Sonja Ladies stage "sell out" tea, sale

In spite of the stormy weather which continued all day Friday, it was a sell out for the Sonja Ladies when the group staged its annual fall tea and sale during the afternoon in the Sons of Norway hall.

Featured gourmet specials, fish cakes and homemade bread, were the first items to disappear from the home-coking table.

In the absence of the president Mrs. Arvid Sandhals, vice-president Mrs. Carl Strand received the large number of guests.

Attending the individual tea tables centred with tiny bouquets of autumn-colored flowers, were Mrs. Gunnar Selvig, Mrs. John Carpenter and Mrs. Nels Waseng.

Directing the kitchen were Mrs. Harold Grindstrand, Mrs. Erling Wick and Mrs. John Pedersen.

In the home-cooking stall were Mrs. Jack Strand, Mrs. Reginald Webber and Mrs. Anton Strand.

Fancy-work counter was convened by Mrs. Hans Hagen and Mrs. Carl Giske.

Mrs. Raymond Montgomery was cashier. It was reported that almost $200 was realized from the successful event.

The door prize, a flower stand, and donated by the president was won by Mrs. Rose Giske.

Mrs. Kay Halberg won the ham raffle and Bobby Long won the embroidered cushion.

City, Kitimat churches in Kamloops Presbytery

First Presbyterian church and Kitimat Presbyterian church were transferred from the Presbytery of Westminster to the Presbytery of Kamloops last week at the annual meeting of the Synod of British Columbia of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The Synod met in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Kamloops, where the Rev. A. F. MacSween, a former minister here in Rupert, is the Minister.

The Rev. Murdo Pollock of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Mission City, was elected moderator of Synod.

Visiting the Synod were the moderator of the 1958 General Assembly, the Rev. Dr. John McNab who is the retiring editor of the Presbyterian Record, and the Rev. Dr. J. Allan Munro, secretary of the Board of Missions.

The local Presbyterian Minister, the Rev. Ivan S. Gamble attended the Synod.

Having been transferred to the Presbytery of Kamloops through the decision of the Synod, Mr. Gamble remained in Kamloops for the Presbytery meeting which followed the meeting of Synod. At this meeting he was elected Moderator of the Presbytery of Kamloops for the coming year. He arrived home by train on Saturday evening.

J. C. Franks president of firemen

J. C. Franks was elected president of Local 559 of the International Association of Firefighters when the group held its annual meeting.

Others elected to office were: A. H. Iveson, vice-president; J. S. Furness, secretary-treasurer; O. F. Symes, recording secretary.

Howard LaForge is sergeant-at-arms; A. H. Iveson and Robert Parks, auditors; and L. A. N. Potterton, T. W. Elliott and E. W. Becker, permanent honorary members.

Mrs. J. M. Phillipson, flew to Vancouver yesterday on her way to Campbell River, after a brief visit here with her husband, who is District 52 school superintendent.

Slack, Huestis win hula-hoop CYO contests

Douglas Slack and Anne Huestis were the winners of the men's and women's hula-hoop contests which highlighted the Catholic Youth organization's dance Friday night held in the Annunciation school auditorium.

In a decor of orange and brown autumn-toned colors, some 200 people gathered to attend the third CYO dance held this season.

Winning the spot dances were Alan Majore and Bev. Jones, while Lorette Desautels, Olga Zabudney and Dafney Robinson won the door prizes.

The midnight refreshment period which featured cream puffs and coffee was followed by dancing to a six-piece orchestra.

President John LaPorte as emcee, announced that another dance would be held this Friday.

Attending the kitchen were Olga Zabudney, Jeannette Cloutier and Anne Huestis.

At the door were Denis Mulroney, Edward Saunders and Larry O'Niel.

Candlelight shower honors Mrs. VanNice

Mrs. Robert VanNice was the recipient of a shower of baby articles Friday night when the Women's auxiliary of D Company Irish Fusiliers of Canada, Vancouver Regiment, gathered in the Sergeant's mess in the Armouries.

Convening the baby shower were Mrs. R. W. Lewis and Mrs. Howard LaForge.

By candlelight, the guest-of-honor received her large array of gifts, arranged in a decorated washtub.

Highpoint of the night was a presentation of a miniature basinet containing tiny twin dolls and labelled the "VanNice" twins.

A special baby shower cake, made by Mrs. Lewis was included in the refreshments.

Attending were Mrs. VanNice's mother, Mrs. Anthony Botrakoff; her four sisters, Mrs. Albert Woodruff, Mrs. Richard Paul, Mrs. George Graham and Mrs. Harold Quick; Mrs. Jack Pearson, Mrs. Frank Donecz, Mrs. Percy Bond and Mrs. Albert Eveleigh.

Edward Sharkey, guard for the British Columbia Lions football team, left this morning by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane following a short visit in the city.

Local 708 WA sale shows CCC display

Mrs. B. J. Fortune was named president of the Women's auxiliary to the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers Local 708 last week when the group held its annual meeting.

Others named to office were Mrs. Tenho Paavola, vice-president; Mrs. Arnold Assman, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Skorepa, treasurer and Mrs. Joseph Long, Mrs. Robert Player and Mrs. Arthur Lowes, executive committee. Mrs. Arthur Sweet was elected publicity chairman.

In other business final plans were made the WA bazaar to be held Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m. in the Civic Centre.

A pulp and fabric display, featured by the Columbia Cellulose Company Limited at Watson Island will be a special attraction at the fall event.

Two luxurious dress lengths, made from the pulp at the Watson Island plant will be special raffles, it was reported.

Other features, will be home-cooking, sewing, novelties, plants, a candy counter, popcorn stand and a fish pond.

Doll walks will also add entertainment to the function.

Proceeds go towards paying for the WA's project, an oxygen tent, now in use at the Prince Rupert General hospital.
