORD

FISHING SCHOONER, WITH CATCH WORTH EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS AND ALL SAILS SET AND NOT A SOUL ABOARD.

(Special to The Daily News.)
New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 6.—The faded yellow pages of the old log books of the New Bedford whaling fleet never recorded a mystery of the sea more baffling than was presented yesterday when the revenue cutter Gresham towed into the fishing port of Gloucester the fishing schooner Annie M. Parker. The schooner was picked up on Monday, all sails set, her hold filled with fish and not a single soul on board, sixty miles east of Nantucket lightship.

There was no trace of the nineteen men composing the ship's crew, but two dories were missing and the missing crew may have been picked up by a passing vessel.

The fish in the hold of the schooner are valued at $8,000. The Annie M. Parker sailed from Sydney, Nova Scotia, Oct. 26th.

Portland, Maine, Nov. 6.—Some of the crew of the Gloucester fishing schooner Annie M. Parker were brought here last night on the schooner Tifton, which picked them up at sea. The others were drowned in the storm, some of them being swept overboard from the schooner.

UNITED STATES STARTS HER PREPARATIONS FOR BIG WAR

WASHINGTON STILL WAITING TO HEAR FROM HUERTA—ORDERS TO ARMY OFFICIALS ALONG MEXICAN BORDER—THE FLEET AT VERA CRUZ.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Nogales, Nov. 6.—The officers commanding the United States troops on the Mexican border patrol have received orders to prepare equipment for active service in the field. The railways have been asked to give the government a statement of the facilities at their command for carrying forward the troops.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 6.—The German battleship Hertha sailed from here yesterday afternoon and the only foreign vessels now in port are the five United States battleships and two armored cruisers.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Waiting for word from President Huerta was the way the attitude of the officials of Washington toward the Mexican situation was described today. The administration continues to refuse to throw any light on the last communication which was conveyed to Huerta, in which the United States expressed the desire that he would eliminate himself from the situation.

THE CATHOLIC BAZAAR IS THE BIG ATTRACTION TODAY

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE FORMAL OPENING LAST NIGHT—DRAWING FOR PRIZES AND DANCE TONIGHT.

Although thrown open to the public at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the formal opening of the Catholic bazaar took place last night shortly after 8 o'clock. Under the illumination of shaded electric lights the hall presented a cozy and inviting appearance. After a few words of introduction by Rev. Father Bunoz, Mayor Pattullo was called on to formally open the bazaar. Mr. Pattullo was given a warm reception and in a brief address complimented the ladies on the results of their labors as shown by the magnificent display of useful articles in the various booths. He also congratulated them on the very tasteful decorations and felt sure that the affair would prove the success financially which they had planned.

Wm. Manson, M.P.P., also addressed the gathering along similar lines. The event recalled to his mind a similar one in the early days of the city when a bazaar was held in the G. T. P. Annex. At that time all the churches in the city were located around Centre-Street, but with the development that has taken place the churches have kept pace. Several of the churches now have fine edifices erected in various parts of the city. Mr. Manson congratulated the ladies upon the success of their undertaking and drew attention to the very important part that is played by the ladies in all of the churches. Without their assistance it would be next to impossible to keep the churches open.

Following the addresses the real business of the bazaar was resumed and the ladies in the various booths were kept busy in disposing of the goods offered for sale. Everybody was in a generous mood and the vendors had little difficulty in making sales. On entering the hall the visitors were impressed with the fact that they were not properly attired without a carnation as a button hole bouquet and of course everyone agreed. Vendors of tickets on drawings kept them selves busy and a large number were disposed of. The fish pond, the fortune teller, the refreshment booth, the candy booth and the fancy work booth all in turn had to be visited. When one had made the complete rounds he felt quite relieved.

A prominent feature of last night's programme was the whist tournament held in the room upstairs. Mrs. Landes won the cut glass vase given by Mrs. McKay and Mr. Bergeson the meerschbaum pipe presented by Kelly, Douglas & Co.

During the early part of the evening Alex. Gray enlivened the proceedings with piano selections and later the Westholme orchestra.

The bazaar will be continued this afternoon and evening. Tonight the drawings for various prizes will take place and in addition there will be a dance.
