MEXICAN REBELS SCORE ANOTHER VICTORY--PARLIAMENT TO MEET ON JANUARY FIFTEENTH

HOW THE TANGO CRAZE IS NOW AFFECTING ENGLISH SOCIETY

INTRODUCTION OF ARGENTINE DANCE RESPONSIBLE FOR REMARKABLE FURORE, EXCITING BOTH LONDON AND LEADING CITIES IN PROVINCE.

London, Dec. 2.—Tango is good Latin for "I touch." It is no exaggeration to say that English society is exhibiting a touching enthusiasm for this Argentine dance, which has already surpassed any previous craze, like ping-pong, roller skating, jigsaw puzzles, limericks and costume balls.

Court exhibition, is forming a West End tango club, where those who have danced all day may dance all night.

Professors of old fashioned dances like the bunny hug and the turkey trot have caught the spirit of the times, and are now exponents of the tango.

So the provinces are in a fever of excitement. Manchester declines to be out of the running. Birmingham is advertising non-stop runs for tango tea parties. Liverpool is offering any price for tango professors. Expert dancers in London are already beginning to pay flying visits to these distant towns, which would lose all their prestige in the world of fashion if they did not tango with the times.

Even the churches have not neglected the obvious duty of Christianizing this pagan dance. It is expected that rural deans and vicars will abandon the bazaar as an old fashioned institution and invite their parishioners to tango on behalf of the church building fund or a new organ loft.

Skating rinks are hastily being converted into tango saloons. Great restaurants like Prince's, the Hotel Cecil, the Savoy and the Trocadero, have turned out some of their tables to make way for the tango dancers. Mr. F. H. Payne, chairman of the Earl's

TRAIN STALLED BY SLIDES

Dug Its Way Through Mud All Night—Dining Car Ran Short

Nearly 20 hours late the G.T.P. train pulled into the yards at one o'clock today. It was due last evening but was stalled by mud slides along the road between Tye and Woodcock Prairie. The train men were digging through them all night.

The first slide was encountered just east of Woodcock, and then more and more of them all the way down. None of them were serious and the only inconvenience the passengers suffered was sleeping in the seats and going without supper and breakfast. The cafe car ran short of provisions but everybody got a little.

There were about 35 passengers aboard.

Boys, if you are interested come into the News Office and get the address.

BELLA COOLA RAILWAY AGAIN LOOMS LARGE ON THE HORIZON

ALL RED LINE WILL BE SECOND SET OF CAPITALISTS DESIROUS OF TAPPING RICH VALLEYS HEADING IN DEAN CHANNEL

(Special to The Daily News.) Montreal, Dec. 5.—The All Red Line Railway Company has entered an application with the government for permission to build its transcontinental line from Cape St. Charles, on the Atlantic Coast, to the head of Dean Channel, on the Pacific. The announcement of the intention to build this railway has been kept very quiet by the British capitalists who are backing the scheme in order that there might be no trouble in securing rights of way and necessary lands before the prices become inflated.

Mr. Jacobsen of Bella Coola is known in that community and all along this northern coast as a far seeing man, and he can possibly see farther into these railway schemes than the next man. This is a trite conclusion drawn from the fact that he has recently invested several hundred thousand dollars in properties along the Bella Coola Valley, and in many instances cash payments have been made. This would seem to indicate that Bella Coola is to get a railway in the very near future.

BIG CHRISTMAS MAIL

Postmaster McIntosh Says It is Evidence of Prosperous Times Here

"The bulk of the English Christmas mail left this morning," remarked Postmaster McIntosh to the Daily News. It was not large in bulk but there was a great deal of registered matter involving considerable work. There will be a little lull in the Christmas mail for a week and then the big eastern outgoing and incoming traffic will start.

Already a few parcels are coming and going and on the whole indicates that compared with other years Prince Rupert post office will have the biggest month's business in its history. Certainly the registered mail does not indicate hard times.

Mr. Chappelle was at the Anglican church bazaar last evening and was a lion of the occasion.

BAZAAR GOT $500

Anglican Sale of Goods Popular Affair—Many Pretty and Dainty Articles Offered

Five hundred dollars were the receipts of the Anglican sale held in the Knights of Pythias hall yesterday afternoon and evening. The array of home products, fancy work, flowers and candies arranged as they were by artistic hands in many booths tempted the public to spend their money.

During the afternoon Mrs. Anderson furnished piano music. In the evening there was a programme of music. Mr. Allen, a pianist, performed very cleverly, in spite of an injured finger. Others who contributed were Mrs. Hemmell, Miss Brand, Mr. Mel-liar, Mr. Cummings, Mr. Chalmers and Mr. Chappelle.

The ladies in charge of the various booths were:
