Fall Of Tobruk Is Now Imminent

Special Registration Of Japanese In B.C. Being Taken By Federal Gov't

OTTAWA, January 9: (CP)—The Oriental situation in British Columbia is well in hand says a 1000-word statement which has been issued by Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King. The Premier announced that a special registration of the Japanese population of the Pacific Coast province is to be held and that a special committee will be appointed to re-examine the situation. Charges that Japanese had entered the country illegally would be investigated.

The special registration of all Japanese residents would be carried out in the near future "to protect the Japanese themselves and to eliminate any illegal entrants who may in fact be in Canada," the Prime Minister said. He added that, for the time being, Canadians of Oriental origin would not be called upon to perform compulsory military duty because "in the present state of public opinion unfortunate incidents might occur."

During the special registration, which had been decided upon after consultation with the Japanese community, every Japanese legally in the country would be given a certificate and "card which will be final proof of his legal residence in this country and will thus exempt him from future suspicion or annoyance."

The special registration will not apply to Chinese who have already been registered.

SWEEPER LAUNCHED

Another Unit of Navy Takes to Water Here Today—Mrs. S. D. Johnston Officiates

Phomptly at 11:30 this morning another mine sweeper for Canada's naval strength—H. M. C. S. Quatsino—was successfully launched here, the vessel slipping into the water from her ways without a hitch and being duly christened by Mrs. S. D. Johnston, wife of Col. S. D. Johnston M.C., V.D., officer commanding, Prince Rupert area. Later the Quatsino was moved to a berth where work of completion will be carried out.

Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix D.D., Bishop of Caledonia, blessed the ship. His prayer was for the King and the sailors and he also pronounced a benediction. Mrs. Johnston performed the ceremony of breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow.

After the ceremony a beautiful bouquet was presented to Mrs. Johnston by little Betty Dixon.

Later there was a reception in the drafting room of the dry dock general office. A toast to the ship was proposed by W. T. Moodie, general superintendent, Canadian National Railways, and responded to by Commander Geoffrey Borrie, who said that every bolt and every ship was a step nearer to the victory which now seemed certain. A toast to the sponsor was proposed by Mr. Moodie, responded to by Mrs. Johnston who neatly expressed confidence that the new fighting ship would be a credit to her builders and a useful unit in the war.

Serving of refreshments brough the formalities to a close.

MATTER OF IMPORTANCE

Whole Future of World Depends Upon Success of Anglo-American Co-Operation, Says Churchill

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Prime Minister Winston Churchill told the Pilgrims Club, in an address today, that it was the fervent hope that Viscount Halifax, the new ambassador to the United States, may prosper in as momentous a mission as the British Empire has known in a lifetime.

The whole future of the world and civilization based on Christian ethics depended upon future relations between United States and Great Britain, declared Mr. Churchill. The success of co-operation of the English-speaking nations would effect the welfare of generations to come.

The British Prime Minister hailed it as "a most fortunate occurrence" that such a statesman as President Franklin D. Roosevelt should be at the head of the United States government.

Only with the aid of United States could Great Britain win anything more than an uneasy truce with renewal of the struggle later. declared the Prime Minister.

Viscount Halifax was fully imbued with the necessity of fighting until all of Naziism was destroyed, the Premier said.

The Prime Minister and Viscount Halifax were speaking at a banquet in honor of the latter in the Bond Savoy Hotel.

Mr. Churchill and the new ambassador both sounded a warning that Hitler may strike soon in a life and death gamble for early victory.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

District Governor Gregory T. Yorke Launches Local Gyro Club on Another Year

Installation of 1941 officers of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club was conducted by Gregory T. Yorke of Vancouver, district governor, at a dinner meeting of the club last night which, besides members of the club itself, was attended by representatives of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club and of the Senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce. Another guest of honor was W H. Tobey, former district governor, who also took part in the proceedings In addition to the speeches and ceremonies of the evening, there was a program of music, community singing and story telling. The retiring president, G. A. Hunter, was in the chair during the early part of the evening, giving place, after the installation, to the new president, W. F Stone.

In conducting the installation, the district governor congratulated the club on its good work and valuable activities of the past and expressed confidence that the 1941 officers would carry on with like credit. He dwelt on the importance of the link with the international and district organization. Prince Rupert being in an isolated and distant position, presented difficulties at some times in regard to contact by international and district officials but it was hoped that this would be to some extent rectified by routing some of the delegates passing through enroute to convention at Victoria this June by way of Prince Rupert.

The New Officers

Governor Yorke installed the officers as follows:

President, W. F. Stone.

