MACMILLAN RETURNING TO RUPERT

Former Local Man Appointed Dry Dock Manager—W. H. Fogg Steamship Superintendent

Two important appointments, effective immediately, were announced by W. T. Moodie, general superintendent, Canadian National Railways and Steamships, who was in Prince Rupert at the week-end. G. A. MacMillan, superintendent, Canadian National Steamships (Pacific) Vancouver, since 1938, is promoted to the position of manager, Prince Rupert dry dock and shipyard. Succeeding him, as steamship superintendent, is W. H. Fogg, formerely assistant superintendent.

Both officials bring considerable experience to their respective positions. Mr. MacMillan studied applied science with the Vancouver Branch of McGill University after which he joined Wallace Shipyards, later joining the Royal Air Force. Upon discharge in 1918 he worked with the Polson Iron Works at Toronto building ships for the British government.

In June 1919 Mr. MacMillan returned west to Prince Rupert as loftsman when the "Canadian Scottish" and "Canadian Britisher" were being constructed here. Made shipyard manager in 1925 he had extensive experience here both with Canadian National vessels and other ships. He designed and built most of the company's Okanagan Lake fleet of tugs and barges.

In April, 1938, Mr. MacMillan was transferred to Vancouver as superintendent, Canadian National Steamships, and has occupied that position until his present new appointment which is a very important post now that the Prince Rupert shipbuilding program has assumed such vast proportions in the construction of minesweepers and steel cargo ships.

W. H. Fogg, newly appointed superintendent, Canadian National Steamships (Pacific), has spent all of his working years in the transportation business. At fifteen he started railroading with the Great Western Railroad at Cork, Ireland, as an office boy.

Arriving at Montreal in August 1903 Mr. Fogg started work immediately with the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway as stenographer in the office of the president. From 1907 to 1909 he served with the Canadian Pacific Railway as chief clerk in superintendent's offices at Vancouver and Revelstoke. On April 4, 1910, he was appointed secretary to Capt. C. H. Nicholson then manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Coast Steamships Company, now Canadian National Steamships (Pacific), at Vancouver.

Employed with the line since its inception on the Pacific coast, in 1910, Mr. Fogg is very well known in marine circles and has served as freight solicitor, chief clerk, assistant to superintendent and assistant superintendent, occupying the latter position since 1938. In 1933 he spent six months in Victoria as dock agent in charge of Ogden Point dock.

REMOVING OF CARGO

Kvichak, Now Safe on Pontoons at Dry Dock, Being Lightered

Lightering of four hundred tons of cargo left in the holds of the United States Army transport Kvichak, which was safely delivered on to the pontoons of the local dry dock Saturday afternoon by the Armour Salvage Co., is now being carried out. In order that the cargo may be removed, a depth of six feet of water has been left on the floor of the pontoons to enable scows of the Armour Salvage Co. to go alongside and receive the goods which is being taken off by two derricks. The operation of cargo removal is necessarily slow and will take a couple of weeks.

It has been necessary to get the cargo out of the Kvichak before the pontoons can be completely pumped out and the hull of the badly damaged vessel made accessible to complete inspection which will precede an extensive repair job.

Cargo includes a number of fabricated houses which were destined for western Alaska and general freight including canned goods. Empty steel drums in the holds of the Kvichak were found to have been collapsed on account of pressure of water on the sunken vessel when she sank in deep water at Sisters Island after stranding.

Commander A. H. Reed, who is to succeed Commander Geoffrey Borrie as naval officer in charge here, arrived in the city on the Catala this morning to assume his new duties at Prince Rupert.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts and family returned at the week-end from holidaying at Tlell.

Time Important Factor in Connection With Construction of Workers' Dwellings

T. Parmenter of Toronto and J. Y. McCarter of Vancouver sailed by the Prince George Saturday evening on their return south. Right up to the time of their departure they were busy at the city engineer's office in connection with the lining up of the sites.

Stating that time was the essence of the contract in connection with the construction of the houses, Mr. Parmenter announced that they would be mostly of four or five rooms each with two bedrooms. Two staff buildings will be quite imposing structures.

Mr. Parmenter repeated the previous statement that tenders would be called within ten days.

