ON AGAIN TONIGHT

Capacity Crowd Enjoys St. Patrick Day's Concert

"A Wee Bit of Ireland" was the theme for the first of two Annunciation Parish's St. Patrick's Day concerts staged last night in the Annunciation school auditorium.

More than 450 people jammed the auditorium to attend the most successful annual event sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization.

Setting the pace with Irish humor was well-known city entertainer Melvin E. Thompson who was master of ceremonies.

The three-hour variety program included Irish melodies, jigs, reels, dance routines and a one-act comedy entitled "Doctor O'Toole."

Opening the show were the parish choristers, directed by Father H. E. Tunney with an Irish medley, and a group of tap dancers directed by Buddy Taft.

Sixteen pretty colleens then presented a demonstration of the "Sixteen Hand Reel."

Children from Grade 3, enacted a humorous story of the "Leprechaun."

Seven petite dancers performed the "Irish Jig" under the direction of Mr. Taft. Two selections "The Spinning Wheel" and "Irish Lullaby" were sung by school children, Maureen Lyons, Marlyn Brown and Anna Juby. Seven boys "from Killarney" presented a dance number, directed by Mr. Taft, six girls sang "Eileen Alannah" and a novelty dance number was performed by Patsy Odowes and Mr. Taft.

Receiving a large hand for acrobatic feats was Muriel Bertrand in a number called "Trembling Round." Mike Colussi's accordion band presented soloists Alberta Renwick and Casey Wilson, who brought down the house with "Rock 'n' Roll" selections.

Soloist Pat Wick sang a ballad and a fast-worded Irish selection. A six-hand reel followed by school children.

Also getting a sustained ovation was Garry Fahey and Mr. Taft in "Sure if it isn't Pat and Mike" a dance duet.

Biggest hand was given Father Tunney who gave an exhibition of Irish dancing and accordion selections with Pat Saunders.

Emcee Mr. Thompson had the house "rolling in the aisles" with his impressions of Jimmy Durante and Danny Kaye. The choristers sang several selections prior to the play.

"Doctor O'Toole" directed by Miss Anne McAleer, had John LaPorte in the hilarious part of Dr. O'Toole, supported by a seven-member cast.

The program will be repeated tonight.

Many Attend Teen Tea At Club Room

Some 150 parents and friends of Civic Centre Teen club members were greatly impressed Saturday when they attended the "house warming" tea staged by the club in its new club room.

The attractive room, with Monteray red walls and yellow ceiling, is comfortably furnished. Focal point of the huge room is the grey and black imitation fire-place, which gives a cozy home-like effect.

Fresh bouquets on the pouring table and the fire-place mantle were arranged and donated by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell.

Presiding at the tea cups were Mrs. A. P. Crawley, wife of the president of the Civic Centre association and Mrs. Morris Wayman, wife of the vice-president.

Kitchen director was Mrs. W. C. Peterson.

Past-president Bob Jensen, host for the afternoon, was assisted by club members Jackie Halliwell, Gail Gomez, Gailya Grimolfson, Sue Kergin, Joan Bennett, Pat Wong, Janet Botrakoff and Georgina Ferguson.

Since the official opening all members of the Civic Centre from ages 14 to 19 are automatic members of the club, Bob Jensen said today.

The room is open daily from 3:30 to 5:50 p.m. and 7 to 10:30 p.m. with the exception of Sunday.

The new club room is outfitted for playing table tennis, table hockey and scrabble.

Bob Jensen said that it was only through the "wonderful support given by the parents and city merchants that the tea and the club room were possible."

CAREFREE FABRIC—A wonderful wrinkle-shedding blend of Chemcell acetate and viscose makes a smart and practical shirtmaker style. A Jonathan Logan design, it has a contrasting taffeta cummerbund and its own crinoline.

LADY'S CHOICE—A dress for important occasions anytime of the year, this Montreal fashion is made of luxurious and ladylike, Canadian acetate lace over taffeta. The cocktail dress with its flared skirt has a cross-over bodice with low V at front and back. The brief jacket is lined to match the taffeta cummerbund.

Margaret Giske Honored With Shower by Friends

Popular bride-elect Miss Margaret Giske was the recipient of many attractive gifts Wednesday night when hostess Mrs. D. S. Bill entertained with a linen shower.

Mrs. Harvey Youden was co-hostess for the affair held in honor of Miss Giske's marriage to Brian Lennon of Vancouver which will take place April 22 in Vancouver.

Upon arriving the guest of honor was seated in a bridal chair, decorated with green and white streamers and presented a novelty corsage.

Evening game prize winners were Mrs. Derry Roos and Mrs. Donald Scherk.

The hostesses made the presentation of gifts which were arranged in an attractively decorated green and white box.

