Seventy-Three Men Are Believed Dead As Result of Destruction Of Giant United States Airship

Queen of World's Lighter-Than-Air Craft Was Caught In Lightning Storm Off Jersey Coast About Forty-Five Miles From New York

Chief of Aeronautical Bureau And Ship's Commander Are Dead

Great Ship Was Demolished in Impact With Water After Vain Efforts to Right Her—Was on Test Flight From Lakehurst

NEW YORK, April 4: (CP)—Seventy-three men are believed dead as a result of the destruction of the giant United States naval dirigible Akron, queen of the world's airships, at about 12:30 this morning in a lightning storm off the Jersey coast about twenty miles from Barnegat Light and approximately forty-five miles from New York Harbor. Four men, one of whom later died, were picked up by the Danzig Free State tanker Phoebus which answered an "S.O.S." call.

Among those lost are Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics and the ship's commander, Commander F. C. McCord. Lieut. Commander H. V. Wiley and two enlisted men are the only known survivors.

While details of the catastrophe are fragmentary, a message from Lieut. Commander Wiley described how the ship in a lightning storm began to lose altitude. Efforts were made to right her by dropping ballast but finally the rudder control was carried away and the descent continued to the water where the ship was demolished in the impact. In the lightning flashes he could see the men swimming in the wreckage. Discipline in the car was perfect, he said.

The rescued man who died was Chief Wireless Operator Robert Copeland.

The Akron had made many test flights and weathered worse storms but it is presumed she was struck by lightning. She was on a test flight which was to take her along the New England coast. She left Lauekhurst, New Jersey, Monday evening.

PURNEA, India, April 4: (CP)—Two airplanes sailed across the summit of Mount Everest yesterday and, for the first time in history, men looked down upon the highest mountain in the world. The feat was accomplished by the Marquis of Clydesdale accompanied by Lieut. D. F. McIntyre and an expert photographer named Bennett who succeeded in taking a number of pictures. The two airplanes used in accomplishing the feat flew to an altitude of 35,000 feet in ninety minutes. At the peak they found the wind velocity to be sixty miles per hour.

Lieut. McIntyre, apparently, suffered considerably from the frost encountered at the high altitude but Lord Clydesdale was cheerful when he landed.

The ships had intended making only a test flight but, when conditions were found to be good, they proceeded to accomplish their adventure.

NOBODY KNOWS

Nobody seems to know exactly what is about to happen in Victoria. Premier Tolmie and his group are making strenuous efforts to save themselves. If they could ally themselves with the Liberals they feel they might win out against W. J. Bowser's group. But that has failed. There is no hope of union with T. D. Pattullo and, in the meantime, Mr. Bowser is on the war path and has hopelessly split the Conservatives.

Prince Rupert's member is sitting pretty, confident of his position and refusing to be stampeded into any course of action that might ruin his chances at the polls. Once the Legislature is either prorogued or dissolved he will be out to meet the electors and there will be some wonderful meetings. The people are becoming aroused at the indecision and incompetency of those in office. About that there is no doubt and also there is no doubt as to where the Liberal leader will be. If there is coalition, as there yet may be, he will be found sticking to his Liberal principles and program.

FLOWER CONSCIOUS

According to authorities the world is becoming flower conscious. Along with all the political and social changes that are going on there is a revolution against ugliness and a general movement toward the cultivation of the beautiful. Flowers are the most beautiful things the earth possesses and everywhere flowers are being cultivated indoors and out as never before.

Even in this part of the country people are developing a taste for the beautiful and the beautifying of the city is proceeding in spite of the difficult times through which we have been passing. Officially nothing is being done but unofficially by individual citizens the movement is being fostered and the whole city will benefit.

We need color in Prince Rupert—color in our gardens and color in our homes. Color in our decorations is valuable and also in our apparel. Flowers bring color better than anything else and they show off well against the dull green of the shrubbery and the forest and brighten the homes during dull weather.

Toronto Maple Leafs Won Hockey Championship After Playing Over Five Hours Against Boston In Epic Marathon of the Ice at Toronto Last Night

Little Ken Doraty Was Hero of Home Team When He Belted a Shot Into Opponent's Cage During Sixth Overtime Period

TORONTO, April 4: (CP)—Victors in an epic marathon of the ice that stretched over more than five hours, the Toronto Maple Leafs last night defeated Boston one goal to nothing to win the National Hockey League championship.

The game broke all records for endurance, actual play lasting 164 minutes, 46 seconds. Four minutes and 46 seconds after the sixth overtime period started little Ken Doraty, the third string right winger, belted an ankle high shot into the Boston cage after picking a fast pass from Andy Blair to break up the battle.

A few minutes before 2 a.m., two hours after the finish, Toronto took a special train for New York where they are to meet the Rangers tonight in the first game of the best three out of five series for the Stanley Cup. The rest of the games will be played here.

SPORT CHAT

In 1910 there were only 24 golf courses in the United States. Now there are in excess of 500, maintained by municipalities in 46 states.

George Hainsworth, Les Canadiens' hockey goalie, estimates that he has been the target for more than 18,500 pucks since he first donned the pads for the Kitchener Juniors in 1912.

Danny J. Cahill, a retired financier of Chicago, probably beats all records as a baseball fan. For 35 years he has not missed a single game of baseball played by the Chicago Cubs.

Jay Gould became the first and only court tennis amateur to win the world's championship when he defeated G. F. Covey, professional, in 1914.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Busy Day on Waterfront—Taking Coal to Alaska—Interesting New Boat

Yesterday was a busy day at the waterfront. Not only was over a quarter of a million pounds of halibut marketed through the exchange but Japanese fishermen were in for their licenses and everybody seemed to be moving around.

Many of the American halibut boats took home coal with them yesterday. Coal is much cheaper here than in Alaska and the fishermen have to pass their homes anyway so they make six to seven dollars a ton by buying here. Quite a little industry has been worked up at this port in supplying them.

Ted Shrubsall has purchased an interest in the new boat being built at Cow Bay by Louis Pitcher. It is planned to install a deisel engine and fit her for either halibut or salmon fishing. She is built on the style of the sailing vessels that fish on the Dogger Banks in the Old Country.

This boat is a very interesting one because the builder, with the help of George Howe, got the logs out of the woods, towed them to Qona River to be sawed at the Hedlund mill and then worked them up into boat material. Every stick used in her including the keel and the stem, were taken from the woods by the builder. Good progress is being made on her and she will be ready for the water soon.

The writer had a chance yesterday to buy two engines valued at about three hundred dollars each for a sent apiece. It was at Joe Howe's emporium when the scribe dropped in to chin with the owner for a few minutes. He offered to sell the whole establishment at a cent an article including the engines. The only thing that prevented the deal going through was the lack of a million dollars. As usual ye scribe did not have the dough.

George Howe is fixing up the Wakasia and is planning to use her for a work boat as soon as he has prodded all the bad places he can find in her hull and remake her. She is the first vessel of a fleet George is planning to own.

The overhauling of the big C. N. R. steamers at the dry dock gives a great many people a chance to keep off relief. A number of waterfront men are looking forward to the Prince Rupert going on the dock this week-end.

A scow of lumber is expected for Albert and McCaffery from Vancouver. Paul Armour had the contract for towing it north. Much of it will be used in the rebuilding of the dock at the cold Storage plant.

According to an arrangement among halibut men, they are to take thirty days holiday after making two trips. As a good many of the big schooners have made their two visits to the banks they are now due for a lay-up and the smaller boats, particularly the Canadians that have not yet been out, are expecting to get better prices for their catches.

There was still no report up to this morning as to the progress of operations being directed by Capt. Paul Armour on the west coast of Banks Island with a view to raising the well known local halibut boat Livingstone II which sank there over two weeks ago. It will be a big job to recover the Livingstone from the thirty or so fathoms of water into which she foundered but Capt. Armour is confident that he will be ultimately successful although the work may take some time.

New Patrol Boat For This Coast

HALIFAX, April 4:—The government patrol boat Adversus will leave Halifax tomorrow to take up patrol duty on the Pacific Coast. For the last few years the Adversus has been engaged in watching the activities of the rum running fleet of the Canadian Atlantic coast, chiefly off Cape Breton. She is commanded by Capt. E. L. Croft and will make her Pacific Coast headquarters at Vancouver. It is expected the voyage from Halifax to Race Rocks, by way of the Panama Canal, will take about five weeks.

District News

PRINCE GEORGE

The Interior Creamery has just received a shipment of 1200 butter boxes from Giscome mill, the first ever turned out by the mills in this part of the province. The product of the interior creamery is now 100 percent district. The cream comes from cows of district farmers. The famous Prince George brand butter is wrapped in two-color labels from the Citizen presses and now the butter is being packed in boxes supplied from the Giscome sawmill.

The Alexander sawmill has a crew of men in the bush getting out timber and, when it is available, the local mill will resume cutting. The mill has received the contract for supplying the timber for the deck on the vehicle traffic section of the bridge across the Fraser.

Efficient work by the members of the local fire department saved the local offices of the provincial government from being wiped out by a fire recently. The estimated damage to the building may, however, run into $2,000 to $5,000.

THE LETTER BOX

FASCISM IN GERMANY

Editor, Daily News:—

Last week you published a letter signed Basso-Bert, who I suppose is one of the group of aldermen who have been carrying out some of the fascist principles in regard to treatment of the favored few through property assessments.

So far as we can gather, the policy of Hitler and his Nazis is the same policy that caused the Great War in 1914 when a section of the German people through their policy of "frightfulness" tried to intimidate the whole world.

The World War is not so far distant that we have forgotten the tales of children sacrificed and women ravaged. The warfare of savages was adopted when bombs were rained upon peaceful citizens from the air, slaying and maiming hundreds of women and children and old men.

Today Hitler and his rabble are making war on people in Germany who are unable to defend themselves. The Jews there are ill-treated yet are not allowd to leave the country. Is it this policy that Basso-Bert applauds? Does he agree with preventing citizens from voting because they do not agree with his policy? Is that the "new moral, social and political orientation" to which he refers?

No, if the German war policy or the present Hitler policy is the policy of Fascism, then let us set our faces against it and make sure that it shall never come to Canada.

W. GOLDBLOOM.

CANADIAN ANTHEM

Editor, Dail News:

I was very pleased to note in a copy of your paper the fact you are publishing for the benefit of the citizens in your vicinity the Weir version of "O Canada" as Canada's anthem. I am very much surprised that the intelligent citizens of Prince Rupert have been using any but the Weir version as any other version is not known in an official manner in any place that I am aware of. The Weir version is the one that was chosen some years ago by the Native Sons of Canada, the Canadian Daughters' League, the Canadian Authors' Association and the Association of Canadian Clubs.

We wish to extend our best wishes to you for the success of your paper and trust that you will long be spared in your work of trying to make people in Canada Canadians in the truest sense of the word.

FRANK G. J. McDONAGH,
National Secretary
Toronto, March 27.

STRONG ARM IN GERMAN ELECTION

Editor, Daily News:

It is with amazement that I read the letter in your paper March 31 by Basso-Bert regrading the German election and the overwhelming victory of the Hitler Nazi party.

A survey of the different daily papers from Britain will show how they gained their victory. The gigantic propoganda scheme and ruthless methods of expression gained the day.

Twenty thousand uniformed steel helmets marched through the Brandnburg gate to the Ex-Kaiser's palace, were reviewed then dismissed to the streets, no doubt to intimidate the citizens that were to vote. Thousands of uniformed Nazis armed with revolvers dashed through the streets of Berlin in police motor lorries and on bicycles. In one instance the police say they were fired on from a window which gave them the excuse to fire from their armored cars with machine guns. They also posted light guns on the house roofs, while all the men in the houses were dragged out at the point of the revolver.

Anyway, Mr. Editor, no doubt most of the citizens are receiving the Old Country papers and don't have to listen to the prattle of Mr. Basso-Bert. It would interest us to know when the debate on Fascism is going to be.

Thank you,
FRED GURNER

SEES ISSUE PLAIN

Editor, Daily News:

Allow me to make a few remarks re your editorials on Union Government:

The inept and helpless Tolmie administration is about to wind up its life and definitely pass into oblivion. The people's conscience has sealed its fate which is the one of doom.

The reborn Cincinnatus, displaying the banners of unionism with the pretext of resurrecting the economist fortunes of British Columbia, is nothing but a masqueraded attempt to becloud the real issue confronting the people of this province at the forhcoming election and an attempt to perpetuate the old regime from coast to coast.

