CARNIVAL IS ENDED

Big Dance Brings Three-Day Effort On Behalf of Boys' Band To Close—Good Crowd

Culminating feature of the three-day carnival in aid of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band was a big and jolly novelty dance and jamboree held last night in the Moose Hall with about three hundred people in attendance. The affair was replete with an atmosphere of fun and frolic from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. and, at midnight, when noisemakers and novelties were distributed, pandemonium broke loose for about an hour. Carnival features plied a good trade and helped to raise revenue for the general cause of the Boys' Band.

Sam Joy was master of ceremonies and music was by the Serenaders' Orchestra. As in the other events of the carnival members of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Gyro Clubs and the Boys' Band committee assisted in connection with the dance.

VETERAN LOYALTY

Unique Presentation is Made To Canadian National Railways

TORONTO, Aug. 29:—A gray-haired veteran of the steel highway, face lined by long years spent in a locomotive cab, but once a youthful fireman who rode his engine into Ottawa on that historic day of Confederation in 1867, was typical of approximately 500 Canadian National Railways veterans who gathered Thursday afternoon in the Oak Room of the Union Station to signalize the anniversary of their railway entering upon its second century of service to the public.

Inscribed with the names of more than 6,000 men and women on the pension lists of the system, veterans presented to the Canadian National Railways a loyalty roll, encased in a walnut chest, suitably engraved, and surmounted by a silver working model of a modern, mammoth passenger engine. Itself made by a yeteran who has 52 years of active service to his credit, supported enthusiastically by every veteran in the Canadian National Railways and its lines in the United States, the memorial was truly international in character and wrote a page in railway history which for loyalty and uniqueness in nature has never been duplicated before.

The presentation address was beautifully done in colors and depicted the growth of land transportation from the days of the stage coach to the present titan of the rails, the streamlined 6400. Each district of the vast National system was represented pictorially —Quebec by the little "Dorchester" which a century ago inaugurated the railway epoch in Canada; the Maritimes, by their pioneer locomotive the "Albion;" Ontario by the "Lady Elgin" of 1856, and the United States lines by the motive power of 1870, Western Canada by the prairie's type of 1900, and the entire system united in No. 6400.

The Address

The address read: "We, the veterans of the Canadian National Railways and associated companies, desire to give expression to the goodwill which we bear to the railroad and its staff. As it enters upon its second century of service to the public, the Canadian National carries with it the sincere good wishes of the great army of veterans more than 6,000 men and women who have completed their years of active railroad service but whose hearts remain loyal to their railway. To our nation-wide transportation system and to the 80,000 men and women employees upon it, we pledge loyal support, confident that the years ahead will bring to the enterprise full measure of success. Six thousand, two hundred and seventy names are inscribed on the accompanying roll of Canadian National veterans."

High tribute to the spirit which prompted the great army of veterans in making this striking demonstration of their affection for the road was voiced by E. P. Mallory, assistant to the president, speaking on behalf of Mr. Hungerford. "This loyalty needs no such symbol or token," he said. "It has been expressed in a multitude of ways during past years. It has been shown by the work which veteran employees have continued to perform for their company, as its champions and as the supporters of its cause."

Brief addresses of appreciation were also given by W. A. Kingsland, vice-president of the central region; J. B. McLaren, comptroller,

TIGHTEN UP RULES

Weekly Close Season for Sockeye To be 72 Hours Next Year, It Is announced

VANCOUVER, Aug. 29: (CP)—Salmon conservation measures on the Skeena River will be more rigid in 1937, it is announced in an unofficial statement by Major J. A. Motherwell, chief supervisor of fisheries, in the interests of conservation—especially sockeyes.

One thousand fishing boats will be allowed, which is the same number as this year, but there will be a weekly closed period of seventy-two hours instead of forty-eight hours now in force. This will be enforced only during the sockeye season from July 1 to August 6.

The industry is given notice of measures contemplated for 1937 which are as follows:

(1) The present boundary from Mowich (Powell) Point to a fishing boundary sign directly opposite on the south side of the Skeena River will be maintained until the local officers are satisfied that the sockeye run has passed, when it may be restored to the position of 1935, for the balance of the season.