Other invited guests were Mrs. Carl Giske, mother of the guest of honor, Mrs. Vito Campagnola, Mrs. William McChesney, Jr., Mrs. Harold Marshall, Mrs. Ralph Enridge, Mrs. Melvin Ratchford, Mrs. Arvid Sandhals, Mrs. Richard Wallin, Mrs. L. Gastaldini, Mrs. Martin Berg, Miss Sharon Gastaldina, Miss Sherri Wallin, Mrs. Raymond Spring and Mrs. Jack Strand.

Evangelist Speaks Twice At St. Paul's

Evangelist Amund Tveit yesterday preached to a congregation of more than 100 persons at the morning service and more than 50 at the evening service, as he began two weeks of special srvices in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. He will preach at services every evening except Saturday for the two weeks.

In the morning Mr. Tveit spoke on Matt. 20, stressing that God begins early "to seek for laborers in His Kingdom." He especially challenged the parents to bring up their children "for the Lord."

The text for the evening was Acts 26.

Mr. Tveit told the congegation that "it is God's desire to give great and wonderful blessings, but that He is hindered by many who refuse to receive them." He urged the congregation to be as Paul who said, "I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision."

From Camrose, Alta., Mr. Tveit is serving as an evangelist in the Lutheran Church in Canada.

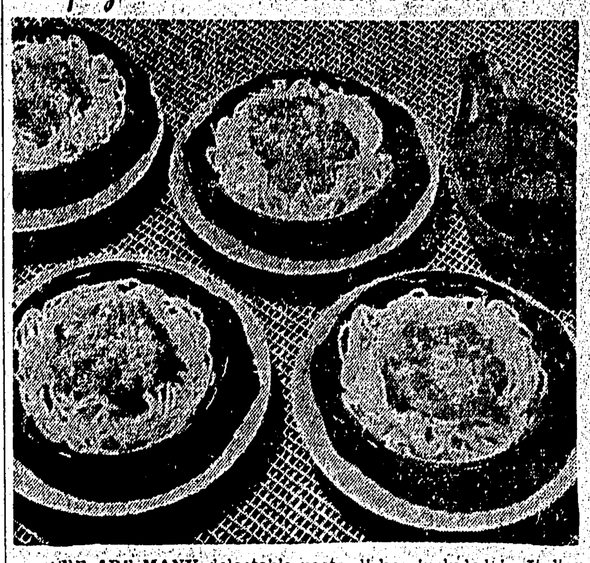
Spaghetti International Favorite



THERE ARE MANY delectable pasta dishes included in Italian culinary art. But the international favorite is spaghetti! Spaghetti with mixed seafood, spaghetti wih meat sauce, or just spaghetti with tomato sauce — these are but a few of the possible variations. Now available on the Canadian retail market are two packaged spaghetti dinners — one with meat and one with a meatless tomato sauce. Both are delicious and SO easy to prepare. Children of all ages love this meal — and it is an economical, time-saving menu to serve at any time. Prepared in a large casserole, you'll find it ideal for a group of ravenous teenagers. Or perhaps you would like to use individual casseroles for small adult parties. Whenever you prepare a spaghetti dinner, be sure to remember to sprinkle each serving liberally with grated Parmisello cheese. Next time you have a party for outside guests, or just the family, perk up the meal with an international specialty. It is an easy way to culinary acclaim.

$530 For CARS Realized By First Bluebird Ball

The sum of $530 to help the Prince Rupert Branch of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society set up its new clinic in Prince Rupert General hospital, was realized Friday night from the First Annual Bluebird Ball.

The dance, held in the Elks Home, was sponsored by the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks Lodge 342 and the Order of the Royal Purple. Everything connected with the ball was made available free of charge, hors d'oeuvres and buffet supper donated and arranged by the OORP, the check room and bar receipts, the services of Johnny Clifton's Hartley Bay Five. Even meals for the orchestra during its stay in town were provided free by Peter Wong.

About 45 couples attended the ball which featured a floor show provided by Muriel Bertrand in an acrobatic dance and popular accordionist Casey Wilson. Added attraction was genial master of ceremonies and Elks lodge member Harley Lewis who sang two numbers.

In a telegram read by CARS president William Brown, Miss Mary Pack executive secretary of CARS extended congratulations to the branch on its first Bluebird ball and expressed the appreciation of the patients, staff and directors of CARS in Vancouver.

Mr. Brown also thanked Mrs. Roy Boychuk, honored Royal Lady of the OORP and Donald M. Wanamaker, exhalted ruler of the Elks for their efforts on behalf of CARS.

Prize winners during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes and A. E. Dickens and Mrs. G. J. Emsley.

TO BOOST YOUR SALES....
MERCHANDISE
ADVERTISE

The difference between advertising and merchandising is that merchandising moves goods to your customers, while advertising moves customers to your goods.

By daily newspaper advertising you can attract more people, at a lower cost, in a shorter time, than by any other means.

When you advertise, direct your message to the customer in a way that will urge him to buy. Offer him savings, better value, beauty, a higher standard of living .... in short .... convince him.