What is the issue? Very plain. It stands between the preservation of the privileges of the few who have a financial monopoly and a strangle-hold on the economy of the nation, who keep on adding taxation upon taxation on the the necessities of life on the one hand and on the other the supreme necessity of grappling with the grim realities of the present hour which are anguishing practically every citizen of this province and a comprehensive attempt to break the viscious circle of unemployment by providing work.

It is humiliating for any man to be compelled to beg for the wherewithal of life. It is pitiful to see so many able and willing people forced to be idle year after year in a country where there is so much to do. It is almost inconceivable that such a condition would exist.

Let every true citizen wake up and take a stand against the perpetutation of such a state of affairs.

Excessive individualism is at the root of the trouble. The forces and resources of the nation must be pooled to overcme this crisis which is not economic only but is the crisis of the system. The old conception of no interference has failed. The pet theories of all political creeds must be discarded. Realities must be dealt with as they are.

The scope of life of the nation must be reorganized so as to make it secure and bearable to all its members. The business of the state must not be confined to the mere policy of tax collector or night watchman or distributor of doles but to grappling with the national problems from the point of view of the masses and not the classes.

President Roosevelt points out what the remedies are. Let those in responsible positions wake up to their responsibilities.

Fruit-a-tives give new life

"The only thing that makes me miserable now is the thought that for years I struggled along in a run-down condition, when, if I had known about 'Fruit-a-tives' I would have been well. I was constipated, bilious and suffered greatly from severe headaches. 'Fruit-a-tives' toned me up generally. They really have done me the world of good."

ROAD UP OLDFIELD

Matter Being Taken Up With Department With Request for Surveys—May Carry Out Work Soon

The Mount Oldfield road committee, at a meeting on Sunday, appointed a committee consisting of Dr. L. W. Kergin, M. A. Burbank and Ted LePage which was authorized to communicate with the minister of public works asking that survey lines of proposed routes for the road up the mountain be run following a grade or grades which might be later used for a permanent auto road.

In the meantime, possibilities are being considered of developing a pack road to the ridge of the mountain from McBride Street through McClymont Park and upwards.

Dr. L. W. Kergin was elected chairman of the committee and Ted LePage secretary. The committee consists of the following representatives:

Chamber of Commerce—F. A. MacCallum, Ted LePage and W. E. Drake.

Rotary Club—G. H. Munro, S. C. Thomson and Dr. H. L. Alexander.

Gyro Club—Dr L. W. Kergin, M. A. Burbank and Dr. H. O. Johnsen.

TRAINS MAY BE REDUCED

Four Instead of Six Per Week to be Operated This Summer, it is Reported

While no announcement has yet been made by railway authorities, it is understood that passenger train service on the local line of the Canadian National Railways during the coming summer will provide four instead of six trains a week in each direction. Three will be full passenger trains and the fourth a mixed train.

As far as can be learned, it is planned to operate trains on largely the same time table as last year with the possibility of some minor changes in times of arrivals or departures. The passenger trains, it is expected, will leave during the noon hour and arrive possibly a little later in the afternoons than last year.

VEGETABLES FOR SPRING

New Lines Commencing to Make Appearance on Market Here—Jams and Syrups Up

Spring vegetables are now beginning to make their appearance on the local retail market, California asparagus being the latest arrival.

Mexican tomatoes are of fair quality with prices high. British Columbia hothouse tomatoes are expected soon.

Hothouse rhubarb is about finished and early outdoor supplies are expected very soon.

California grapefruit is very low in price at present, being about as reasonable as it has ever been sold on the local retail market.

There are no grapes on the market until Australian Almerias arrive about the end of the month.

Apple stocks are now down to the keeping varieties.

The recently imposed new tax on sugar is having the effect of materially stiffening the prices of jams and syrups and householders would be well advised to stock up at present prices. Higher prices are also anticipated on canned fruit as it is packed.

Put more SUNSHINE days on your calendar

How many days in the month do you feel your best? You can add to these sunshine days by simply obeying nature's laws.

The first of these laws is regular elimination. Avoid common constipation by eating a delicious cereal.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to help aid regularity. ALL-BRAN also contains twice the iron of an equal weight of beef liver.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. How much more pleasant than pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. Directions on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.
