Provincial Election Situation In Prince Rupert; Pattullo Is Expected to Be Renominated

C. C. F. to Be in Field But Has Problem of Selecting Candidate Who Will Suit Everybody—More Than Two Candidates Looked For

While there have been no official nominations for the forthcoming provincial election yet as far as Prince Rupert riding is concerned, it seems reasonable to anticipate that Premier T. D. Pattullo will once more be tendered the unanimous nomination of the Liberal party. What form the opposition to Mr. Pattullo will take, if any, has not yet been crystallized although, with the election date now announced, there is plenty of discussion and an abundance of rumors.

One certainty seems to be that the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation will have a candidate in the field. Names are now being considered. The C. C. F. is evidently faced with the rather difficult task of making a choice which will be acceptable to all the various shades of its potential supporters. This problem does not seem to be confined to Prince Rupert alone but appears to be a general one throughout the province.

It was intimated some time ago that there would be a Conservative candidate but it has been suggested lately that they might be an Independent instead.

Talk is heard of various alliances. Some of these discussions suggest rather strange associates. The general opinion of the most of political prognosticators locally seems to be that the opposition to the Premier will be rather split up and that, barring some unexpected agreements being reached, there will be more than two candidates in the field.

Pattullo Will Open Campaign On Wednesday

VICTORIA, April 16:—Premier T. D. Pattullo will open the provincial government's election campaign with a radio address over the provincial network from his office here on the evening of April 21. This was announced yesterday following the Premier's setting of the election date as June 1.

CRITICAL OF C. C. F.

John McInnis Predicts In Vancouver That it is About To "Curl up and Die"

VANCOUVER, April 16:—Declaring that the party was totally unfit to receive financial support or votes to help it get into power at the next provincial election, John McInnis, speaking here last night, predicted that, "after June 1, the C. C. F. will curl up and die." Referring to growing disunity in the ranks of the C. C. F. on the eve of the election, Mr McInnis referred to the recent statements of A. M. Stephen and Dr. Lyle Telford. He agreed with Stephen that "it would be fatal" to have such men as constituted the party executive" run the affairs of the province. Now Dr. Telford was complaining of "squabbling and quibbling" within the ranks of the party which was "dominated by office seekers."

"The C. C. F. has been a flop all over Canada except in British Columbia and look at it here," said Mr. McInnis. Obviously it was totally unfit to receive the support of the electors. It could only lead to some sort of Fascism or dictatorship.

As for Mr. Stephen and Dr. Telford, Mr. McInnis thought that, now they had done their bit, they might take up the playing of croquet or retire to Southern Russia to enjoy themselves. Mr McInnis said he would be glad to contribute to a fund to help them to do so.

ELECTION ON JUNE 1

The election of a new provincial legislature is to take place June 1. The provincial government will be on trial. If the people of the province approve of the conduct of affairs since the Pattullo government took office from the Tolmie administration the natural thing will be to return them for another term. If they disapprove they will be defeated and replaced by some other government.

It is to be assumed that there will be in the field three or four parties. There will be the traditional Conservative party that dissolved at the close of the Tolmie administration, some running as unionists and others under other names. Only one professed Conservative was elected. Under the reorganization of Dr. Frank Patterson the Conservatives will again have candidates in the field and the probability is they may elect a few members. The C. C. F. group has been rather badly split since the last general election. The leader, Rev. Robert Connell, and several of his followers left the party because they felt it was bcoming communistic. They have formed a new party and will have candidates in the field in some constituencies. The C. C. F. party still continues as a party, but there is more or less change in its personnel going on all the time. However, the members continue active and keen and are likely to put up a good fight for a place in the legislature, even though it scarcely can expect to command anything approaching a majority there. It seems rather as if it might be a contest between Conservatives and C. C. F. for second place.

POLICY OF THE LIBERALS

We have not yet before us the full text of the manifesto issued by the Pattullo government in regard to policy except insofar as its stand goes on health insurance. On that it is proposed to take a plebiscite of the electors and, if they approvee, there will be a health insurance law passed, although not the same law that was proposed recently.

Since the present government took charge, the finances of the province have been rehabilitated and industry has revived, until today it is said that British Columbia leads the rest of Canada in its recovery from the depression. Pressure has been brought to bear upon Ottawa with the result that some help has been received, not only in the matter of loans but also in highway construction, building of mining roads and also in contributions to general revenue of the province. Further efforts will be made through the commission which is to be appointed, to see that British Columbia gets a fair deal in the Canadian federation. Few, if any, provincial governments have made such progress in so short a time as the one now in power. For that reason alone it seems hardly likely there will be any change in the general set-up as a result of this election.

CLEAN UP FOR TOURISTS

No plans have been made this year so far to prepare for the advent of tourists by cleaning and painting up and generally improving the appearance of the city. Possibly before the spring is over such a campaign may be started but at any rate in order to keep our own self-respect it would be a good thing to clean and paint up as soon as possible.

Three Speakers At Rotary Club

Dr L W Kergin, Fred Scadden And James Bryant Give Their Initial Talks at Luncheon

There were three brief addresses at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon, Dr. L. W. Kergin, Fred Scadden and James Bryant all new members, each giving a brief sketch of his life.

