TELKWA IRON DEPOSITS ARE SAID TO BE OF GREAT VALUE

JOHN V. RITTENHOUSE TELLS IN VANCOUVER OF HIS EXAMINATION OF THESE MINING PROPERTIES AND HIS CONCLUSIONS.

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—"It is my unqualified opinion that the iron deposits I examined in the Telkwa district are of great potential value, and in the near future will be one of the great dominating factors in the development of the steel industry in this section," Mr. John V. Rittenhouse, consulting and mining engineer of New York, who has returned from an examination of mining properties in Northern British Columbia, said yesterday at the Hotel Vancouver. He was called from New York to examine the iron deposits which are controlled by the North Pacific Iron Mines, Ltd., a Prince Rupert corporation.

The deposits are situated on the original survey line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway between Telkwa and Copper City. In extent the deposit, as ascertained from the engineer's examination, cover more than 200 acres, and the company's locations cover 375 acres.

Mr. Rittenhouse estimates that there are some 10,000,000 tons of iron ore on the property. The deposit is what is known as bog iron and is a brown hematite in character. Mr. Rittenhouse says the deposit is very similar to the Alabama deposits of bog iron and analysis shows it is well within the Bessemer limit.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

H. C. Jackson, publicity man for the Hazelton Mine Owners' Association left this morning for Spokane and Butte. He may not return before April next.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. T. Sawle and little son, who spent the summer at Namu cannery, have returned to the city and taken up their residence on Musgrave St. Mr. Sawle reports that the fishing at Namu this season was far below the average and business generally was poor.

A. S. King, who spent a couple of days here making plans for the establishment of a fertilizer plant on the Skeena river for a Scottish firm who are in that business on a very large scale, left on the steamer Prince George this morning for Vancouver, en route to New York. He will sail from that port on the Lutsitania on Nov. 29th for the old country.

ENJOYABLE DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Besner Entertained a Number of Friends Last Night

Mr and Mrs. Besner entertained about thirty friends last night at a thoroughly enjoyable dinner party at the new Knox Hotel. The table was very tastefully decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums. At each plate was a pretty little card with the name of the guest to be seated. After the dinner progressive whist was indulged in for a couple of hours. Mrs. Geo. A. Sweet won the ladies' prize, a pretty silver photo frame, while r. J. F. Pooler carried off the prize for the men, a silver mate hbox.

Mrs. Besner fully sustained her reputation as a most capable hostess.

TRAVELLING CASH SYSTEM

Installed in H. S. Wallace Co.'s Progressive Store

H. S. Wallace Co., Ltd., have just installed a travelling cash system in their large up-to-date establishment. The new system will not only relieve the sales staff of many unnecessary steps but will also facilitate matters for shoppers who patronize the store. Miss Scherk is in charge of the system which is the first to be installed in this city.

The adoption of this improvement is but another evidence of the store's progressive management. Twice within the past year the store has been enlarged to accommodate the larger stocks that are necessary to suit the growing business.

Storm on the Way

According to street talk the storm which has been raging all day is but a gentle zephyr as compared with the storm that is expected at the Conservative meeting tonight. In order to intercept the storm, it is said that admission will be by ticket only. The "Progressive" section of the party is expected to turn out in good strength.

DRAMA AT THE WESTHOLME

"Over the Hill to the Poorhouse" Was Changed

"While Baby Slept" is a domestic film drama that will please everyone who sees it. The old grandfather in the farmer's home is so old and helpless that it is determined to remove him to the poorhouse, and the farmer's wife leaves for this purpose. While she is absent one of the larger circuses, with any number of cages containing lions and tigers and other savage things of the wild passes through the town, and from one of the cages an immense python manages to escape. It wriggles its scaly length to the farmer's home where the baby sleeps and the helpless watches. But he manages to scribble a note and fasten it to the collar of the faithful collie. The baby is saved from the serpent and grandpa does not go to the poorhouse. It is a pathetic little drama.

There is also a more ethereal subject called "The Tangled Web," and a Keystone comedy. These are held to be the best comedies on the movies market. This one shows a bowling match between the merry roosterers, in which the balls and pins and everything moveable is suddenly called into ludicrous action. Altogether the Westholme has a very fine entertaining bill for this evening.