(2) The boat rating will be 1,000 for a seventy-two hour weekly closed period, instead of the same number of boats for a forty-eight hour closed period as has been enforced during 1936. This seventy-two hour period, however, will only be enforced during the sockeye fishing in 1937, that is, between July 1 and August 6. After August 6 the normal closed season of forty eight hours will apply unless as the time approaches it appears necessary to take further action.

(3) Sockeye nets will be permitted from July 1 to August 6.

(4) Gillnets having meshes of not less than 8½ inches will be permitted from January 1 to July 23.

(5) From August 6 no fishing with nets of any character will be permitted, until 6 p.m. Monday, August 16.

(6) Folowing the above mentioned ten day interval, gillnets with meshes of not less than 6½ inches will be permitted to the end of the fishing season.

DECORATING OF GRAVES

Rites for War Dead at Smithers Taking Place Earlier This Year

SMITHERS, Aug. 29:—Bulkley Valley Branch No. 63, Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, will hold a parade on Sunday afternoon at Smithers when they march to the cemetery to decorate the graves of their departed comrades.

The parade will be in charge of Lieut. Col. R. L. Gale, M.C. and will leave the Legion hall accompanied by the Smithers Brass Band.

A service will be held in the cemetery which will be conducted by Rev. W. O. McIntosh of the United Church and Rev. D. J. Hales of the Anglican Church.

This service will take the place of the service that has been held annually on Armistice Day. Weather conditions at that time made the occasion so uncertain and so inconvenient it was decided by the local branch of the Legion to make the change and hold the parade when an abundance of flowers for decorating the graves would be easily available.

A very large attendance of veterans throughout the Bulkley Valley is expected.

ASKING FOR RAILWAY

Women of Peace Country United In Desire For Pacific Coast Outlet Says Mrs.Gibson

What the women of the Peace River Block need more than anything else is a western outlet for their grain to the Pacific. That is the one subject on which there is full accord and they cannot understand why it is that the building of this railway has been so long deferred. They have a wonderful country but, with no western outlet, they are sadly handicapped, according to Mrs. J. B. Gibson, who arrived home from an official visit to the women's organizations of the Anglican Church in that district. Her visit was made in her capacity as diocesan president of the Anglican W. A.

While in the Peace River country, Mrs. Gibson was the guest of Rev. T. D. and Mrs. Proctor of Dawson Creek. She addressed eight gatherings of women and some of them came as far as seventy miles to attend the gatherings. She says they are a brave people and should receive every possible consideration.

ALL ARE SINNERS

There is a general tendency on the part of cities to consider themselves the only important part of the universe. It is said that New Yorkers are the most ignorant people in the world, because they know almost nothing of what lies a few miles beyond Broadway. So Vancouver, as reflected by its newspapers and the speeches of its public men seems to consider the rest of the country only in the light of how it can benefit that great and progressive city.

It is claimed that Prince Rupert also sins in the same manner. While objecting to the attitude of Vancouver she forgets that smaller neighboring communities look to her for a lead and they find that Prince Rupert people and papers consider everything in its relation to the prosperity of their city.

Evidently it is the attitude of every city. Undoubtedly it is not the proper attitude but is fostered by the boards of trade and business people. The newspapers through their frequent and close affiliation with the business interests become imbued with similar fallacies.

What is needed is a broader outlook on the part of all with a proper appreciation of what each community is doing and the part it plays in the work of building up the Canadian nation.

The first Northern British Columbia district softball championship competition concluded last evening with Junior Elks of Prince Rupert scoring an easy 11 to 3 victory over Metlakatla in the final to annex the perpetual challenge cup for the ensuing year. The locals were simply too strong for the visitors. There was a large crowd of native spectators on hand but little interest seemed to be manifested by the local fans.

