SECTIONAL VIEW SHOWING THE POSITIONS OF THE DUNGEONS AND PARTS OF THE WHITE TOWER

Public may penetrate new parts of the Tower. Further portions of the Tower of London are to be opened to the general public. The portion which is shortly to be thrown open is chiefly the basement section of the Tower, which consists of three large rooms separated by enormously thick walls. This basement portion contains the cell of Guy Fawkes and also the little space in which Sir Thomas Moore was confined. Both these will now form entrances to the Little Ease, the famous dungeon in which Jewish money lenders and others were confined at times in the middle ages. The two large apartments, which at present contain guns, were possibly occasionally used for torture rooms, but were not regularly used for this purpose. The upper portion of the Tower has been elevated in the above drawing in order to show the disposition of the lower rooms. The positions of the cell of Sir Walter Raleigh, the chapel crypt, the chapel of St. John, and the various armories are also indicated. The present public entrance is shown on the extreme left.

Hydro-Electric Meeting

The Hydro-Electric meeting tonight in the Empress Theatre will have special features that should attract a large crowd. Besides the regular moving pictures, slides will be shown of beauty spots around Rupert, including waterfalls and glaciers.

S. M. Newton stated Friday night that the Port Edward Townsite Company was advertising for people to vote for the hydro-electric agreement, in order to enhance the value of its property. Many people admire a clever liar, but the kind Sam Newton tells are too transparent to receive anything but contempt. The ad. referred to was put in by Mr. Newton's supporters and paid for by them.

Thank their many out-of-town Customers for their splendid patronage during the past year

Looking backward from the threshold of 1914 we cannot but congratulate ourselves on the splendid increase of our out-of-town business during 1913. Therefore, on account of the staunch support and this display of confidence in our service, we must thank our many out-of-town friends for their patronage during the past year. We do not claim that our service is perfect beyond mistakes, for where so many hands are employed small errors in despatching orders are bound to occur. These, however, when brought to our notice, are rectified with the utmost haste and care, while we are particular that our customer shall suffer no loss. We trust that each of our customers will interpret this message as directed to them personally.

To all we send sincere wishes for a happy New Year.