Secretary, W. J. Scott (in absentia).

Treasurer, William Cruickshank.

Executive— G. L. Rorie, H. S. Meadows, Frank Skinner and Arnold Flaten.

The retiring president, G. A. Hunter, reviewed the club activities of the past year including the playground work and improvements, co-operation with the civic centre project, providing of an incubator for the Prince Rupert General Hospital and war activities. Speaking of the coming year, he felt that club community activities might well harmonize with the war effort towards which there would necessarily be required greater collective and individual attention. The war, after all, was the first consideration. The retiring president thanked his executive and committees for their support during the past year and bespoke a similar measure of co-operation for his successor.

During the evening, the new president, W. F. Stone, referred appreciatively to the work of his predecessors and hoped that he might be rewarded during his year with a similar measure of success. He referred in general terms to some of his ideas for 1941 and announced

Whole Family In Air Force

Father, Mother and Son Have to Get Leave Meeting For Dinner Reunion

LONDON, Jan. 9 (CP)—When Air Commodore G. Bentley Dacre and his wife, Wing Officer Elizabeth Dacre of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, want leave they have to consult an aircraftsman, second class, their 18-year-old son. The youth, training to become a pilot, finds when it's possible for him to go on leave, informs his parents and they arrange their leave accordingly. This all-R.A.F. family is scattered but they manage to meet at intervals—whenever "junior" can wangle some leave.

Mining In British Columbia for the Year 1940

By W. J. ASSELSTINE

VICTORIA, January 9.—It has been customary to give an estimate of the volume and value of mine production at the end of each year and to make a forecast of mine production for the coming year. This year, at the request of the federal government, detailed estimates of volume and value production for the different branches of the mining industry are now being released. At the moment I can give the public only an estimate for gold production and an approximate value for the total mine production for the past year.

It is estimated that placer-gold production will amount to about 54,000 ounces, valued at $1,709,708, which will be more than a fifty-year record.

Lode-gold production is estimated at 600,000 ounces, valued at $23,100,000 (an all-time record).

Total gold production, estimated a little over $24,800,000, is the greatest in the history of the province. Much of this increase is due to the increased price of gold, in Canadian funds.

It is estimated that the total value of mine production for the past year will be very close to the record production of $74,475,902 achieved in 1937.

Dividends paid in 1940 amount to $12,600,000 as compared to $11,865,698 in 1939. These payments will be second only to the record year of 1937 when over $15,000,000 was paid out in dividends.

The entire mining industry has responded to our war effort and I take this opportunity to express on behalf of the government its appreciation of the industry's splendid co-operation.

CITY VALUE $9,367,820

Assessor Shows That About Half Land and Improvements Not Subject to Taxation

The report of the city assessor, Arthur Brooksbank, recently completed, shows that the total computed value of all lands and improvements in the city amounts to $9,367,820. Out of this there is land to the value of $1,325,040 held by the city, $206,710 by the Dominion government and $414,760 by the provincial government. Also there are improvements held by the Dominion amounting to $1,434,075, held by the city, $356,140 and held by the province $487,785.

The land subject to taxation is only $1,590,045 and the improvements are valued at $3,317,210. This means that only about half of the land and improvements in the city are subject to taxation.

Lived Pauper With $89,000

London Woman on Way to Poorhouse Discovered She Had Fortune

LONDON, Jan. 9 (CP)—Elizabeth Pernott lived in poverty for 26 years, earning her living as best she could, sometimes selling flowers in the street and sometimes working as an office cleaner. Her father, Nathan William Perrott, had been a wood turner and lived in a frugal way. He died at 90.

When his daughter became too old to work, representatives of her church helped her for a time but in 1938 it was suggested she go into the poor house.

The curate asked Miss Perrott if she had any relatives or papers. She said her father left an old tin box but it was locked and there was no key so it had never been opened. The box was broken open and deposit notes and government stocks worth $89,000 were found.

This "most romantic story," as Mr. Justice Morton called it, was told in the Chancery Division at the hearing of a court case involving members of the Perrott family.

Baden Powell - - -

Lord Robert Baden Powell will be remembered as a great man, not because he was a general or that he fought bravely in the defence of Mafeking. His greatness was shown in his starting a movement which has spread throughout the world, either directly or by imitation. Even Prince Rupert has its troop of Boy Scouts and on Sunday the troop will take part in a memorial service to its founder. Baden-Powell probably built great than he thought when he set the organization going.

Income Tax - - -

The schedule for income tax payments for individuals was published yesterday and is worthy of close study. The advertisement should be retained for your own information from time to time. Payments on this tax plan must commence on or before the end of this month.

Almost A Miracle - - -

Many a story is still being told of the evacuation of Dunkirk. One was told just after the boys got home by a lad who was on an oil ship. She was anchored just off the port but between her and the enemy and quite near was another tanker loaded with gasoline. They were being bombed. Shrapnel was falling in every direction and there was great danger that the gasoline or oil would ignite. Suddenly a bomb was seen to drop right on the gasoline tanker and disappear. Every moment they expected the ship to explode but nothing happened. It developed later that there was one empty compartment in the tanker. The bomb had gone right through that compartment and out at the bottom. Both ships got away safely.

Neither Hot Nor Cold - - -

Russia is a most uncertain quantity. Stalin's idea seems to be to make the war last as long as possible so that both the contending powers may be worn out and Russia may sit in at the peace table and take her slice without having to fight for it. In that she may be disappointed.

One of the ancient writers said something about the person or nation that tried to play both sides. "Because thou are neither hot no cold I will spew thee out of my mouth." In the meantime, we are glad to have Russia helping China against Japan even though Japan is one of the Axis powers and Russia has declared herself many times to be with the Axis.

Smithers Legion Hockeyists Beat Hazelton Natives

SMITHERS, Jan. 8.—The Hazelton Hockey team, composed of Hazelton Indians, came to Smithers on Sunday afternoon to cross sticks with the Canadian Legion team of the Town League. A fairly good crowd was in attendance to see the game which is the first that has been played between Smithers and Hazelton in many years. The local boys proved to be better players than the visitors and the score was 7 to 4 at the end of the play.

The Hazelton boys are keen players and hard workers and gave a very good exhibition of hockey but the Smithers boys have had more practice and more experience. During the game one of the Hazelton team "passed out" and had to be carried from the ice.

He emphasized the position of being a unit of the universal Christian body and the need of individual confession. He closed with a prayer for King, Empire and nation.

STORY OF MAFEKING

Exploit of Baden-Powell One of Greatest in Military History

Undaunted Spirit

For seven long months the tiny garrison of Mafeking Under Lord Baden-Powell, who is dead, suffered investment with undaunted spirit. The enemy cut the water supply, so the townsmen dug wells. Baden-Powell's fertility of invention, both in checkmating the enemy and in rallying the men and women of Mafeking, never failed. The Boers brought up heavy guns; the defender of Mafeking instituted an ingenious system of warning the townspeople when the big shells were coming. The only reply possible to the bombardment was a series of bayonet sorties. These were repeatedly carried out by "B. P's" Irregulars.

The high spirits with which Baden-Powell conducted his defence were infectious. In spite of the shelling and the privations a daily round of entertainment was organized. There would be a cricket match in the morning, sports in the afternoon, and a ball at night. For seven months the eyes of the world were fastened upon this beleagured little township of the Veldt. Finally in May, 1900, Colonel (later Field-Marshal Lord) Plumer, with Regulars and soldiers of the Rhodesian Force, including "C" Battery, Royal Canadian Artilley, raised the seige. Mafeking was a place of little or no stragetic importance, but the plucky resistance of its people kept 3,000 of the Boer forces from other operations during the most vital months of the war. Probably also the invasion of Rhodesia was also averted.

The style of hat affected by the Boy Scout the world over is a memento of the siege of Mafeking, for it was this kind of hat in which Baden-Powell figured when the name of Mafeking was on everybody's lips. The wild exurberance which burst out in London and other places when the news of the relief of the town came to hand was responsible for the addition to the dictionary of the verb "to Maffick." Baden-Powell's achievement made him a national hero. His military services were recognized by his promotion to the rank of Major-General.

For four years after the South Africt War he was Inspector-General of Cavalry in Great Britain. He retired from the army in 1910.

Founded Boy Scouts

The Boy Scout movement was founded by Baden-Powell in 1908 with the idea of inculcating the spirit of chivalrous service among the rising generation, the Girl Guides, was established two years later. Today there are nearly 1,000,000 Boy Scouts in the British Empire alone. The movement has been copied throughout the world. There are now well over 2,000,000 Scouts, spread over 45 countries, and over 1,000,000 Girl Guides.

Baden-Powell married in 1912, when 55 years of age to Miss Olave Soames. They had one son, Arthur Robert, and two daughters. His versatility extended to matters far removed from the military sphere. He exhibited sculpture at the Royal Academy, was something of a pianist, and compiled many readable books dealing with a variety of wholesome interests, including "Reconnaissence and Scouting," "Sport in War," and works on scouting for boys.

