

ENGLISH HAND-MADE LACE

MADE BY THE COTTAGERS OF BUCKINGHAMSHIRE.

This is the old-fashioned lace made on the cushion, and was first introduced into England by the Flemish Refugees. It is still made by the village women in their quaint old way.

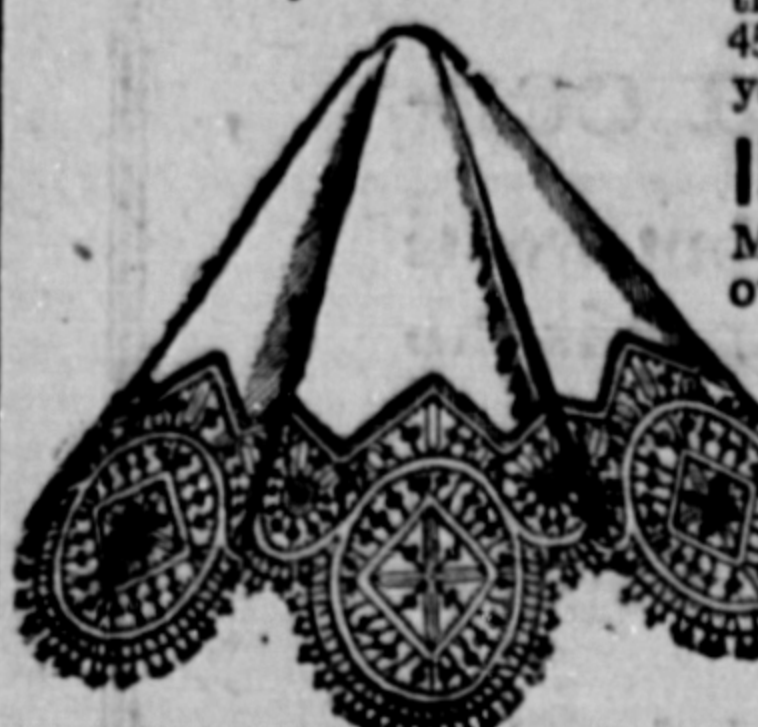

Our Laces were awarded the Gold Medal at the Festival of Empire and Imperial Exhibition, Crystal Palace, LONDON, ENGLAND, for general excellence of workmanship.

BUY some of this hand-made Pillow Lace, it lasts MANY times longer than machine made variety, and imparts an air of distinction to the possessor, at the same time supporting the village lace-makers, bringing them little comforts otherwise unobtainable on an agricultural man's wage. Write for descriptive little treatise, entitled "The Pride of North Bucks," containing 200 striking examples of the lace makers' art, and is sent post free to any part of the world. Lace for every purpose can be obtained, and within reach of the most modest purse.

Collars, Fronts, Plaques, Jabots, Yokes, Fichus, Berries, Handkerchiefs, Stocks, Camisoles, Chemise Sets, Tea Cloths, Table Centres, D'Osilies, Mats, Medallions, Quaker and Peter Pan Sets, etc. from 25c. to $1.00. $1.50, $2.00 up to $5.00 each. Over 300 designs in yard lace and insertion in yard lace, and within reach of the most modest purse.

COLLAR—Pure Linen. $1.00.

DAINTY HANDKIE—70c. No. 910.—Lace 1 1/2 in. deep.

Every sale, however small, is a support to the industry.

With the wind blowing a gale and the rain coming down in torrents it is not a pleasant experience to be locked out of one's lodging quarters. This, however, was the experience last night of the occupant of a shack back of the Houston Cafe. It was no night for a human being to remain out of doors, so the matter was reported to the police who on forcing an entrance into the shack found comfortably tucked away for the night a man named Geo. Smith. On taking him to the police station it was found he was only a week or so ago left on a suspended sentence on a charge of vagrancy. On appearing before the magistrate this morning he was ordered to serve a term of thirty days. Smith, who has been around the city for a few weeks, is about 60 years of age.

At the morning service the pastor will preach the second sermon in his series on "Life's Burdens," the subject being "Other People's Burdens." The evening service will be given chiefly to a service of song, the following being the order of service:

BROTHERHOOD GIVES CALLIES A DUSTING

Score Was Fifteen to Six but the Callies Were Not at their Full Strength

In the basketball arena last night the Brotherhood had by far the best of the Callies, 15 to 6 being the resultant score. The Callies played well but they had not their full strength out and in this way the extent of their defeat is accounted for.

At half time the game stood 5 to 4 in favor of the Brotherhood, but in the matter of play the Callies were value for quite a few more points. From then on, however, the Callies failed to deliver the goods and their opponents continued to pile up the score. Ralph Rogers was the outstanding man for the victors, while Sam Currie and J. H. Kelly were the best men on the Callie side, both playing a strong game.

J. G. Scott refereed the game to the entire satisfaction of both sides, while Adair Carss assisted as umpire. The checking was close at times but no player was ruled off.

The teams were as follows:—Brotherhood—Ives, Mobley, Rogers, Johnston and Blythe. Callies—J. H. Kelly, S. Currie, McClure, Brown and Campbell.
