DANGER OF SPLITTING
PROTECTION SPOILS.

In making upon the federal government the formal demand that 10 per cent. of the customs and excise receipts be passed along to the provinces in addition to the grants now made to provinces out of the Dominion treasury, the provincial premiers place themselves in the position of seeking to make the provincial governments which they represent beneficiaries of a protectionist policy.
The most unanswerable charge against the Borden government is that it has collected through the medium of the tariff fifty millions of dollars more than is required to conduct the business of the country, which it dignifies by the name of a surplus, and every dollar thus taken is a burden upon the industry of the Dominion of Canada. To split among the provinces any part of this tribute will not relieve the burden, although it may have the effect of giving some provincial parliamentarians the feeling that they are partners in the crime of protection.

Table with 2 columns: Province, Amount. Total $13,235,000.

THE NEPOTISM
OF BOWSER.

It is a matter of regret that the appointment of Frank Bowser, brother of the attorney general, to the position of chairman of the Burrard peninsula joint sewerage commission should have been made, says the Mining Record of Vancouver. This is a position to which a technical man alone should have been appointed, and the appointment should have been made from among civil engineers well posted in sanitary engineering. The scheme will cost millions of public money and every precaution should have been taken to have that money expended to the best advantage.

HARRY THAW ORDERED BACK TO THE MATTEAWAN ASYLUM

GOVERNOR OF NEW HAMPSHIRE HONORS REQUISITION OF NEW YORK STATE—HABEAS CORPUS PROCEED-INGS AFFORD ANOTHER STAY.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 8.—Governor Felker today honored the requisition of the state of New York for the extradition of Harry K. Thaw.

The case is now transferred automatically to the federal courts, where a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Thaw is pending.

The governor based his decision on the indictment returned against Thaw in New York County, which charges him with conspiracy to escape from the insane asylum at Matteawan, N. Y., to which he was committed after his second trial for the killing of Stanford White. Thaw made his sensational flight on August 17, and a few days later was arrested near Coaticook, Canada.

Thaw's attorneys announced they would immediately file an amendment to their petition for a writ of habeas corpus, application for which was made soon after Thaw was arrested in this state after his deportation from Canada. The original petition was based on the allegation that Thaw was indicted for conspiracy by the Dutchess County grand jury, and it was suspended pending the governor's decision on the question of extradition. Because the extradition has now been granted on the strength of the New York County indictment it will be necessary to amend the petition accordingly.

Thaw was not present when Governor Felker announced his decision to the attorneys represented the fugitive from the state of New York at the capitol.
He will remain here in the custody of United States Marshal Nute and Sheriff Drew pending the federal proceedings.

WEST COAST PATROL

Two Whaling Steamers Chartered for Heavy Weather Service.

Victoria, Nov. 8.—Early next week, it is stated, two of the little whaling steamers will outfit and sign crews preparatory to starting out to patrol the coast of British Columbia under charter to the marine and fisheries department. According to the report, it is most likely that the vessels sent to sea will be the Blue and Brown. The whalers will be kept under the direction of the fisheries officials all through the winter, and will be released as soon as the heavy weather shows signs of subsiding in the spring.

FRENZIED EX-CONVICT

Tried to Shoot Police Inspector at Regina.

Regina, Nov. 8.—Frenzied at the thought of facing another term in prison, Alfred Belcourt, alias D. J. Duval, a ticket of leave man, attempted to shoot Inspector Gleadow in his private office yesterday morning. Belcourt and Edward Sieh, another convict, were rounded up by Inspector Gleadow and Detective Toop, and when searched at the police office they disgorged a surprising amount of stolen goods. The police believe that these men have been mixed up in the recent series of store robberies.

NOTED EXPERT IS DEAD

Sir William Preece, the Father of Wireless Telegraphy

London, Nov. 6.—Sir William Henry Preece, known in England as the "father of wireless telegraphy," died here today, aged 80 years. Sir William introduced both the telephone and the talking machine into England and was the inventor of many devices connected with the telegraph and telephone. For several years he was the engineer in chief and electrician to the British post office and president of the institution of Civil Engineers.

Acquitted of Murder

Welland, Ont., Nov. 6.—Antonio Paulo, who was charged with murder in connection with the shooting of Venecenzo Feresse and Antonio Strangof last March, was acquitted by the jury in the Criminal Assize Court here last night. Paulo admitted the shooting, but claimed the two men had attacked him and threatened to take his life.

Women Police in Victoria

Victoria, Nov. 6.—Two police-women were appointed to the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday. They are the first women to be selected for police duty in this city. Mrs. Claydars, widow of Police Sergeant Claydars, and Miss Macdonald, a graduate nurse, were the appointees.

Decorations for Princess

London, Nov. 8.—King George has conferred the decorations of the Royal Red Cross on Princess Andrew of Greece, in recognition of her services in nursing wounded Greek soldiers during the recent war in the Balkans.

Remember
Mother this Christmas

YES, of course, Mother knows you are busy—too busy to write—she overlooks it—it is a way mothers have, but there can be no possible excuse for neglecting her at Christmas.

Send her something this Christmas. It doesn't make any difference how much you pay—just show care and thought in its selection. Picture to yourself her pride when she shows her friends and yours your gift "From my boy. He doesn't forget Christmas."

There are hundreds of articles in the "Ryrie" Gift Book that would gladden Mother's heart.
She will appreciate the fact that your gift comes from "Ryrie's."

While you remember—write for the Gift Book—to-day.