Created a Knight in 1909, Baden-Powell was elevated to the peerage as first Baron Baden-Powell of Gilwell in 1929. His honors included many decorations from foreign countries.

SMITHERS

Mr. Chamberlain of Vancouver, a member of the staff of the Dominion Government Telegraphs, arrived in Smithers on Saturday to relieve J. Smith of the local staff who is leaving immediately for his period of training in the military camp at Vernon.

Mr. Chamberlain has already made many friends in town and, being an experienced bandsman, he immediately identified himslf with th local band.

The Smithers Brass Band of twenty-two pieces, under Bandmaster J. S. Gray, played a concert at the Bulkley Valley District Hospital on Sunday afternoon which was greatly appreciated by the patients, the staff and visitors. During the concert Mr. Gray was given a presentation by the band. J. M. Collison, President of the Band Association, made the presentation and Mr. Gray made a pleasant speech in reply. J. W. Turner, president of the Hospital Board, also spoke on behalf of the management and for the Sisters of St. Ann, expressing the thanks and appreciation of all concerned for the concerts given occasionally by the Band. Father Cocola has been an enthusiastic member of those present at every concrt which has been played there

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Pepless Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet—you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and pepless.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams Pink Pills today.

An unfortunate accident befel Henry Grenier Friday last. While at work in the woods a splinter injured his eye so badly that he was conveyed to the hospital at Hazelton on a stretcher on Friday's train. One eye had been injured and rendered sightless years ago and this injury is the more serious on that account.

Mrs. Robert de Kergommeaux's three year old baby met with an accident which may be a broken leg. The child is now being treated in the hospital at Hazelton.

At the municipal election in December no nominations were received at the Municipal Office. The matter has now been rectified by the appointment to the vacant office of Commissioner of Emil Haughland. Mr. Haughland comes to the office with some experience as he formerly served in that capacity for a period of four years.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dibb, after a visit here with Mr. Dibb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dibb, are sailing by the Prince Rupert tonight on their return to Victoria.

Man in the Moon

Now that Christmas decorations are being taken down it is about time to consider whether some of our other impedimenta might not be removed. What about sloughing off some of our useless habits?

Jake says he has no useless habits except smoking, eating at night and a few others. If everybody stopped smoking, Bea would have to go out of business and, if nobody ate at night, some of the doctors would have to retire or join the army.

The Kiwanis are a useful body of men and, like the Rotarians, one of them occasionally gets an idea. One of them says: "Most men are not as afraid of lions as they are afraid of new ideas."

When I was a very little boy they used to give me a pinch of salt and tell me if I could put that on a bird's tail it would never get away.

It may seem childish but, if you put a pinch of salt on the tail of a new idea, you are an outstanding man and run the risk of becoming great.

Willie had been naughty and was being sent to bed by his mother without any supper. He was naturally aggrieved at the feminine sex and tumbled between the sheets without a word.

"Willie," she said, "say your prayers."

"I won't."

"Don't you want to go to heaven?"

'Naw. I'm going with papa."

Small Son (proudly): "Father, I took ma watch tae pieces an' put it together agen, an look! I've made a profit of three wheels as a result of ma labors."

Alex Holmberg suffered a severe and painful accident at the local dry dock Tuesday afternoon when a timber fell on him. He sustained a compound fracture of the shoulder and possible spinal injuries. Mr. Holmberg is a well known pioneer of the city and many friends will regret to hear of his misfortune. He is at the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

TWO DRAMA FILMS HERE

"Slightly Dishonorable" and "The Biscuit Eater" at Capitol Theatre

"Slightly Honorable," a headline scandal story with cast headed by Pat O'Brien, and "The Biscuit Eater," a drama of life in Georgia, comprise the double bill program showing tonight and tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre here.

The story of "Slightly Honorable" revolves around a paving scandal which has caused hundreds of automobile accidents and deaths because new highways were built with fake, synthetic materials on contracts awarded to a notorious clique of bigwigs. One of the state's prominent attorneys undertakes to clean up this racket and enlists the aid of an incorruptible state senator. How this crusade involves a group of beautiful women and causes a series of strange crimes carries the story to a smash climax with surprise finish. The cast, besides O'Brien, includes Ruth Terry, a new discovery, Edward Arnold, Claire Dodd, Broderick Crawford, Alan Dinehart, Douglas Dumbrille, Janet Beecher and Eve Arden.

"The Biscuit Eater" is the screen adaption of a Saturday Evening Post story of a boy and his dog. There is local color, warm human drama and real thrills which make of the picture excellent entertainment. The cast is headed by the popular juvenile star, Billy Lee.
