WEDDING JUNE 21

Peggy Ann Dominato honored with shower

Popular bride-elect Miss Peggy Ann Dominato was feted with a miscellaneous shower last week when a group of friends gathered at the home of hostess Mrs. R. C. Haugan, in honor of Miss Domiato's forthcoming marriage to Robert Brewerton which will be an event of June 21.

As the guest of honor arrived she was presented with a pink carnation corsage and seated between bridesmaids - elect Miss Joan Brewerton and Miss Leona Dominato, sisters of the affianced couple.

A pink and white decorated basket filled to overflowing with a large array of gifts was given to Miss Dominato, following an evening of games. Refreshments concluded the delightful affair.

Others extending best wishes and gifts were Mrs. A. J. Dominato, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Leonard Brewerton, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. B. I. Anderson, Mrs. Ronald Stewart, Mrs. William Dumont, Mrs. Wallace Poole, Mrs. Harold Britten, Mrs. George Thain, Mrs. George Place, Mrs. A. B. Ljungh, Mrs. Edith Brewerton, Mrs. H. W. Timms, Mrs. William Timms, Miss Kathy Thain, Mrs. C. G. Brechin and Mrs. Daniel Kristmanson.

DEADLINE NEAR

Judges to scrutinize city beards tomorrow

Bewhiskered city men have one more day to groom their beards before the judging of the Junior Chamber of Commerce beard growing contest to be held at midnight Wednesday at the Armed Services Ball in the Navy Drill hall.

Contest chairman Jaycee member S. R. G. MacLeod said that besides the two top prizes for most distinguished beard and most comical beard, given by the Centennial committee, there will be numerous other prizes given by local merchants.

Mr. MacLeod said that while it was not necessary for entries to attend the dance, contestants are required to be at the hall at 11:45 p.m. to be elegible for the contest parade.

Contestants wishing to enter the beard growing contest are asked to bring the entry form, printed elsewhere on this page.

For further informations Mr. McLeod said that contestants could phone him at 4139 after 6 p.m.

Contest judges will be distinguished Canadian naval officers Rear Admiral R. E. S. Bidwell, Captain J. C. Littler, commanding officer of HMCS Ontario; Cmdr. J. P. T. Dawson, commanding officers of HMCS Skeena and Cmdr. D. S. Boyle, commanding officer of the Athabaskan.

The contest is just one of the many attractions of the dance, sponsored by the Canadian Legion branch No. 27, under the chairmanship of president Robert Sim. The Ladies auxiliary is convening the midnight supper hour.

Music is being supplied by the famous HMCS Ontario dance band.

Missionary group holds cradle roll ceremony

A "cradle roll' ceremony highlighted the regular meeting of St. Paul's Lutheran church Women's Missionary Federation last Thursday night held in the church hall.

Some 34 children and parents attended the event followed by the serving of refreshments, including pink and blue candle-lit cakes, made by Mrs. Anton Dybhavn.

At the ceremony pastor Rev. A. S. Olson read the scripture "Let the World of Life Dwell in you Richly."

Cradle roll secretary Mrs. Dybhavn read the cradle roll news letter. Mrs. Olson read a poem entitled "My Baby."

Mrs. Clarence Adland and Mrs. Frants Frantsen sang a duet "Tell Me his Name Again."

A group of older children sang three action songs.

Speaking on the cradle roll program Mrs. Adland said that when children under five years of age are baptized into the church, they enter the cradle roll for a fee of $1, which is paid by the sponsors, parents or relatives, or the WMF.

The accumulation of these dollars help to pay for children's orphanges or help to assist children in need in foreign lands, Mrs. Adland said.

Mrs. Bernoff Pedersen and Mrs. John Pedersen were joint-hostesses for the WMF.
