Italy Is Now Facing Starvation

LONDON IS AGAIN HIT BY BOMBS

Luftwaffe Stages Another Heavy Night Attack On Capital

LONDON, Nov. 30: (CP)—Swarming over in a seemingly continuous stream and dropping incendiaries and heavy explosive bombs in almost every section of the city, the German luftwaffe, with an estimated 300 planes, gave London and surrounding counties last night the heaviest raid in ten nights. The raiding commenced shortly after the sounding of the 381st. air raid alarm of the war at 6:30 p.m. There was an enormous uproar as anti-aircraft guns, fragments of which showered amid the bombs, A new gleam which was seen in the skies was taken by many as an indication that a new secret instrument of air defence might be in use. The Daily Mail a few days ago spoke of such an instrument.

The attack extended to Liverpool, southwestern England and Wales.

Despite poor visibility, a large number of enemy bombers came to the Kent coast today but were intercepted by the Royal Air Force and, in furious battles, were forced to large extent, retreat to the French coast. Six planes, however, got through to London and dropped a few bombs, from great altitude falling into a large gathering of people. There were two daylight raids on London by mid-afternoon today.

Casualties Heavy

The Home Security ministry announced tonight that the casualties in London last night were "somewhat heavier" than had been at first thought. The official statement said that the Nazi air force had made one of the strongest drives in recent weeks on London today but only a few of the 100 or more planes roaring toward the capitol got past the defences.

In the night attack, it was stated, the Germans used about three hundred bombers against London and some countries while hundreds of others struck at the Midlands and Merseyside.

Many large fires were set in London.

No Matter Who Wins In War, Benito Will Be Certainly on Short End

Land of Fascism Already Wondering How It Is Going to Get Through Winter With Vital Food Supplies Already Cut Off

LONDON, November 30.—Even in Rome it is admitted that Italy this winter is facing a shortage of vital foods and in official quarters there is some speculation as to how the country is going to get through till next spring. Normal trade flow is cut off by blockade due to the British sea mastery in the Mediterranean which was clinched first by the raid on Taranto in which half of Italy's large warship strength was out of action and second by the battle off Sardinia this Wednesday in which Mussolini suffered further major naval losses.

Blocked at Suez and Gibraltar, Italy also faces the breaking of communications with the campaigns against the Greeks in Albania and against the British in North Africa.

When Italy joined the war last June as France's collapse became apparent, Mussolini, doubtless, reckoned on an early Axis victory but, to the contrary, British resistance is increasing rather than diminishing.

With Germany unable or unwilling to come to his aid and his own prestige gone, Mussolini now contemplates the picture of being a sure loser—no matter who wins the war.

Siam Enters Indo-China

The entombed men are trapped behind fallen rock to the thickness of two hundred feet and even, if they survived the explosion, would have little chance of being rescued alive, it is conceded.

One body had been taken out up to early today.

CRISIS IN RUMANIA

Internal Trouble Coming To Head —May Be German Protectorate

BUCHAREST, Nov. 30: (CP)—Iron Guard demonstrations against the Antonescu regime came to a head today with a memorial service at Bucharest Cathedral for Rumanian martyrs.

Meantime, Premier Antonescu was expected to set up a military dictatorship to restore order to the country which has been having a virtual "blood bath" and "reign of terror." If Antonescu fails to restore calm to the country, it is the opinion of many that Germany will take the opportunity to assume a complete protectorate.

Anarchy has extended from Bucharest into the provinces.

It had been reported that King Michael had fled the country to join his mother, Queen Helen, in exile. Today, however, it was announced he was still in Bucharest although he had not left the Royal Palace for three days.

Banks Hold Up Well - - -

The Bank of Montreal, the business of which is typical of Canadian banks generally, shows that, while the profits under war conditions have fallen off slightly, they still will be in a position to pay to shareholders the usual dividends and keep liquid assets on hand sufficient to meet all calls. As a result of war conditions, the liquid assets have dropped slightly and so has the amount deposited with the Bank of Canada. Deposits too are slightly down. The bank conditions seems to indicate that Canada is not yet feeling the war strain but is holding her own well.

Becoming Accustomed - - -

Letters and radio announcers tell us that people are becoming accustomed to conditions as they obtain in Great Britain today. In Prince Rupert we are becoming accustomed to reading the news of bombing and fighting and we no longer become excited about it. If it is only plain bombing with the Greeks advancing in Albania we say there is no news. In London pretty soon people will hardly be able to sleep without air raid warnings and occasional bomb explosions.

COMEDY IS DELIGHTFUL

"Three Cheers For Irish" is Feature at Capitol Theatre Tonight

"Three Cheers for the Irish," rollicking story of a retired New York policeman who is persuaded to run for alderman and learns that pounding a city beat is a much simpler task," is the feature picture for this afternoon and evening at the Capitol Theatre here.

Priscilla Lane, Dennis Morgan and Thomas Mitchell have the leading roles and are given support by Alan Hale, William Lundigan, Irene Hervey, Virginia Grey, Frank Jenks and Henry Armetta.

Peter Casey, played by Thomas Mitchell, is assisted in his election campaign by his three charming daughters. One becomes a little too ambitious and accepts campaign funds from the town's most notorious gambler. Then the youngest daughter falls in love with a young policeman. In spite of various complications, however, Alan Hale, as the campaign manager, with the help of Casey's hundreds of friends, manages to get the popular policeman elected to office.

Prevalent throughout the film is a pleasant family atmosphere and the picture is said to be one that will delight the hearts of all who go to see it, particularly those who have a warm spot for the Irish.

If you want something, advertise for it. Hundreds of people get what they want that way. (tf)

Interest Centres on International Fisheries Commission Session—Important Changes in Regulations Proposed —Still Awaiting Run of Herring

Attention of local fishing interests will centre next week on the visit of the International Fisheries Commission which is due to arrive on Tuesday to confer with representatives of boat owners and fishermen in regard to regulations governing the 1941 season. Commissioners expected here to consider the suggestions of vessel owners and fishermen are L. W. Patmore K. C. of Victoria, chairman, A. J. Whitmore of Ottawa, Edward W. Allen of Seattle and Charles E. Jackson of Washington D.C. Accompanied by members of the scientific staff of the Commission, the board, during a tour of the coast, is to hold similar sessions at Seattle, Vancouver, Ketchikan, Petersburg and Juneau. It has been officially announced that it is proposed to give the International Fisheries Commission additional control over landings from the north Pacific halibut industry. A proposed new treaty between Canada and the United States is intended to enable the commissioners to give force to the present voluntary control system. The effect would be to spread the catch over a longer season and to extend control to classes of vessels now uncontrolled.

The run of herring in Prince Rupert Harbor or hereabouts in sufficient numbers to permit of seining is being awaited and should soon be developing. The Port Edward and Tucks Inlet reduction plants are all ready to start processing the fish and the Prince Rupert cannery on the ocean dock will soon have finished preparations to can the fish.

W. E. Walker, manager of Arrandale cannery on the Naas River, arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon from Vancouver, being here on cannery business.

The local seinboat and packer Fredelia III., Capt. Arne Husoy, which has been engaged in packing salmon into New Westminster, returned to port from the south yesterday afternoon. Recently Lief Husoy, who was part owner of the Fredelia III. with his brother, collapsed while the vessel was unloading fish at New Westminster, dying soon thereafter in hospital.

Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. A. W. Nickerson, is due in port this afternoon or evening from Ketchikan with fish for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. After discharging, the North Sea will continue her voyage to Seattle.

Tonight's train, due from the East at 11 o'clock, was reported this morning to be one hour late which would bring it in at 12 midnight.
