The dress of Miss Wilson was a lustrous white satin, softly draped and trimmed with real lace, the folds being held in place with a cluster of Orange blossoms. The bodice was embroidered in orange blossom design, which outlines the open neck and extends down the side of the skirt. The train was in court style, cut square, and the full length veil was of tulle.

THE TEXT OF LORD HALDANE'S DECISION ON RECENT APPEAL

FISHING IN TIDAL WATERS A RIGHT EQUALLY TO ALL AND NATURALLY UNDER EXCLUSIVE LEGISLATION OF THE DOMINION

It was a long judgment which was delivered by Viscount Haldane in the Privy Council in the appeal of the Government of British Columbia from answers given by the Supreme Court of Canada to questions submitted by the Canadian Government. The questions did not arise in any litigation, but were of a general abstract character relating to the fishery rights of the province. Reference was made to the decision a few days ago. Further details are now available.

The questions submitted were as follows:

- (1) Is it competent for the Legislature of British Columbia to authorize the Government of that province to grant the exclusive right to fish in any waters within the railway belt, firstly, as to such waters as are tidal, and, secondly, as to such waters which, although not tidal, are, in fact, navigable.
- (2) Is it competent for the Legislature to authorize the Government of the Province to grant the exclusive right to fish below low water mark in the open sea within a marine league of the coast?
- (3) Is there any, and what, difference between the open seas and estuaries of the rivers within the Province so far as concerns the authority of the Legislature of the Province of British Columbia to grant the right to fish?

Lord Haldane's judgment went exhaustively into the history of forming the Province of British Columbia and the general law on fishing was reviewed by His Lordship to a time even anterior to Magna Charta. Coming to more recent precedents Lord Haldane said: "Neither in 1867 nor at any date since British Columbia became a member of Canadian Federation was fishing in tidal waters a matter of property. It was a right open equally to all the public, and, therefore, when, by Section 91 of the British North America Act, the sea coast and inland fisheries were placed under the exclusive legislation of the Dominion Parliament, there was in the case of the fishing in tidal waters nothing left within the domain of the Provincial Legislature. The right being a public one, all that could be done was to regulate its exercise, and the exclusive power of regulation was placed in the Dominion Parliament."

STEWART NOTES

Harry Fowler returned to Stewart on the Thursday boat and will spend the winter in camp.

W. Cornack has been temporarily in charge of the Granby Company's operations at Swamp Point in the absence of Mr. Phillips.

Mrs. G. W. Bruggy, who has been on the sick list for the last ten days, necessitating the doctor making a special trip from Rupert, is able to be about again.

Capt. Donald and officers, of the Prince George, were guests of the Portland Canal Transfer Co. for a sleigh ride to the Portland Canal tunnel while the boat was in port on Thursday.

Jack Anderson, formerly assistant to the road superintendent, who left last fall to be married in Alberta, is now residing in Oakland, Cal., where he has taken a flat for the winter.

T. C. Cowan, the popular local representative of the Canadian North Eastern Railway, gave a dance at his residence, near the station, to a number of his friends on Wednesday in honor of Eddie Gillingham. Mr. Cowan is an exemplary host, and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Hector Ferand, an employee of the Portland Canal Tunnels Co., sustained a painful injury recently, having his hand badly crushed by one of the machines falling on it. He went to Prince Rupert for medical attendance by Dr. W. T. Kergin and is expected home next week.

E. Gillingham, the son of Charles J. Gillingham, road superintendent for the district, went south on the Prince George on Thursday to take up an appointment in the assessor's office in Prince Rupert. Mr. Gillingham has for the past year been acting as clerk to the road department and has figured strongly in the social life of Stewart, where he will be greatly missed. He will leave behind him many friends who will hope to see him back here again in the future.

T. M. Michaels and F. L. Hudson, both of Seattle, are forming a colonization enterprise to promote the settlement of the Naas River valley. Before the winter is over it is expected that a representative of the company will come here to make a trip into the Naas via Meziadin lake.

The McMillan Transfer had the misfortune to lose one of its best horses this week. The animal, with others not now in use, was turned out to pasture and had wandered up to the neighborhood of the Portland Canal mine, where it somehow got fast in a log jam, where it must have been held for several days before it was discovered by E. Armstrong, who got it to town, but it succumbed as a result of exposure and starvation.—Portland Canal Miner.
