Warren Spahn Pitcher Of Year?

By The Associated Press

Wonderful Warren Spahn, now the National League's all-time shutout king, has the edge for the pitcher of the year award to-day while righthander Jack Sanford, Philadelphia's late-comer, likely will have to be satisfied with the league's rookie citation.

Spahn, the 36-year-old master of Milwaukee's first-place Braves, moved ahead of Sanford and lefthander Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox and gained his 41st career shutout Tuesday in an 8-0 victory over Chicago Cubs.

It was Spahn's 18th victory, matching Pierce for the major league lead, and kept the easy-running Braves 8½ games ahead of the second-place St. Louis Cardinals, who clobbered Cincinnati 14-4.

MISSED A CHANCE

Sanford, a 28-year-old rookie, missed a big bid to keep pace in victories when lifted for an eighth-inning pinch-hitter as the Phils took a 12-inning, 3-2 victory over Brooklyn that dropped the third-place Dodgers 10 games behind.

New York Giants defeated Pittsburgh 6-5 in 12 in the other National League game.

Spahn, whose edge for the second annual Cy Young Award.

Don Newcombe won the inaugural lies in the won-lost and earned run columns, also came a step closer to his eighth season of 20 or more victories. Only one southpaw, Bob Lefty Grove, has ever accomplished that feat in modern major league history.

The crafty veteran, only holdover from Braves' last pennant in 1948, got past the pesty seventh-place Cubs with a six-hitter, striking out five and walking only one.

LOSES THIRD

Southpaw Dick Littlefield, matched Spahn's whitewash job for six frames, then dropped his third in a five-run seventh. Hank Aaron made it a romp with his 39th homer, good for three runs, in the eighth.

Sanford was tagged for both Brooklyn runs and the three meagre hits the Dodgers managed. Dick Farrell and Bob Miller, no-hit the Brooks over the last five with Farrell winning his seventh.

Harry Anderson junked Don Drysdale's bid for a second consecutive shutout with a two-run, two-out homer in the ninth that tied it. Ex-Dodger Chico Fernandez tripled and Willie Jones, batting for Farrell, hit a long fly, for the clincher.

Al Lopez, long accustomed to finishing second to New York Yankees, stubbornly maintains his Chicago White Sox still can catch the league leaders—"with a little luck."

Lopez finished second to the Yankees five times in his six years as manager of Cleveland Indians, and barring a miracle of sorts, he will do it again in his first year at the White Sox helm.

"We're not dead yet," he said Tuesday after his club lost 3-2 in 11 innings to Detroit and valuable ground to Yanks. "We're only five games behind in the loss column and we have 22 games to play. So we're still in there."

White Sox dropped two out of three to Tigers and remained 5½ games behind New York, who suffered a similar fate against Baltimore.

However, in Tuesday's only other scheduled contest in the American League New York blanked Orioles 2-0.

Sox carried a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the ninth before pinch hitter Ray Boone batted in the tying run with a single. Al Kaline swatted his 21st home run to lead off the 11th.

Kaline also singled home a run in the first off Bob Keegan. Gerry Staley lost it in relief for a 5-1 record. Billy Hoeft won his seventh with an eight-hitter, giving up homers to Larry Doby and Dropo.

Lopez, who has a long memory, said "we had a winning streak going once, you know. All we need right now is another streak — and some help from those clubs who are going to be playing the Yankees. I still think we can do it, and the players haven't quit hustling — not for one minute."

Mounties Off Pace In PCL

Seattle Rainiers beat Vancouver Mounties 4-3 Tuesday night, leaving the Mounties still 3½ games off the pace in the Pacific Coast baseball league.

The league-leading San Francisco Seals also lost, 5-3, to Hollywood Stars.

In Seattle, Mounties' Jim Marshall opened the scoring with a homer, his 28th of the season. He hit another after Seattle pushed across three runs in the fifth but the Rainiers brought it to 4-2 by the end of the sixth. Vancouver got its final run in the eighth when Owen Friend hit a double and scored on Carl Powis' single.

In Portland, Steve Bilko hit his 53rd and 54th home runs of the season as the Los Angeles Angels crushed the Beavers 12-0.

A 10th inning homer by Al Heist enabled Sacramento Solons to edge San Diego 6-5.
