U. S. SENATE PASSES PROHIBITION REPEAL MEASURE

First Step Taken in Repeal of Amendment 18 On Prohibition

Senate Gives Necessary Two-thirds Vote in Favor and House Will Deal With it Next

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 — The Senate yesterday passed a bill repealing the 18th amendment and it will go to the House of Representatives probably on Monday. The vote in the Senate was 63 for and 23 against, thus giving the required two-thirds in favor.

The Blaine bill does not have to go to the President for approval because it is a change in the constitution. Before it becomes law, however it has to receive the sanction of two-thirds of the states.

While the bill provides for the repeal of the prohibition law it also provides that there shall be no export of liquor into Dry States.

Coal and Oil Used in Fuel Now Invented

OTTAWA, Feb. 17:—Of great interest to Canadian coal producers is the announcement of William Burnip, prominent local engineer, that Canadian coal may be used as the basis of a new invented coal—colloidal fuel. A friend of Mr. Burnip, Stephen L. Wyndham, is the inventor and Mr. Burnip who was recently in Cardiff, Wales, has seen the invention demonstrated.

It has been a dream for years to invent a fuel by mixing coal with oil and getting a fluid mixture in which the coal would not settle down to the bottom. Mr. Burnip announced the invention has succeeded in producing samples of colloidal fuel—a combination of coal and oil—in stable mixtures varying from 60% coal and 40% oil to 80% coal and 20% oil. In his announcement Mr. Burnip says the intriguing feature to Canada is that the fuel will be cheaper than oil and can be produced from Canadian coal. Even the oil used in the mixture, he says, can be replaced by coal tar and oils derived from the distillation of coal. He predicts its use in power plants requiring intense heat with flexibility of oil fuel.

BANQUET AT CATHEDRAL

Large Attendance of Men at Event Last Night and Particularly Of Young Men

The annual men's banquet at the Anglican Cathedral Hall last evening brought together one of the largest assemblies of men and particularly young men that has been seen there. SHOULD HAVE BEEN SPANKED SAYS LANSBURY

LONDON, Feb. 17:—An interesting incident occurred in the House of Commons here yesterday. George Lansbury, leader of the Labor Party, remarked to Lady Astor, that her mother should have spanked her when she was a child. "You don't mean to tell the House that you believe in flogging children?" was Lady Nancy's retort as she rose and pointed her finger at the Labor leader.

FRESH HERRING HAS ARRIVED

Quantity Arrives, Some From Alaska and Remainder From Pearl Harbor

Fresh herring has been a long time in coming but it is here at last. The Jedway came in from Craig, Alaska from where she brought about 20 tons but only managed to sell about half of her load to the fishermen. The remainder quite likely will be picked up by people looking for a good feed of fresh fish.

The Balsac also came in from Pearl Harbor with a big load and managed to sell most of it to the fishermen. With this big supply of herring in town, there is herring in the butcher shops, restaurants and in the majority of homes it will quite likely be herring for the next couple of weeks.

Japanese Action In Manchuria Is Denounced in League Report Transmitted to All Nations Today

UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA CALLED UPON TO JOIN WITH LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN HELPING TO EFFECT JUST SETTLEMENT OF QUESTION.

GENEVA, Feb. 17:—The League of Nations Assembly report denouncing Japan's Manchurian policy was transmitted to all the governments of the world this afternoon by wireless telegraph. It declares against the maintenance and recognition of the state of Manchuoko and invites the United States and Soviet Russia to join the League powers in effecting a just settlement of the dispute between China and Japan.

The report will be debated Friday and Saturday of next week before a final vote is taken.

The Manchurian question must be settled according to the principles of the League covenant, the Kellogg-Briand Pact and the Nine-Power Treaty, the report asserts. It calls for the withdrawal of Japanese troops from Manchuria without any definite time limit.

Negotiations between China and Japan with a League committee assisting as third party with a view to settling the dispute are recommended.

Yosuke Metsuoko, Japan's senior representative, said his government will not accept the League's report.

"The report is a great moral victory for China," said Dr. W. W. Yen, China's senior delegate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17:—In view of the probability of United States backing the League of Nations in regard to the Manchurian situation, it is pointed out here that the two countries are closely allied by trade interests. Most of the silk used in United States factories comes from Japan, in fact this country is Japan's best customer.

TOKYO, Feb. 17:—While no official declaration has yet been made by Japan in regard to the report, Japan's answer lies in the fact that 50,000 troops are being poured into Manchuria to drive the Chinese out and that a large sum of money is being appropriated by the Japanese Parliament for conduct of the campaign in that country.

ST. JOHN BENEFITS

The Shipping Register published at Montreal has just issued a special number dealing with the Port of St. John and the revival of business at that place as a result of the grain shipping which has come to it recently. This has been the direct result of the trade agreement with Britain made at the Imperial Conference.

Mayor Webb of Winnipeg in that number suggests that eventually all grain grown in Canada will be shipped out through Canadian ports. He says: "If the thirty or forty millions of dollars we have been paying to the United States annually for handling our grain exports are kept at home, that alone will almost make the difference between prosperity and depression."

We congratulate the publishers of Shipping Register on the good work it has done for St. John and hope at some time it will be able to do the same for Prince Rupert, one of the natural outlets for grain in Western Canada. The policy of shipping grain through Canadian ports is one we have consistently advocated.

Prince Rupert is glad to see St. John prosper. If Canada is to be great there must be a number of great ports. Prince Rupert expects to be a great port but her turn will come later. The foundation has already been laid but the superstructure is for the future.

THE CHARITABLE IMPULSE

Most people like to help others. As a great philosopher once said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." No matter what the condition of the world there will always be some occasion for mutual help.

Just now there are many people who are in need. Some of them are in dire need. The government allowance is meagre and it is pitiful to see little children running around without proper clothes.

This week a local citizen reported seeing conditions such as those mentioned in different parts of the city. He pitied the little people who had to undergo hardships and asked the newspapers to co-operate by inserting a small advertisement asking for clothes. He was willing to see that the clothes were collected and distributed if the donors would notify him. It was a happy thought.

Yesterday we published a letter of criticism of this person. The idea conveyed in the letter is one that a great many people hold. We all hate the idea of people being unable to get along without being recipients of gifts from the charitable, especially at a time when there is plenty of food and clothes in the country, too much, in fact.

We do not in any manner endorse the subject matter of the letter. We should hate to criticize anyone willing to help in an emergency. Because we do not agree that anyone should be subject to what for a better word is known as "charity," it would not prevent us helping all we can until conditions are improved. Why should the children suffer because men have not enough brains and energy to properly handle the distribution system of the country?

The dole system as at present carried out is just as bad and demoralizing as the dependence upon charity. We do not agree with any system by which someone gets something for nothing. At the same time we do believe that when the land is filled with good things and the only thing preventing their distribution is the lack of the wherewithall to purchase, there is something radically wrong with the system. It is a problem that will have to be solved but in the meantime we can all try to make life as happy and joyful as possible for those who are the victims either of the system or of the vices of others.

FREE FOR A FEW DAYS

Many people are offering bargains. Here is an offer of advertising free. Just to test it out the Daily News will during the next few days give a free classified advertisement up to 25 words for anyone wishing to exchange articles.

Suppose you have a table you do not want but you need a chair. You advertise your willingness to exchange telling what kind of a table you have. It may be articles of furniture, radios, gramaphones, jewellery, crockeryware, mirrors, flower pots, books, magazines, automobiles, or what have you?

Why not change your useless articles for something you could use.

Don't try to trade away the baby. It's against the law, but almost anything else has possibilities. Try it. All you have to do is write the advertisement carefully and send or bring or mail it to the Daily News office. We do the rest.

The Letter Box

IS THIS TRUE?

Editor, Daily News:

Will you kindly find space for the following which I feel will be pleasing to the citizens of your city.

As a stranger passing through your city of Prince Rupert, and with my sympathies in absolute accord with the glorious principles of the Red Flag, Communism and the Soviet, the tearing down of the present false ideals and debasical Canadian constitution and the supplanting of these by the enlightened principles of the Red Flag and Communism, I wish to congratulate your fair city, its citizens and its press for being the one city that openly and without shame has the courage and pride to show its sympathies and extend its assistance to this worthy objective of the Red Flag and Communism.

