ABOUT FACE IN POLICY OF GERMANY

POLITICAL INTEREST CENTERING IN NORTH VANCOUVER

Gesture of Peace and Friendliness Made by Confidante of Hitler

Minimum of Arms Necessary to Ensure Security is All Country Wants, Rudolph Hess Says in Addressing Nazi Chieftains

BERLIN, Germany, July 9: (CP)—Plans to push vigorously a friendlier foreign policy were indicated today on behalf of Germany which appears to fear that other countries will build political fences completely shutting her out. A ringing pronouncement for a Franco-German understanding and at the same time a warning that Germany will fight "as no people ever yet fought for liberty" by Rudolph Hess, trusted lieutenant of Chancellor Adolph Hitler, was considered something of an about face in Nazi foreign policy.

Addressing twelve thousand Nazi chieftains at Koenigsberg yesterday, Hess said that a defenceless country endangers peace and that Germany would be satisfied with a minimum of arms necessary to security.

Army Dictatorship and Kaiser's Return Foreseen

A military dictatorship, probably with Lieut.-Gen. Werner von Blomberg (left) at head of it, and return to power of the Hohenzollerns, are events forecast in Germany by foreign observers as rule of Adolph Hitler is shaken by dissension in Nazi ranks. One of the three Wilhelms shown right, the ex-Kaiser, his son or his grandson, will be occupant of throne in historic Potsdam Palace (top) before 1935, it is predicted.

Provincial By-Election On North Shore Now Warming For Finish

Straight Fight Between Liberal Candidate, Mackenzie Matheson, and Co-operative Commonwealth Choice, Mrs. R. P. Steeves

VICTORIA, July 9: (CP)—North Vancouver will be the focal point of political attention Saturday of this week when the provincial by-election takes place there to fill the vacancy in the Legislature caused by the death of Harley C. F. Anderson, C. C. F. member. It is the first test of political strength in British Columbia since the general election last fall and both the government and opposition are throwing their full campaign resources into the fight which is a straight one between Mackenzie Matheson, Vancouver barirster, the Liberal nominee, and Mrs. R. P. Steeves, the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation standard bearer, who is a well known Vancouver educationalist and was an unsuccessful candidate for Vancouver-Point Grey in the general election.

Leading the Liberal forces is Premier T. D. Pattullo who had intended to be in Prince Rupert last week but postponed the trip north because of the by-election and also on account of pressure of other ousiness.

Mrs. Steeves is having the active support of Rev. Robert Connell, the Leader of the Opposition, and other C. C. F. stalwarts.

MORE SUN THIS YEAR

Old Sol Much More Generous With His Blessings in 1934 Than Last Year

Prince Rupert for the first half of 1934 has enjoyed well on to twice as much sunshine as was recorded last year in the corresponding period, the sunshine for the first half of this year having now reached the total of 572.5 hours as compared with 365.4 hours in the opening six months of 1933. Sunshine for June this year aggregated 134.5 hours in comparison with 54.6 hours in June 1933.

While sunshine has been much more plentiful this year than last, oddly enough the precipitation this year is also considerably in excess of last year owing to the exceptionally wet month of January. Rainfall this June amounted to 5.7 inches as against 6.3 inches in June 1933, bringing total precipitation for the first six months of the present year to 53.09 inches in comparison with 37.99 inches in the opening half of 1933.

The weather summary for June was as follows:

Highest barometer reading at sea level, 30.39 on June 8.

Lowest barometer, reading at sea level, 29.59 on June 21.

Maximum temperature, 70 on June 5.

Minimum temperature, 44 on June 2.

Mean temperature, 52.3.

Precipitation, 5.7 inches.

Sunshine, 134.5 hours.

FUNERAL IS HELD

Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Good Laid at Rest Yesterday Afternoon

There was a large attendance of friends at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral yesterday afternoon when the funeral took place of Mark Frederick Good, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Good, whose death occurred with tragic suddenness last week. The service was conducted by Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of the Cathedral, and the full choir was in attendance. Hymns were "Shall We Gather at the River" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Peter Lien presided at the organ.

Following the service interment was made in Fairview Cemetery. A large concourse of mourners followed the cortege to the final resting place. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

Eight young boy friends of deceased were honorary pallbearers, these being Richard Mills, Alan Large, Allan and Hugh Burbank, John Nicholls, Billy Wilson, Billy Hunter and John Good. Active pallbearers were J. J. Payne, D. J. Matheson, C. C. Mills, Capt. J. R. Elfert, Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe and G. A. Woodland.

Fisherman Loses Life by Drowning

A. Manuel Lost His Life in Fatality Last Thursday, Provincial Police Advised

District headquarters of the provincial police here have been advised of the drowning last Thursday of A. Manuel, Vancouver fisherman, at Rivers Inlet. The message announcing the fatality gave no particulars. An inquest is being held at Rivers Inlet.

Fisherman's Funeral Was Held Saturday

The funeral of Lewis Sande, 45-year old troll fisherman, who was accidentally drowned recently at Goat Harbor, took place Saturday morning from the chapel of B. C. Undertakers to Fairview Cemetery with Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Sande was born in Minnesota but was a naturalized Canadian. He was unmarried.

FIRST HALF IS CINCHED

Invincible Grotto Team Clinches Softball Honors—Girls Also Victorious

The invincible Grotto softballers continued their phenomenal winning streak last Friday evening by turning back the Canadian National Recreation Association 9 to 1 and cinching first half honors.

Twelve hits rattled off the Tobacconists' bludgeons at the expense of Styles, Canadian National moundsman. The Railroaders collected five hits off Yager, the winner's chucker. The Tobacconists played errorless ball up to the sixth stanza, when their only bad play of the game occurred. With a runner on second and third, Hill let Nelson's lover-up throw go through, Cameron, on third, thus scoring on the overthrow, giving the Railroaders their lone tally for the game and spoiling what to all appearances had looked like a Grotto shut-out.

Batteries— Grotto: Yager and Gurvich; C. N. R. A.: Styles and Geddes.

Score by innings:

Grotto	3	1	0	2	2	1	0	0	—9
C. N. R. A.	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	—1

Line-ups were as follows:

C. N. R. A.—McIntosh lf., Horton 3b., Cameron 1b., Hibbard ss., Geddes c., Ferguson rf., Styles p., Eccles cf., Astoria 2b.

Grotto—Fong 2b., Ratchford 1b., Bury c., Nelson 3b., Edgar rf., Hill cf., Stalker lf., Yager p., Antonelli ss.

Ladies' League

Junior Elks improved their position in third place in the City Softball League standing on Wednesday last as a result of their victory by default over the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve which seems to be losing interest in the game since the departure of a local instructor. The Young Elks defeated a pick-up Navy team by a score of 5 to 2, the line-ups being as follows:

Junior Elks—C. Ross 1b., Smith cf., Steffensrud ss., Morgan 3b., Lindsay p., Campbell c., Naylor lf., Currie rf., Wicks 2b.

Navy—Comadina ss., White rf., Macfie p., Pitcher c., Armstrong lf., Bremner 1b., Christiansen 2b., Edgar cf., Comadina p.

Those two great British net aces, Fred Perry of England and Jack Crawford of Australia met Friday at Wimbledon in the men's final of the All-England tennis championships, the former winning out. In the semi-finals Wednesday, Perry defeated Sidney B. Wood of New York 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, 5-7, 6-3 in a sensational battle while Jack Crawford was also forced into five sets to eliminate Frank Shields, another American, 2-6, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4. In the quarter-finals earlier in the week the results were as follows:

Fred Perry defeated George Lott, 6-4, 2-6, 7-5, 10-8.

Jack Crawford defeated Lester Stoeffen, 7-5, 2-6, 7-5.

Frank Shields defeated H. W. (Bunny) Austin, 4-6, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5.

Sidney Wood defeated Vernon Kirby of South Africa, 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 6-0.

The New York teams are continuing to set the pace in both the National and American Leagues. The Giants had a free-scoring victory over the Dodgers at Brooklyn last Thursday and increased their margin of leadership over the idle Chicago Cubs in the National League to three and a half full games. The Yankees, playing at the Yankee Stadium, had no difficulty trimming the Washington Senators and increased their American League supremacy over the idle Detroit Tigers to one and a half games, the Senators dropping from third to fourth place below the Indians who were blanking the lowly Chicago White Sox at Cleveland.

Nanaimo City defeated Vancouver Macabees three to nil in the Dominion football championship semi-finals.

The victory of Dorothy Round, ranking English player, over Helen Jacobs, United States champion, in the women's single finals of the all-England tennis championships on Saturday gave England a clean sweep of the singles play in the competition. Miss Round's victory constituted a startling upset.

Dr. Herbert Buhtz of Germany, in winning the Diamond Sculls at Henley-on-Thames, England, Saturday, defeated Winthrop (Bill) Rutherford, former Princeton Varsity oarsman, by three and a half lengths in eight minutes and ten seconds to tie the record for the mile and 550 yards set in 1905.

SPORT CHAT

Nina Gurvich, who recently underwent an operation at the Prince Rupert General Hospital, is reported to be in a critical condition. Nina was to have been in Ketchikan last week as one of the headliners in a special Independence Day boxing card but was unable to go on account of having been taken ill. A substitute was secured from Anyox to take his place on the card which was held out of doors at the ball park, this having been an innovation for the "First City."

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

Returning south after a regular voyage to Skagway with a good sized list of round trip Alaska passengers on board, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Thomas Cliff, arrived in port at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and sailed at 5:30 p.m. for Vancouver. The vessel had 157 passengers aboard on arriving here from the north. Two disembarked here while three went south aboard her from this port.

For the first time in twenty years, the northern mining camp of Alice Arm is to be without weekly steamship service, the Union Steamship Co. having altered its schedule whereby the steamer Catala will in future call there only on alternate voyages instead of every week. This week the vessel is not making the call there but next week will be putting in at Alice Arm. The Catala arrived in port at 7:30 last evening from the south and sailed at 9:30 p.m. for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points including Naas River canneries, where she will load canned salmon, and Wales Island, where she will discharge cans. The vessel is due back here tomorrow afternoon southbound.

Making an extra sailing to Skagway with Alaska tourists, C. P. R. steamer Princess Alice will call here on the morning of July 21 bound for the north. It is a special voyage which is being arranged to handle extra tourist bookings which are proving to be a good deal heavier than had been anticipated when the sailing schedules for the summer were drawn up. The tie-up of American Alaska boats owing to the longshoremen's strike is forcing a good deal of tourist business over to the Canadian steamers.

Dr. Neal Carter, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, who is spending a vacation in the south, is due back from Vancouver aboard the Princess Louise on Monday morning of next week.

Returning south after a regular voyage to Skagway and other Alaska points with a capacity list of round trip tourists, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port at 9 o'clock this morning from the north and sailed at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Ocean Falls, Powell River and Vancouver. All available passenger accommodation on the vessel was filled. There were 197 on board on arrival from the north, 18 disembarking here.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 9 o'clock this morning from Vancouver and sailed a couple of hours later for Skagway and other northern points whence she will return here Saturday afternoon southbound. The vessel had a large list of passengers on board, most of whom were round trip tourists. The total arriving here was 230, one disembarging at this port and three sailing from here for the north aboard her.

Piloted by M. Stuart and with four passengers from Seattle for Alaska on board, a Gorst Air Transport seaplane put in here from 6 o'clock to 8:30 Saturday morning for fuel. The ship arrived here from Alert Bay and cleared for Ketchikan.

Tenant Farmers Of Chili Revolt

GOOD BILL ON SCREEN

"Search For Beauty" and "Double "Door Being Presented at Capitol Theatre

What is said to be an exceptionally good double talking picture bill is coming to the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week, one of the feature offerings being "Search For Beauty," a novel musical comedy in which laughs, action, beauty and brawn are combined in a delightful manner with a new treatment of the racket theme, and the other "Double Door," a thrilling, fast-moving and suspenseful drama relating the story of the sinister efforts of an erratic spinster to retain control of the destiny and fortunes of one of New York's oldest and richest families.

"Search for Beauty" chronicles with laughs and music the misadventures of crooked promoters in their efforts to use Olympic champions as fronts for a health and beauty racket. Ida Lupino, charming blonde importation from England, makes her debut on the screen on this side, the lion's share of comedy honors goes to James Gleason and Robert Armstrong while excellent portrayals are also given by Gertrude Michael, Buster Crabbe and Tobey Wing.

"Double Door" is replete with many tense and gripping dramatic situations and has a strong cast including Evelyn Venable, Sir Guy Standing, Kent Taylor and two members of the original Broadway cast, Mary Morris and Anne Revere.

ORGANIZING JR. BOARDS

Sam Jabour of This City Home After Attending Conference in Vancouver at Week-End

S. J. Jabour returned to the city on the Princess Charlotte this morning from a trip south in the course of which he attended a convention at Banff of agents of the Sun Life Assurance Co. and a conference in Vancouver of presidents of Junior Boards of Trade of British Columbia. Mr. Jabour is president of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

Organization of an Associated Junior Boards of Trade body for British Columbia is believed closer following the conference in Vancouver last Friday of junior presidents from Prince Rupert, Victoria, New Westminster, North Vancouver and Vancouver.

A provincial rather than a sectional outlook on tourist traffic was agreed upon. It was also decided to observe a province-wide traffic safety week.

Successful Tea And Sale is Held By Girl Guides

One of the most sucessful functions of its kind held recently was the tea and sale of home cooking on Saturday afternoon by the girls of the First Prince Rupert Guide Company in the store of J. Lorne McLaren. It was a most enjoyable affair and the financial result was extremely gratifying.

Mrs. Ernest Anderson, secretary of the Guide Association, received the visitors. The tea room was in charge of Mrs. C. Brewerton, Patrol Leaders Marjorie Silversides and Miss Edith Brewerton while those serving were Guides Geraldine Cade, Peggy Blackhall, Betty Wilkinson and Betty Borland, assisted by Nancy Bremner and Kathleen O'Neill.

Patrol Leaders Honora Silversides and Muriel Eby were in charge of the home cooking and those in the candy stall were Guides Audrey Watkinson and Engina Christionson.

Guide Jean Watt was cashier.

An entertaining feature was the fortune telling by Mrs. J. Bremner.

In the bean guessing contest Miss Eileen Gibson was the winner of $2 worth of Capitol Theatre tickets donated by D. G. Borland, the manager.
