WA delegates urged to spread gospel

Fifty delegates at the opening day of the 46th annual meeting of the Caledonia Diecesan Board of the Women's auxiliary to the Anglican Church of Canada yesterday were told that as living agents for Jesus Christ their job was to preach and spread the gospel of grace and salvation.

Addressing the congregation was Very Rev. A. E. Hendy, Dean of Caledonia who spoke following Holy Communion, at which Rt. Rev. H. G. Watts, Bishop of Caledonia officiated.

Dean Hendy stressed that Christ commissioned His church to a commitment to missionary activity.

"Christ is with us at all times in His presence and power," Dean Hendy said. "In this the whole church shares and the strength of the church depends upon its interest and its endeavor in this respect," he added.

Dean Hendy said the Women's auxiliary "has played a noble part since its inception in furthering the work of the church."

Guest speaker at luncheon, W. H. Crossley regional administrator for the Social Welfare branch of the northern area, pointed out how the new social service department of the WA was in keeping with his program "Through Love be Servants One to Another."

"Social service work is basically Christianity, set up to give aid to the needly," Mrs. Crossley said.

Afternoon speaker Mrs. Lillian Lucey RN, of Atlin, B.C., gave highlights of her work among the Indians in the north and Eskimos in the Arctic.

"The greatest work in the WA is achieved by togetherness," Mrs. . G. Watts told members in her president's address.

Mrs. Watts said that while the year 1957 had not been a spectacular one in WA advance, it was moving ahead quietly and firmly, with three new senior branches added to the Diocesan family in Ocean Falls, on the art Highway and at Dawson Creek.

However, she said that the newly-formed WA in Houston was dissolved.

Mrs. Watts extended her gratitude to the officers who dedicated themselves with great devotion and ability in the WA work.

She said that the financial situation was vastly improved over the past year and paid tribute to the efforts of the WA to influence young people "in God's world-wide task."

Giving the welcome address was Mrs. H. V. Tattersall of Prince Rupert, to which Mrs. Charles Hall, Fort St. James, responded. Noon day prayers and address was given by Miss D. Savery of Stewart.

Afternoon prayer was said by Mrs. C. A. Hinchliffe.

Last night's session was highlighted by slides by Miss Winnifred Gray RN, on her work in India.

Election of officers took place this afternoon, followed by a tea in the Bishop's Lodge with Mrs. Watts as hostess.

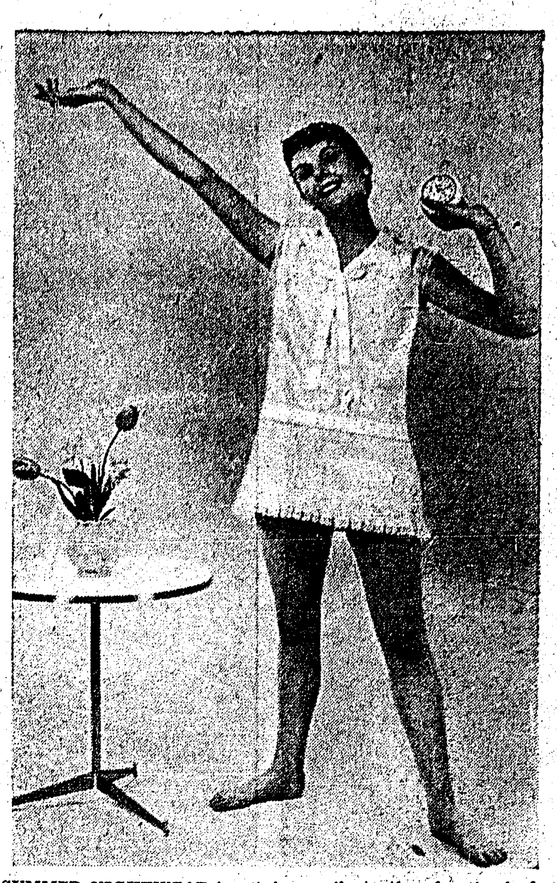
Driving topic of sermon for Sunday

The Sunday evening service at First United Church will be highlighted by a sermon on highway safety.

"Driving Like Jehu or Jesus" will be the subject of Rev. Vernon E. McEachern's address.

Mr. McEachern said that his topic was to coincide with the annual Teenage Safe Driving Roadeo sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce this weekend. He said all car drivers are invited to attend the special service.

Baptisms will highlight the Sunday morning service at which Mr. McEachern will preach on the subject "Jonah and the Whale."



SUMMER NIGHTWEAR has taken gaily to the chemise look. This baby doll with the middy colar is in a cool blend of 65 per cent terylene and 35 per cent cotton which looks like cotton yet keeps its freshness and seldom needs ironing. The collar is trimmed with lace and the little skirt is permanently pleated. By Linda Lingerie.

WEEKLY SERMON

THE FAITH THAT WILL STAND THE TEST!

A little boy, convalescing from an illness, printed the word "Faith" on a slip of paper. Just about that time a gust of wind snatched it out of his hand and it went out the open window. "Oh, he cried, "my 'Faith' has blown out the window!"—How's your faith? Will it really stand the test?

What I have in mind is more than a mere creed or a particular church. It has to do with a person—the Lord Jesus Christ. Faith in Him will stand the test for it is God's faith and contains God's power—Jn.14:6—"I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me!"—Romans 1:16—"For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth."

1. It Stands The Test of Time!—and many are the tests that come to us today, but like the old negro spiritual says of the "old-time religion," that it was good for our mothers — makes me love everybody—for the phophet Daniel — for the Hebrew children—was tried in the fiery furnace — for Paul and Silas — will do when I am dying—will take us all to Heaven—"It's good enough for me!"

So often we feel Christianity is good enough for Sunday, but fail to see the need of putting it in operation the rest of the time.

2. It Stands The Tests Of False Teachings!—and how many confusing voices there are raised today. Yet this faith contains the "Thus saith the Lord."

3. It Stands The Tests of Critics! — has your faith got what it "takes" when you are "razzed" — called "chicken," "high-hat," "sissy" because you dare to stand for godly principles and convictions?

4. It Stands The Tests of Circumstances! — this faith does not go "out the Window" when we need it most. The Bible is full of examples of what faith strengthened men to do!

5. It Stands The Test Of Death!—death is what brings fear, dread, anxiety, doubts flooding into our minds when we think of it—how wonderful to rest our soul in Christ for that hour! Jn. 11:25,26—"Jesus said unto her, "I am the Resurrection and the Life, he that believeth in Me, though he were dead yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die! Believest thou this?"

6. It Will Stand The Test of Judgment In Eternity!—the key point in the scene in Rev. 20:11-15 is whether one's name is recorded in the Lamb's Book of Lafe when God judges man. If your faith is centred in Christ, that hour will not hold anxious dread for you!

Kitchen Fare

No homemaker ever has too many cookie recipes. Perhaps because the family likes to find a surprise in the cookie jar occasionally, perhaps because of the cook's own creative urge to "try something different," a new good cookie recipe is always welcome.

Thus we know you will like this one for honey date bars. Bar cookies usually take the least time to make, as they can be spread in a pan and baked with the ease of a cake.

Honey and dates make a very good combination, as both foods lend natural sweetness to the cookie. You can let your children have as many of these cookies as they want, knowing that they will be eating healthful goods.

This recipe is simple. No hard stirring, no complicated measurements. And it makes a glorious 3 dozen cookies, enough to last—well—at least a few days!

HONEY DATE BARS

½ cup shortening
1 cup honey
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 eggs or 6 egg yolks
1¼ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup chopped nuts
Confectioner's sugar

Blend shortening, honey and vanilla until creamy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Sift dry ingredients into egg mixture. Blend. Add nuts and dates and stir just enough to distribute evenly. Spread in a greased 9x12-inch pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until golden brown, 30 to 35 minutes. Cool. Cut into bars and roll in confectioner's sugar. Makes three dozen 1x3-inch bars.
