The police commissioners meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The steamer Venture from Vancouver arrived at 8 o'clock this morning and left shortly afterwards for Granby Bay.

A man named Drayman was fined $10 this morning for disorderly conduct. Another man named Olisky paid a $5 fine for the same offence.

A report has reached the city that a well known resident of the interior has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for keeping a blind pig at Decker Lake.

NO INTENT TO STEAL ACCUSED WAS DRUNK

Charge Was Altered and Accused Paid Fine for Being Drunk

The small sum of one simoleon caused a lot of trouble at the Central Hotel yesterday and a police court case this morning. Martin Hanson was charged with the theft of that amount from the room of one of the chambermaids. According to the evidence taken, the accused went upstairs in the hotel and asked one of the maids for Charles Oleson, the bartender. He then asked the maid for a handkerchief and she went into her room where she gave him one. He handed her a dollar but she would not accept it. They both left the room but when the maid went back later she found Hanson there. He had a dollar in his hand and a leather purse on the dresser was open. The maid called Mrs. Oleson who took the bill from the man and put him out. Some time later the maid again found Hanson in the room when the porter was called and he was put out.

From further evidence taken it was plain there was no intent to steal and that the man was drunk.

The charge was changed accordingly and a fine of $40 was imposed.

DUBLIN IS GROWING LESS PURELY IRISH

Social Life Very Much the Same as in Larger English Provincial Circles.

During the last twenty or thirty years Dublin has gradually grown less purely Irish, less national in its tone, than of old. Formerly the average citizen, whatever his view of the Union, regarded Dublin as the capital; today he considers it provincial, says the London Times. Social life in Dublin now is very much like social life in the larger English provincial circles: it is more or less exactly copied from the London model. The ordinary Dubliners of the better class take their amusements from London and arrange their festivities on English lines. The young men and maidens dance the same dances, to the same tunes, that are popular in London; those who aspire to culture eagerly devour the works of the fashionable English writers of the moment, and flock to the theatres that, with one exception, of which the average citizens knows little and cares less, provide London plays. And yet in this atmosphere there has grown up a society—small, but not exclusive, only neglected—that is as distinctly Irish, as intensely national, as any that Dublin has ever known. The nucleus around which this society has come into existence is twofold; on the one hand the Irish literary revival, and on the other the agricultural movement, of which Mr. George Russell and Sir Horace Plunkett are the leaders.

PRINCESS SOPHIA HAD A HEAVY CARGO

The C. P. R. steamer Princess Sophia, which arrived from Vancouver at one o'clock yesterday afternoon, left for Skagway and Alaskan ports shortly after noon today. Burns & Co., and lumber for the Westholme Lumber Co.

FERDINAND IS AFRAID

Czar of Bulgaria No Longer Popular with People

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 8.—King Ferdinand is getting uneasy about his throne, according to a report here. During his visit to Vienna, Ferdinand consulted the Emperor and the Austrian foreign minister about revision of the peace treaty, urging that otherwise his position would be imperilled.

It is certain Bulgaria is resentful against the King for forcing the country into another war which ended so disastrously for Bulgaria. The doors of the royal palace at Sofia have been billed "For Rent."

Comprehensive Exhibit

The Grand Trunk Pacific will participate this year in the United States Land Show to be held in the Coliseum, Chicago, from November 20 to December 8. For this purpose the company have secured a large space, covering an area of 1000 square feet, in which they will install a comprehensive exhibit of the natural resources of the three prairie provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, as well as an exhibit from British Columbia, the feature of the latter being mineral products and fruit from the territory adjacent to the railway skirting the Skeena river and the exhibits depicting the development of the agricultural lands in Central British Columbia, in which are situated the Nechaco and Bulkley Valleys. The entire exhibit will be embellished with handsome photographs made from direct negatives taken this year by the official photographers of the Grand Trunk Pacific, who covered the route from Winnipeg, Manitoba, to Prince Rupert, British Columbia, through the Canadian Rockies via the Yellowhead Pass, down the Fraser River to Prince George, B.C., through the plateau and valley lands of Central British Columbia, and down the Skeena to the Pacific. Thousands of interested people will view this splendid collection, and Canada will receive valuable advertising as a result.