Germany's Capacity To Launch Campaign In Fall Problematical

Soviet Says German Drives on Three Great Cities Have Been Stalled—Berlin Claims Reds Are In Retreat Everywhere

The battle of Russia, greatest military campaign in history, roared into its fifth and perhaps decisive week Sunday with the Soviet capital of Moscow facing an acute Nazi threat. Actual progress of the gigantic struggle—itself divided into three smaller battles and countless lesser engagements—was confused by the Nazi and Soviet propaganda machines but there was evidence that the next seven days may determine the fate of Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev and with them, of European Russia west of the Ural Mountains. This same week also may determine German's capacity to launch another major campaign—either against Britain of in the Middle East—before winter weather sets in.

At Moscow the Red Army command said that German drives on Leningrad, Moscow and Kiev had been stalled in violent battles. Earlier claims said a powerful Russian counter-assault has recaptured an important city with the result of a complete route of Nazi forces. A Soviet communique covering the bitter fighting of Sunday when the battle of Russia entered its fifth week said that the Germans had been unable to make "important headway" in their smashing attempts to break through and take Russia's three largest cities. The war communique describing the "violent fighting" which raged Sunday in fierce weather on the key fronts told of a grim struggle on the Baltic front, the Poltosk-Nevel sector around Smolensk and in the Novograd-Valynsk regions west of Kiev. Despite the unfavorable weather the Red air fleet continued its blasting attacks on German panzer divisions, planes and German airdromes behind the fighting front, destroying 25 German planes.

In Berlin Russia's armies were said officially last night to be in retreat "along the entire front" from Leningrad to the Black Sea after Soviet efforts to throw up new defense lines west of Moscow, now a seriously attacked position by German charging Panzer columns, failed. A Nazi military spokesman said that the Russian central army retreating from Smolensk towards the capital along the main invasion route followed by Napoleon 129 years ago was being smashed in a series of battles without a chance of reorganizing any resistance, so swift was the German drive.

Need Of Assembly Hall - - -

Now that the only large hall in the city has been taken over by the Young Men's Christian Association and presumably will not be available for public gatherings the need of the civic centre becomes more apparent. We still have the Oddfellows' Hall and the Metropole Hall but neither of these can accommodate a large crowd.

It has been suggested that if three to four thousand dollars be raised at the forthcoming carnival, making a total of $12,000 or so available, it might be possible to go ahead with the new building in the fall. It is a worthy object and one that deserves the support of all citizens.

Meeting the charge that it is not war work, it may be said that the presence of large numbers of armed forces in the city makes the need of such an institution all the greater. While the shipyards are operating, the forts manned, the barracks occupied and the naval forces in the neighborhood, an athletic and social centre such as that proposed is badly needed.

Air Raid Funds - - -

The Daily News is one of the large group of Canadian Daily Newspapers that agreed to give publicity to the air raid victims fund without cost of any kind and to forward any monies received without any deductions, not even the cost of exchange.

The need for this relief is just as great today as at any time and, if the Germans should attempt an invasion, it will be greater than ever before. Any money contributed will be forwarded within one week of receipt and will be acknowledged through this paper. Those who feel they would prefer to send direct to Montreal may do so but the money will not be acknowledged publicly.

We have noticed that much of the money subscribed has come from former Londoners or people who have friends or relatives in London. We do not think they should be the only ones to contribute. Londoners were among the first to bear the brunt of the enemy's air attacks and are deserving of full support from us all. The fund is not a London fund but is used for giving relief anywhere in Great Britain.

The last check sent through by us was from the Canadian Legion. Possibly Prince Rupert people would like to make further donations now. If twenty people gave five dollars each we could forward a check at the end of the week for another hundred dollars. There are no canvassers for this fund. All gifts are purely voluntary.

Gasoline Savings - - -

Owners of cars are asked to co-operate with the government of Canada in saving gasoline. To a considerable extent joy-riding will be abolished and the hours of selling gasoline are to be strictly adhered to. No Sunday selling is to be allowed.

The whole idea of the restriction is to conserve gasoline for war purposes. Possibly later it might be necessary to impose more stringent regulations but in the meantime it seemed to be the desire to reduce very materially the amount of gasoline used and to make the people war conscious.

Should the war spread to the Pacific, which it may do at any time, we may become war conscious more quickly than we realize.

