FOR WORLD CUP

Five countries reach soccer quarter-finals

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Defending champions West Germany, Brazil, Yugoslavia, France and Sweden Sunday went into the quarter-finals of the world soccer cup championships. The fate of six other teams hung in the balance

Replays will be necessary to complete the lineup of the last eight.

Winners of these playoff matches Tuesday will go into the June 19 quarter-finals: Czechoslovakia vs Northern Ireland; Wales vs Hungary; and Russia vs England.

FIVE ELIMINATED

Argentina, Austria, Scotland, Paraguay and Mexico were eliminated from the tournament.

In Sunday's games, Sweden and Wales played a scoreless tie, Hungary defeated Mexico 4-0, Yugoslavia and Paraguay tied 3-3, France edged Scotland 2-1, Brazil blanked Russia 2-0, England and Austria tied 2-2, West Germany and Northern Ireland also tied 2-2, and Czechoslovakia routed Argentina 6-1.

This is the schedule for Thursday's quarter-finals:

West Germany vs Yugoslavia, France vs Northern Ireland or Czechoslovakia, Sweden vs Russia or England, and Brazil vs Wales or Hungary.

Semi-finals will be played June 24, with the final June 29.

SIXTEEN STARTED

Sixteen teams started campaigning last Sunday. They were divided in four groups of four teams each. The top two in each group advance to the quarter-finals.

Playoff matches were necessary when two teams shared second position in a group with the same number of points.

Austria went into a surprise 1-0 lead over England on a goal by Karl Koller in the 14th minute. Then England, playing a hard-tackling game, levelled the score in the 56th minute through inside forward Johnny Haynes.

The Austrians shot ahead again in the 73rd minute through Alfred Koerner. But a minute later the Englishmen equalized through centre forward Derek Kevan and qualified for a playoff against Russia.

WIN EARNS PLAYOFF

Hungary's 4-0 win over Mexico earned them a playoff against Wales.

Forward Raymon Kopa, Fontaine, and Plantoni starred in France's 2-1 victory over Scotland in one of the hardest fought affairs of the day.

Harry Gregg was the man of the match in the tussle between Northern Ireland and West Germany. Gregg made brilliant save after brilliant save to keep out the Germans.

Paraguay earned a 3-3 draw against Yugoslavia with a goal 15 minutes from time. But it was the Yugoslavs who impressed most with their fine teamwork and attractive passing.

The Argentine defence simply collapsed under the powerful attacking thrusts of the Czechs who steam rollered their way through to the Argentine goal. Argentina's only goal came on a penalty in the 65th minute.

The biggest crowd of the day turned up at Goteborg for the clash of the giants—Brazil and Russia. The Brazilians outclassed the Russians in every department. Their play was the finest exhibition of soccer seen yet in the tournament.

Operation scheduled for Tim Tam

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tim Tam will come to this centre of veterinary medicine this week for an operation known to baseball players as removal of bone chips.

Ball players usually return to the lineup after such an operation. Tim Tam, horse racing's biggest money winner this year, conceivably could race again but won't.

Calumet farm trainer Jimmy Jones said so Thursday in announcing the operation to be performed at the University of Pennsylvania's school of veterinary medicine.

"He's ruined, and about all we can do is save him for stud," said Jones in New York after confering with Dr. William Reed, his veterinarian, and Mrs. Gene Markey, owner of Calumet Farm.

The three-year-old colt won the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, then injured his right front ankle running the Belmont Stakes last Saturday. He finished second, losing his chance Willie dropped to .393 and behind

Dr. Jacques Jenny, the surgeon who will perform the operation, has this to say:

"I've treated a good number of horses with similar conditions, and some have raced, some have not. Some have raced and won.

"The operation will make it possible for Tim Tam to race again but it won't make him a better race horse."

First place at stake tonight

Sea Kings have the opportunity tonight to catch up with the Little League leaders, Shop-Easy, when they meet third-place Kinsmen at 7 o'clock at Algoma Park.

In Friday's action North Star defeated Sea Kings 9-7.

In the farm team loop Saturday, Sport Shop trounced Albert and McCaffery 15-5 and Greer and Bridden edged Skeena Grocery 11-10.

Little League players will be informed of the second half of their schedule in tomorrow's edition of The Daily News.

Remember When

By The Canadian Press

Bill Beasley's three - year - old colt Canadian Champ easily won the 97th running of the Queen's Plate two years ago today, the first time the historic race was run at the New Woodbine racetrack near Toronto. Canadian Champ had a margin of 4¾ lengths over Ben Steen's Argent at the finish of the classic.

Seven-run rally gives Fashion 19-18 victory

Fashion Footwear staged a seven-run rally in the sixth inning of their Women's Softball league fixture with Savoy at Gyro Park yesterday to wipe out a 10-9 deficit and set the stage for a 19-18 victory.

Fashion's big inning was capped off with a circuit clout by Marg Brunelle, the only one of the game.

Earlier in the game, Savoy had taken a 10-9 lead on an eight-run outburst in the fifth, scoring on only two singles and eight bases on balls off winning pitcher Roberta Heide. Roberta gave up a total of eight hits.

Losing pitcher Fay Trudeau was tagged for 14 hits.

Patterson won't fight in Toronto

TORONTO (CP)— World heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's manager won't bring his boxer to fight in Toronto this fall—even for $300,000.

Toronto fight promoter Jack Allen made the offer Thursday for Patterson to defend his title against the winner of Monday's fight between sixth-ranked Alex Miteff of Argentina and Toronto's George Chuvalo.

Manager Cus D'Amato turned down the offer, Allen reported Friday.

"He told me he has other irons in the fire," Allen said. "Apparently Miteff and his manager, Hymie Wallman, are on D'Amato's bad list."

Allen said he and D'Amato have arranged a conference later to discuss a Chuvalo-Patterson fight. Allen said his idea was that if Chuvalo beats Miteff Monday he would move into the top 10 heavyweights and become a legitimate contender for the title.
