GROTTO IS DEFEATED

Brother Bills Eclipse Tobacconists 9-5 in Softball Fixture

The Grotto softballers, displaying little of the prowess and formidability that won them first half honors, bowed last night for the third time this season to a team bearing the Elks' colors, it being the second game they have lost to the Senior Elks while the Junior Elk aggregation took them into camp last week.

The teams entered the sixth inning with the score tied two all. The Elks forged ahead when Unger scored partly on Scott's hit and partly on a bad overthrow to third base. This one run lead was soon tied when a couple of Elks' infield errors gave the Tobacco-men a lone tally.

This tie was short-lived after the Brother Bills came to bat in the eighth. With two away and Ogg on third, Brown, making his first hit of the evening, poked one out to right field to score Ogg, putting the Lodgemen in the lead again for the third time during the evening. However, a one-run margin is always a bit shaky, especially in softball, so the Elks proceeded to cinch the game in the next frame when they staged a five-run rally. In that dreadful sub-division they slashed the innocuous pitching of Yager for five hits, batting one more than once around.

Although, no little dejected by the swift series of events, the Tobacconists made a dangerous attempt to run out on the Elks, their two-hit, two-run rally giving the Lodgemen several squeamish moments, especially when it was at its peak. However, the six-run lead was too much to overcome, the final score being 9 to 5. Each pitcher allowed twelve hits.

Score by innings:

Elks	0 0 0 0 2 1 0 1 5	9
Grotto	0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0 2	5

Batteries—Scott and Budinich; Yager and Gurvich.

Umpires—Comadina brothers.

Scenes In Austrian Uprising

Although photo at top was taken in Upper Austria on February 14, 1934, it has just reached Canada. It shows six Austrian Socialists facing a Fascist firing squad shortly after the Socialist rebellion of that time. The recent Nazi revolt ended in a similar manner for many enemies o the prsent regime. At centre is seen a machine-gun nest of heimwehr guarding a building in Vienna after the uprising that cost Chancellor Dollfuss his life. The photo was flown from Vienna to London and radioed across the Atlantic.

An exclusive photograph, at bottom, telephotoed to London and radioed from there to New York, whence it was flown, showing the late Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria lying in state in the office of the chancellery after he had been shot to death by Austrian Nazias. Suspicion that Germany approved of the assassination shocked Europe and for a time caused new fears of war.

MINING IN INTERIOR

Activity on Many Properties in Smithers District

Charles M. Campbell, the well known mining engineer is making a thorough investigation of the Mamie mine on Hudson Bay Mountain near Smithers for the Wilson interests. Also a number of other investigations are going on at Hudson Bay Mountain properties. Work is proceeding on the Silver Lake, the people connected with Skeena Gold are on the ground and development work has been resumed on Glacier Gulch anthracite coal property, new money having been obtained for it. The owners of all the properties are optimistic and are getting good results from development work.

A small mill is being installed at Topley Richfield mine and the Box Group in the same neighborhood is under option. A raise in the long tunnel at Dome Mountain is going ahead for the purpose of getting in air.

In the Babine strong interests are at work notably on Highland Basin.

Throughout the district the spirit of optimism in regard to mining prevails.

Two Drownings In Peace River

Pair of Fatalities Officially Reported to Divisional Headquarters Of Provincial Police

Divisional headquarters of the provincial police here are advised of two recent drowning fatalities in the Peace River district.

On July 22 Frederick James Lynn, aged 23, who lived on a homestead at Cecil Lake with his father, was reported missing. On July 31 his body was found in Beaton River a mile and a half from Michelson's Bridge. He had, apparently, fallen in the river and death was pronounced due to drowning.

The other drowning victim was Anderson Andres, 63-year old Swedish farmer, whose low-lying homestead on the Pine River 95 miles from Dawson Creek was flooded when the river overflower its bank. Andres was, apparently, trapped when trying to escape from the flood waters. An inquest was held and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned.

H. W. Butler, Government Telegraphs operator at Aiyansh, and Mrs. Butler, who have been spending a few days in the city, sailed on the Catala this afternoon for a two weeks' trip to Vancouver in the course of a vacation.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

Freeman Gosden, better known as "Amos" of the "Amos 'n Andy" team of radio entertainers, who was here yesterday on his way back to Chicago, had excellent sport fishing and hunting during his three weeks' yachting cruise in Alaskan waters. In one day alone the party caught 320 trout and two bears were also shot. A pair of cubs were captured one of which was sent to the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago. Deepsea fishing members of the party hooked two porpoises. They also saw two whales but that was getting in a little too big a class for the angling equipment carried on the Caroline. Amos had to just be "regusted" that he had not brought bigger gear along.

Delayed by loading fish for Vancouver, it was 4:30 yesterday afternoon before C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, got away for the south, one hour and a half late.

A Boeing flying boat, flying in northern waters in connection with a yachting expedition, arrived here at 11:30 this morning and went out again at 2:15 this afternoon. The pilot was Clayton L. Scott, well known northern flier.

GOOD BILL PRESENTED

"Good Dame" and "Bureau of Missing Persons" on Double Program At Capitol Theatre

"Good Dame," in which Sylvia Sidney and Fredrick March are costarred again, and "Bureau of Missing Persons," a decidedly different type of picture presenting a cast headed by Bette Davis, Lewis Stone and Pat O'Brien, are to be seen at the Capitol Theatre in an interesting double bill for the first of this week.

"Good Dame" is a breezy, fresh and well-sustained comedy-drama with happy results. The story is that of a "good" dame for a "bad boy." It is spiced with lively dialogue and amusing situations. Miss Sidney and March have a strange and boisterous romance, both carrying their parts excellently. An excellent supporting cast includes Jack LaRue, Noel Frances, Kathleen Burke, Russell Hopton and William Farnum.

Romance, comedy, melodrama and pathos are combined cleverly in "Bureau of Missing Persons" which is both fast-moving and entertaining, the story being in connection with the activities of a big city police department with a difficult murder mystery providing the real drama. The supporting cast includes Alan Dinehart, Ruth Donnelly, Marjorie Gateson, Noel Frances and Tad Alexander.