PR. RUPERT IS WINNER

Service Team Defeated Smithers 10 to 1 in Baseball Saturday

Saturday evening the All-Star Army and Navy baseball team whipped the visiting Smithers boys 10 to 1 in a surprising upset. It was agreed by all that this services team was one of the best that has played ball at the Acropolis Hill this season.

Randall, of the Signals, pitched a wonderful game for the Services team striking out eight men, walking one and allowing only three hits.

McIntyre pitched well for the Smithers All-Stars, striking out seven men, walking six and allowing eight hits.

Dido Gurvich called the balls and strikes and Brick Skinner adjudicated on the bases. Jim Wilson of the Y.M.C.A. kept score.

Sunday's game was rained out in the third inning with Prince Rupert civilians leading 1 to 0. This game really looked like a first class baseball game. Although the rain was coming down in sheets both teams had double plays to their credit and were playing a very nice brand of baseball.

Lieut. Etson acted as umpire. Joe Ratchford watched the bases and Jim Wilson kept the score sheet.

Following was the Box Score for Saturday:

Westview Wins Soccer Game

Now Tied With McClymont Park For Football League Leadership

Defeating Seal Cove 3 to 1 Saturday morning at Acropolis Park, Westview went into a tie with McClymont Park for the Gyro Playground Football League leadership.

Two quick goals in the first half by Hingston and Hartwig put the Westview team ahead but Seal Cove came to life in the second half and was rewarded when Dave Murray scored a well earned counter. Pressing continuously to tie the score, Seal Cove did everything but that, being very unfortunate when the ball went into the net only to be called back because of an offside on the play. With five minutes to go Westview raced down the field and scored the cincher, Tommy Pilfold drilling a beautiful long shot.

Robert Baltlett and Dave Murray played a good game for Seal Cove as did Frank Hingston and Gus Kadanaga for Westview.

Westview and Seal Cove will play softball at Acropolis Tuesday.

Whifflets
From The Waterfront

A crowd of about 150 persons thoroughly enjoyed Saturday afternoon's cruise aboard the Union steamer Camosun, Capt. James Watt. There was a lucky break in the weather and it was a warm, summery afternoon, a fresh westerly breeze rippling the shining waves. The cruise was around Chatham Sound as far as Lawyer Island and Malacca Passage and within sight of Humpback Bay, Porcher Island. The Prince Rupert Boys' Band under direction of Robert Greenfield, was in attendance and provided acceptable music.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Shennard, arrived in port at 4 o'clock this morning from the south, sailing at 8 a.m. for Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow afternoon southbound.

Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, arrived in the city on Saturday afternoon's train from Smithers. He expects to return to the interior on Wednesday afternoon's train.

KEEP 'EM FLYING

Save Gasoline

Planes on the offensive—planes to bomb Berlin—all must be kept amply fuelled at all times—day and night!

Ahead looms the threat of a national gas and oil shortage. The tankers that once brought these precious fuels to Canada are now being requisitioned to ferry them to Britain. Because of this diversion of tankers, our gasoline and oil supply has been drastically reduced. The needs of our Commonwealth Air Training Plan and the ever increasing demands of our mechanized army and driving munitions plants are enormous.

This dire shortage threatening our war effort must be made up!

Car owners can do it! Pledge yourself to go 50/50 with our Fighting Forces. Walk at every opportunity. If you drive to work, share your car with your car-owning neighbour—let him drive you the following day. Using one car a day instead of three or four will mean a substantial reduction in fuel consumption . . . Multiply this by over a million Canadian cars and the daily saving is tremendous.

Do YOUR part.

It is also vitally important that you reduce the use of domestic and commercial fuel oil.

REMEMBER—The slower you drive the more you save!

17 easy ways towards a 50% GASOLINE SAVING
(Approved by Automobile Experts)
Reduce driving speed from 60 to 40 on the open road.
Avoid jack-rabbit starts.
Avoid useless or non-essential driving.
Turn motor off when not in use, do not leave idling.
Don't race your engine; let it warm up slowly.
Don't strain your engine; change gears.
Keep carburetor cleaned and properly adjusted.
Tune up motor, timing, etc.
Keep spark plugs and valves clean.
Check cooling system; overheating wastes gasoline.
Maintain tires at right pressure.
Lubricate efficiently; worn engines waste gasoline.
Drive in groups to and from work, using cars alternate days.
For golf, picnics and other outings, use one car instead of four.
Take those short shopping trips ON FOOT and carry parcels home.
Walk to and from the movies.
Boat owners, too, can help by reducing speed.
Your regular service station man will gladly explain these and other ways of saving gasoline. Consult him.

