NEW YORK NEW YEARS MOSTLY A POOR SHAM

Majority of Celebrants Earn $20 Weekly and Usually Spend $18 on Saturday Night

New York, Dec. 30.—Dear old New York, which has such a dreadful reputation for evil, but which really isn't evil at all, compared to some other large cities of the world, is preparing for its annual manifestation of badness—New Year's Eve.

Many shocking sights are to be seen along Broadway on that night, but they don't ring true. They appear very, very amateurish. Somehow, one knows that the stout lady at the table in Martin's is not in the habit of becoming pleasantly intoxicated every night in the week. Now she is waving a champagne glass in her hand, laughing hysterically, and insisting that she be allowed to dance on the table (which wouldn't support her weight for a second), as she fondly believes they do in "Gay Paree." When she is home the dear, matronly person probably has three or four children and a hard working stock broker husband to look after.

The gaily dressed young woman with the diamond bedecked silk hose prominently displayed who you meet with several male companions, in various stages of happiness, in the Cafe de Paree, probably spends her week days in making pot hooks in a law office. Her escorts may be millionaires, but it isn't likely.

The great probability is that they are of the species Noo Yorkus, a peculiar animal, the habitat of which is any New York business office, where it toils for twenty odd dollars per week, and then delights to "blow in" eighteen of that "twenty odd" along Broadway on Saturday nights, subsisting for the next week on the few dollars left.

Found Valuable Coin

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 26.—A silver dollar bearing the date 1804, highly prized by numismatists, and understood to be quoted at $3,500 for collection purposes, was found here today.

William Sullivan, a laborer, excavating on the site of the ice rink for the Yale hockey team, turned over with his shovel an old jar which rested on a boulder seven feet below the surface of the street nearby.

Under the bowl was a silver snuffbox, made in Nuremberg, green with oxydization, and in it a United States silver dollar dated 1804, in good condition, a number of Connecticut copper coins, a continental note for $3, several state notes and some rings. The metal articles were slightly corroded, but they rubbed up well and dates were plain. The notes had to be carefully handled to prevent disintegration.
