From Furs to Dish Washing.

Marion Powell and Edith Milne, the Siwash belles who were ordered to go home by the police magistrate a week ago, came up again in police court this morning. Instead of taking the cad's advice they be-decked themselves in near sea coats trimmed with leopard skin, and Paris model hats, the better to display their dusky charms. The P. M. glanced at them and said thirty days' labor. Five minutes later they were washing dishes in the jail kitchen. The P. M. of the Metlakatla denies that the girls come from the village across the harbor. They are Alaska girls.

MANSON WILL NOT RUN
Tom Maitland is Delegated to Make the Announcement at Gamp's Meeting
Ald. Maitland announced at the Gamp meeting last evening that William Manson would not be a candidate for Mayor. The announcement seemed to surprise some of those present but evidently it had been generally understood that if he did not run S. M. Newton would try to make the grade again.
When the Daily News made the statement Wednesday that Wm. Manson would be a candidate unless something unforeseen turned up, it brought forth the unforeseen in the shape of ex-Alderman Montgomery. Mr. Montgomery does not like Manson and is after his scalp day and night. He promised to make a third candidate if Manson took the field.

SCENE FROM "THE WIDOW MALONEY'S FAITH"
At the Westholme on Monday Evening
Owing to kirmess being held in the Westholme Opera House tonight, the management has decided to hold over the Widow Maloney pictures until Monday and Tuesday to give everybody an opportunity to see this fine program.
The full title of this story is "The Widow Maloney's Faith." These pictures are Irish. The story is Irish. Its scenery is Irish and the music played by the Westholme orchestra will be Irish. Everybody no doubt remembers "The Heart of Kathleen" pictures shown a few weeks ago in the same theatre. The Widow Maloney films are made by the same company and are if anything better pictures.