CRITICAL OF NEW TIME

Editor, Daily News:

What's all this nonsense about putting the clock on an hour just because some fellow named MacMillan says we must? I am amazed at the sheeplike obedience of British Columbians. I thought the people of this province had developed a character as rugged as the country in which they live. As it is, the new time is principally a nuisance, makes no difference to our daily routine except that we have to remember the railway has kept to the proper time and most of the affairs in these small towns along the railway are dominated by the railway in any case. I think the whole thing is silly.

PICTURE THRILLER

Humphrey Bogart and Ida Lupino In "High Sierra" at Capitol Theatre

"High Sierra," which is the first half of the week feature at the Capitol Theatre, brings thrills, suspense and dramatic action. Humphrey Bogart as "the last of the Dillinger mob" and Ida Lupino is his sweetheart. Supported by a cast which includes Alan Curtis, Arthur Kennedy, Henry Hull, Henry Travers, Joan Leslie, Bogart and Miss Lupino are said to triumph in the two top roles. Bogart plays Roy Earl, a strange sort of criminal to whom crime is an unpleasant, but nevertheless necessary, business. Miss Lupino is seen as the girl who loves him so much that she eventually proves his downfall. Another member of the cast whose love helps to lead to his eventual undoing is a small, loyal and lovable wire-haired terrier, named "Pard."

Making her first film appearance in "High Sierra" is Joan Leslie, a lovely sixteen-year-old who figures prominently in a brief but important episode that helps to set up the human side of the character Bogart plays.

BATHING BEAUTY CONTEST

Entry List Now Open for Interesting Civic Centre Carnival Event

Dazzling blondes, brunettes and others are wanted to display charms in contest for cash prizes at the Civic Centre Carnival to be held August 18 to 22 in aid of the Civic Centre building fund.

The program committee, under Cliff Gilker, is accepting entries for the Bathing Beauty Contest and entry forms may be obtained from any ladies' wear store or beauty parlor in town. It is hoped that these ladies' wear stores and beauty parlors will sponsor entries to compete against the numerous independent entries.

As an inducement to enter early, the carnival committee will present each of the first twelve accepted entrants with the latest style bathing suit or its equivalent in sports wear.

Four large cash prizes will be given to the winners who will be chosen according to standard rules by a group of competent judges. The contest will be held on one night only and contestants will not be asked to sell tickets or do anything other than take part in the one night's contest.

All entrants should be over sixteen years of age and the committee reserves the right to accept any entry at its discretion.

Former Pastor In Old Church

Rev. C. D. Clarke Speaks of Christ's Teaching of Sacred Human Personality

There was an exceptionally large congregation at First United Church, Prince Rupert, yesterday morning to hear Rev. C. D. Clarke, formerly pastor of the local church and now a resident of Victoria.

Mr. Clarke spoke on "Our Faith in Men." He referred to the beliefs of Hinduism and Confucionism but it was the Christian religion that following in Christ's teaching emphasized the sacredness of human personality. Jesus taught that every one was capable of being a son of God. The creation was not finished in six days. The creation was still in progress and man's destiny in the plan of God's creation was not yet fulfilled. Mr. Clarke spoke very strongly against the belief that "human nature cannot be changed." This was not only a fatalistic statement, not only un-Christian but anti-Christian. Man could be changed and was being changed. Evils would be swept away as the evil of slavery was. Prostitution would be a thing of the past and with man's progress wars would also disappear.

Through all history and this was attested by science, the golden thread of man's ability to change his nature had been continuous. Christ was not merely a dreamer and idealist He was the greatest realist the world had known and, as man more fully realized the possibilities of attaining that high standard set by Christ, so would he the more nearly approach the fulfillment of his destiny.

Mrs. T. T. Lock gave an impressive rendering of the solo "O Rest in the Lord."

There were 210 passengers aboard the steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. William Palmer, which was in port from 4:30 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver. Three passengers disembarked from the vessel at this port.