LePage presented the cup to Carl Smith, captain of the winning team, as well as medals to each of the members of the team—Jack Lindsay, pitcher; Herb Morgan, c.; Bob Moxley, 1b.; J. Comadina, 2b.; Carl Smith, ss.; E. Santerbane, 3b.; F. Calderone, Don Arney and Jack Campbell, outfielders; Jack Yager and Walter Johnson, utilities.

Salmon Scarce But All Canneries Still In Operation—Only Four Halibut Boats Land Catches During Entire Week

While not a great many fish have been available during the past week, no salmon canneries in Prince Rupert district had finally ended packing operations up to this weekend although it is expected that next week will see a number close down. There has been a very definite falling off in the run during the last few days and the closing down of certain fishing areas to fishing in order to ensure escapement to the spawning grounds has further accentuated the scarcity of fish.

The run of pinks in Massett Inlet is not up to the expectations of the cycle year although a satisfactory number of fish are reported in the streams.

Butedale area, with the exception of the west coast of Banks Island, was closed to seining during the past week until further notice as well as all net fishing in the Lowe Inlet area. There has been a heavy run of pinks in both Butedale and Lowe Inlet areas this year. The streams, however, have become low and the fishing has been closed in order to give a chance to get into the spawning beds.

With water low and clear and weather bright and sunny late August sees gill netters on both Skeena and Naas Rivers getting light catches of cohoes.

During the past week only four halibut booats sold catches aggregating 103,000 pounds at Prince Rupert. There was only one Canadian boat, the Takla, which landed 42,000 pounds and received the very substantial price of 11.4c and 7c. Three American boats brought 61,000 pounds, the Rainier and Viking being paid 10.2c and 6c for 26,00 and 13,000 pounds respectively and the President 10.7c and 6c for 22,000 pounds. Landings for the season up to yesterday reached an aggregate of 8,244,200 pounds as against 8,511,450 pounds at a corresponding date last year. The Canadian total is 4,656,500 pounds in comparison with 4,140,150 pounds a year ago and the American total 3,588,700 pounds as against 4,371,300 pounds.

Some thirty of the Prince Rupert halibut boats—a larger number than last year—are continuing to operate this fall in the more remote Area No. 3 following the closing of Area No. 2 to fishing. The boats continuing operations are Nornen, Dovre B., Atli, Cape Spencer, Margalice, Bum, Unome, Johan W. I, Joe Baker, Vera Beatrice, Capella, Ingrid H., Signal, Tramp, Melville, Cape Beale, Gony, Southend, Kyreille, Sea Maid, Toodie, White Hope, D.S.T., Thresher, Bayview, North Forland, Teeny Milly, Clipper II, Oslo, Kaien and Margaret I.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 2:45 this morning from the south and sailed a couple of hours later on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Instead of sailing on schedule at 10 o'clock last night for the south, C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide soon after arriving from Vancouver yesterday, sailed on a special voyage to Ketchikan to pick up a party of Filipino cannery workers to take to Seattle. The vessel returned here at 7 o'clock this morning from the north, sailing at 9 a.m. for Vancouver. The Ketchikan party numbered 130. Forty more passengers went aboard here.

After having had his Pacific Airways Junkers seaplane on the pontoons at the local dry dock for ten days to undergo a general overhaul, Pilot Charles Elliott was up on a test flight yesterday afternoon and left at 6:30 last evening for Stewart. He took north Mrs. Elliott and little daughter and A. R. Nichols.

Southbound from Skagway to Vancouver with a full list of tourist passengers, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, is due in port at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Skagway and will sail at 5:30 p.m. for the south.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local Fish Exchange this morning.

C. A. Procunier, for many years school teacher at Sunnyside and more recently residing at Osland will leave on next Friday's train for Kentville, Nova Scotia, where he plans on taking up future residence.

RAINS SPOIL MUSHROOMS

LONDON, Aug. 29: (CP)—Hay crops have been ruined and grain laid flat in many sections of England and even the mushrooms, which thrive in wet meadows, are spoiled by too much moisture.

A. E. Parlow, district forester returned to the city on last night's train from a trip to the interior on official duties.
