Groundhog Coal Samples

The exhibit of natural resources of Northern British Columbia being assembled by Mr. P. F. Godenrath, commissioner of the board of trade at the Bureau of Information, 341 Second Avenue, was augmented today by the receipt of three splendid samples that of the "black diamond" from the property of the British Columbia Anthracite Company Groundhog coal district. The specimens, carefully tabulated with their analysis, are now on display in the window and have already attracted much attention from those interested in the Groundhog coal measures.
