Outboard Regatta On Sunday

By GLADYS BALDWIN

Prince Rupert outboarders will have another chance to gain points toward the end of the season trophy when the third outboard regatta gets under way Sunday July 21, weather permitting.

The regatta, sponsored by the Prince Rupert Outboard Association, is scheduled to take place in the harbor off the CNR dock at 2 p.m. Six stock events and a cruiser race are to be run off, providing there are enough entries for each race.

The battle for points is a close one. Randy Baldwin leads with ten points to his credit. Four racers are in the nine point spot, Chris Harvey, Bob Armstrong, Cliff Klages and Larry Eby. Bill Rothwell has eight points and Frank Baldwin seven. A spot of motor trouble, seaweed in the prop could lead to surprising changes in the standings.

Jim Waldbauer has the six-point place all to himself. D. Vaala, Henry Seppa and Pat Wilson have five points each. Bob Yamada, Don Baldwin, Wally Ballinger, Gordon Ronson, Don McDonald, Trig Kaardal, Ed Cotterell and Olsen have four points. Dave Martin and Fred Simonson have two points and Barney Wick one.

Six stock events are, 6 hp and under; 6 to 9 hp; 9 to 12 hp; 12 to 20 hp; 20 to 30 hp; Class X (over 30 hp.)

Outboarders are advised to carry the usual safety equipment.

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Today's Deal Points Out Considerations For Making a Successful Contract

The big problem in the play of many hands is that of deciding which suit to work on to establish your tricks. There are many factors to consider in making your choice.

To which opponent are you willing to surrender the lead? Will you have enough entries to run your suit after it is established? How many tricks will you have to give up to establish your suit? Is it better to work first on a suit in which you hold one or both of the top cards, or should you go after a suit in which the enemy holds the first and second-round controls?

In today's deal, Mr. Dale's play was influenced principally by his desire to keep Mr. Abel out of the lead. Mr. Champion opened the four of hearts, dummy's queen was put up and it held.

Now Mr. Dale forgot about the diamond suit temporarily. He did not relish either a heart or a club lead from his right, so he led a small spade from dummy at trick two and put in the eight spot from his hand.

Mr. Champion won with the queen and could not lead another heart without losing a trick. He therefore returned the eight of diamonds. Mr. Dale was still not ready to take a chance on losing the lead to Mr. Abel. He went up with dummy's ace of diamonds and pulled the jack of spades through. It held when Mr. Abel refused to cover. Now another spade to the ace cleared the suit.

With nine tricks in sight, the time had now arrived to take the diamond finesse with complete safety. It lost to the queen but Mr. Dale won the heart return with the ace and had nine tricks, including three spades, two hearts, three diamonds and a club.

He would not have fared this well if he had chosen to duck the first heart lead in dummy, win in his own hand with the jack and take the diamond finesse immediately. On winning with the queen of diamonds Mr. Abel could have returned a heart and the defenders could have cleared that suit while Mr. Champion still had the queen of spades for an entry.

New Line Unveiled

OTTAWA (CP) —Coach Frank Clair pulled the wraps off his 1957 edition of Ottawa Rough Riders Thursday night in the club's annual Reds-Whites game won by the Reds 26-6.

A shirtsleeve crowd of some 7,000 witnessed the contest in sweltering heat. It was a warm-up for four exhibition games billed by the Riders with Western Interprovincial Football Union clubs.

Touchdowns for the Reds were scored by homebrews Frank Fraser of Montreal, former Queen's University star Gary Schrieder, end Bob Simpson, and import half Bobby Judd, formerly of Xavier. Fullback Fred Brock of Wheaton, Ill., scored the Whites' only six-pointer.

Hal Ledyard, battling Tom Dimitroff of the University of Miami, Ohio and Roger Bertoia of Xavier University to retain his first-string signal-calling job, tossed touchdown passes to Simpson and Schrieder.

Coach Frank Clair has until Aug. 2 to whip the club into shape before the team takes on Calgary Stampeders here.