On Sunday night I had the pleasure of attending a meeting called by the City of Prince Rupert on behalf of the Anyox strikers. At this meeting the several excellent speakers in no uncertain terms made it quite clear that any adherence or loyalty to the industrial endeavors, benighted laws, ideals and constitution of Canada was a decided detriment to the workers, unemployed and citizens of this fair Dominion and a menace to the welfare of the coming generation. It was clearly intimated that if the benighted constitution and ideals that have plagued Canada since confederation cannot be supplanted by peaceful and intimidating means and the Red Flag hoisted in place of the hateful Union Jack with its pathetic maple leaf, then force must be used and the citizens of the country incited to this end.

At this meeting it was indeed gratifying to see many red shirts in evidence and to hear the Red Flag lustily and heartily sung in preference to the absurd "Maple Leaf Forever" or "O Canada." It was indeed heartening also to see a resolution in keeping with the high and progressive ideals of Communism and glorious Red Flag, formulated and sent out in the unanimous name of the citizens of Prince Rupert. Above all the City of Prince Rupert is to be congratulated for its wisdom and courage in placing the seal of its official sanction on these proceedings with the presence of an alderman of its municipality in the honored position of chairman. To read the long and sympathic reports of the proceedings in the local press is, I can assure you, Mr. Comrade Editor, indeed is stimulating and encouraging to our great cause. I have sent clippings to Moscow and you will probably receive due acknowledgement from headquarters there.

Bravo, "Comrade" Prince Rupert! Keep up the good work of the cause. The next time I come to your fair and progressive city I will expect to see a pile of maple-leafed jacks on the city dump, your citizens living in indiscriminate and red-shirted communal harmony, your horrible churches in ashes, the terrible homes relegated to oblivion, and the Red Flag nobly unfolding to the breeze in splendorous display above the City Hall and government buildings. Keep up the good work Prince Rupert and one day in the not very distant future you will be the proud capital of the United Provinces of Soviet Canada. Then indeed will you be rewarded and then indeed will we hail thee "Comrade!"

Bright Repartee of Winston Churchill

LONDON, Feb. 17—Mrs. Atherton, in her new book, quotes a story of "Sophy Hall's" anent Winston Churchill: "Shortly after he had left the Conservative side of the House he was talking a certain young woman for dinner when she looked up at him coquettishly and remarked with the audacity of her kind: 'There are two things I don't like about you, Mr. Churchill.' 'And what are they?' asked the budding statesman indifferently. 'Your new politics and your new moustache.' 'My dear madame,' he replied suavely, 'pray do not disturb yourself. You are not likely to come into contact with either.'"

Secretary of Prince May Ride in Race

LONDON, Feb. 17:—Lloyd Thomas, assistant private secretary to the Prince of Wales, may ride in the Grand National this year. His mare, Destiny Bay, is among the entries.

Mr. Thomas, who is 44 years of age, has already ridden at Aintree. Last November he rode Destiny Bay to victory in the Sefton Cup Steeplechase. He is one of the best riders to hounds in Leicestershire, but is unable to give the hobby undivided attention owing to his position at York House, the Prince's residence.

He was at the Foreign Office as assistant private secretary to Sir Austen Chamberlain from 1924 to 1929, and has served at Constantinople, Cairo, Rome and Madrid in the diplomatic service. His father was one of the founders of the Calcutta Sweepstake.

Good Influence Of Black Cat

LONDON, Feb. 17:—A black cat played an important part in a police court case at Tottenham. The cat entered the court and jumped on to the clerk's table when the magistrate was hearing the evidence of a wife, who had summoned her husband for alleged cruelty.

The magistrate, S. H. Platten, noticed the cat and suggested to the wife that it might be a sign that if she let bygones be bygones her future life with her husband would be happy. She thought reconciliation impossible. But just then the cat rubbed its nose against her hand, the wife hesitated, and then said that perhaps after all reconciliation was possible.

The husband thought so, too, and the couple were referred to the court missionary. When they left the court the black cat went out with them.

SPORT CHAT

Owing to the change in the basketball schedule the C.N.R. will play the Kaiens tonight.

The basketball teams are nearing the time in the league where leadership of the league is in sight and all the teams are playing first class ball.

The Tuxis team will be on their way to Essington tomorrow and should bring back the "bacon" for they are a good fast team.