Dr. Kergin told of having been born at St. Catharines, Ontario, and of coming to this neighborhood and engaging in several occupations until in 1911 he graduated in medicine, married in 1912, went overseas with the British Army to Mesopotamia where he spent three years and was in Egypt when the Armistice was signed. Since then he has been practising medicine in Prince Rupert.

Fred Scadden did not like painting as a youth so went to sea for ten years. He came to Prince Rupert in 1910 and since that has been following his trade in the city.

James Bryant, the youngest member of Rotary, was born in Prince Rupert in 1913. Dr. L. W. Kergin officiating at that event. His grandfather came to this continent when a baby. He finished high school at the age of 15, and, after a year at his father's store, took a course at the University of Washington and is now planning to carry on the business with his father in Prince Rupert.

Visitors at the Club yesterday were Alan Fraser of Kamloops, who is visiting with his parents, Inspector and Mrs. J. A. Fraser; D. G. Borland, Judge Robertson of Prince George and M. McPherson of Vancouver.

Miss Fannie McLaren R.N. of Terarce, graduate of the Prince Rupert General Hospital training school for nurses, has resigned from the staff of the Hazelton Hospital to take a position on the staff of the Trail hospital on June 1. Before going south Miss McLaren will visit at Terrace, Usk, Copper City and Prince Rupert.

Capacity House Sees 'Pinafore'

Repeat Presentation Proves Popular Drawing Card—Director Honored at Party

A capacity audience filled the Capitol Theatre last night for the Prince Rupert Operatic Society's repeat presentation of "H. M. S. Pinafore" and the show was, if anything, better than on the opening night. A pleasant feature was the presentation of bouquets to the three lady principals—the Misses Edna Wilkinson, Barbara Daniels and Jean Wheatley.

Following the show, the members of the cast and others who participated in the entertainment were guests at a party by the Rotary committee at the Commodore. There was singing and dancing and buffet refreshments. With a suitable toast, C. V. Evitt, president of the Rotary Club, tendered a vote of thanks to the director, Nelson Allen, and Mrs. Allen and the presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Allen by Hugo Kraupner on behalf of the cast of a handsome silver pitcher and bouquet of flowers. Mr. Allen replied with the offering of a toast to the Rotary Club.

The show is being repeated this afternoon for benefit of school children.

The Rotary Club's Pinafore committee consisted of Col. J. W. Nicholls, W. M. Blackstock, W. L. Coates and T. A. McWaters.

Supper Meeting Very Enjoyable

Anglican Young People's Association Entertained at Home Of Ernest Meadows

On Wednesday night at the home of E. W. Meadows there was a bumper meeting of the Anglican Young People's Association in spite of the fact that a super-attraction in the form of "H. M. S. Pinafore" was in action at the Capitol Theatre.

Charades were the chief item on the program and, just before a sumptious supper, E. W. Meadows read numerous little anecdotes on sea life which highly amused those present.

Next week there will be a business meeting at the Cathedral Hall, followed by films on Japanese life shown by Miss K. Lang.

Stop at the Frazer Hotel when visiting Stewart or Hyder. The only steam heated hotel in Portland Canal district. (tf)

BOY TRIO FEATURED

Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper and Mickey Rooney Teamed up in "The Devil Is a Sissy"

Three of the screen's best known boy stars—Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper and Mickey Rooney—are teamed up in "The Devil is a Sissy" which comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the week-end feature picture. It is the story of three boys facing life on the sidewalks of New York. Freddie, the young son of a wealthy American mother and an English father who are separated because her money stands in the way of his realizing his ambition to become an architect and build his own life, meets two young American ideals. The first is Jackie Cooper, son of a braggart ex-soldier, who would keep out the "foreign element" such as Freddie represents. The second is Mickey Rooney, son of an electrocuted ex-gangster. Freddie is admitted to the roughneck boys' gang and, after a series of adventures, some rather poignant while others are amusing, they run foul of the law. There is a dramatic climax and everything ends happily not only for the boys but in Freddie's own home life.

Katharine Alexander plays the part of Freddie's mother. Ian Hunter, brilliant young British actor, is the father. Gene Lockhart and his wife, Kathleen Lockhart, also have important parts his mother. Dorothy Peterson in the picture, the former as plays the part of Mickey's mother Jackie's father and the latter as

CURTAINS FOR MAX

Former World's Heavyweight Boxing Champion Is Decisively Beaten by English Opponent —Quitting Ring

LONDON, April 16:—Following his defeat at the hands of Tommy Farr, 23-year old Welsh walloper, in a twelve round bout here last night, Max Baer, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, announced his definite retirement from the ring. He said he was convinced he was "all washed up in the punching business." Entering the fight a heavy favorite to win, Baer was completely outboxed all the way by his opponent and was thoroughly beaten. In the very first round he was in trouble with a bad cut over the eye.

It was Baer's first major fight since he was knocked out by Joe Louis in September 1935.

By slapping Baer out of shape, Farr climaxed a ring career that began when he gave up the idea of remaining a kitchen hand in his native Tonypandl, Wales.