The delegates to the annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union held recently in New York, forced this change by adopting unanimously the metric system of track measurement for all championship races. No longer will the year's sprint champion be the runner who churned a hundred yards of cinders in the fastest time. He will be the fellow who went most swiftly over the 100-metre route—a distance equalling 109 and a fraction yards.

tured very graphically the beginning of the Church of England in Canada. From the time of the first service in Annapolis Royal, N.S., he traced the work of the church along the country surrounding the St. Lawrence River. Then how it gradually worked westward up around the Hudson Bay territory and later to the prairie provinces.

Picturesque and interesting was the beginning of the church in British Columbia. From the early work in the southern part of the province to the work amongst the natives of Port Simpson and Metlakatla where the diocese of Caledonia was first originated. The Bishop pointed out that although the clergy played the most important part, the work of the laymen was splendid and in no small degree was responsible for the establishment of the Church of England in Canada.

Dean Gibson in a few short remarks gave an outline of the depression and religion showing that religion is the only foundation on which can be rebuilt the social status of the world.

Clicked Teeth At an Officer

Private Did Not Stand at Attention When Reprimanded For Neglect

LONDON, Feb. 17:—Private William Blight, of the Second Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment, has been found guilty by a district court martial at Borden, Hampshire, of insubordination because he clicked his teeth at an officer.

The accused soldier admitted at the court martial that he had clicked his teeth at Second Lieutenant Harris-Rivett, of the regiment, but he did not agree that this was insubordination or an insult.

The officer said he reproved Blight, who was his batman, for not cleaning his boots, whereupon Blight clicked his teeth, which was indicative of annoyance, and did not stand to attention.

When he asked the private to stop clicking his teeth the man, added the officer, stamped out of the room, saying: "Well, I am fed up anyway, with you for going on at me like this. I will make a complaint to the brigadier.

New Conception Given of Hades Is More Mellow

Anglican Cleric Declares Fire and Brimstone Idea Obsolete

MONTREAL, Feb. 17:—To save the general public another sermon "on the dreary subject of hell," Canon Allan P. Shatford, rector of the Church of St. James the Apostle and well known Anglican cleric, has made "a final statement on hell" in the news columns of the Montreal Star.

Canon Shatford bases his article on five points. No Catholic (universal) creed has given a place to the dogma of everlasting punishment. The ecumenical (world-wide) councils of the church never promulgated a dogma on the subject of hell. The fathers of the church were certainly never unanimous in their support of the dogma of everlasting damnation. The revisors of the New Testament in 1880 removed the words "Hell," "Everlasting," and "damnation" from the scriptures. Lastly, the Church of England has no official doctrine of everlasting punishment.

These points are the basis for Canon Shatford's contention that the doctrine of a "fire-and-brimstone" hell is obsolete; that no sin is great enough to warrant everlasting damnation. His contention has been challenged from the pulpit by Father Henry Smeaton of the Society of Jesus and others.

"All I am claiming is my own right, and the equal right of any Anglican, to refuse the dogma as binding upon the conscience. To Father Smeaton's offer of Purgatory as a relief from the horrors of hell I may be permitted to say without discourtesy that we have our own doctrine of the intermediate state.

"I am making my protest solely against hell as a place of everlasting torment. I believe in punishment for sins, both here and hereafter, but the punishment must be corrective and remedial, not vindictive and hopeless," Canon Shatford said.

COURT OF REVISION

The city court of revision has been sitting again today and was still busy considering possible changes in the assessments on city properties at time of going to press.

The Mouthpiece Is Legal Play

Curious Theme For Talkie to Be Shown Tonight and Tomorrow At Capitol

"The Mouthpiece," from a play based on the life of a famous New York legal character, by Frank J. Collins, to be seen at the Capitol tonight and tomorrow, concerns a rising young prosecuting attorney whose zeal leads him to secure a verdict of guilty against an innocent young man who is executed as a result of William's forceful and convincing prosecution. A few minutes after the execution the actual murderer confesses the crime.

The knowledge that he has been instrumental in the death of an innocent man drives William to resignation from the State Attorney's office and a heedless life of profligacy which throws him into contact with shady characters. He becomes their "mouthpiece," a disreputable lawyer who defends criminals and operates through the loopholes of the law. He is eventually reclaimed after a dramatic climax.
