SEVENTH INVADES GERMANY

PARIS, Dec. 15 (CP)—The American Seventh Army invaded Germany today, driving across the northeast tip of Alsace into the Bavarian Palatinate less than seven miles from Karlsruhe and 35 miles from Mannheim and Ludwigshaven, all great industrial cities of the Rhineland.

PARIS, Dec. 15 (CP)—The southern wing of the American First Army, seeking conquest of the Cologne Plain, advanced another mile yesterday and overran a fourth hamlet near the upper Roer.

The American Ninth Army, to the north, captured Vichofen, two miles south of Julich.

The American Third Army battered through 500 more yards of pillboxes in Endorf, strengthening the wedge in the Siegfried Line at embattled Saarlauten.

A lull continued in the north where the Canadian First and British Second Armies are poised.

The American Seventh Army plunged through another section of the Maginot Line northwest of Bitche to Kappelenhof.

The French First Army progresses slowly against tough resistance north of Colmar in the Vosges foothills.

P. E. George was elected, the vote being 4337 to 3381. In Prince George Mayor A. M. Patterson, after 18 years in office, lost out to Jack Nicholson 298 to 291.

Civic Election—

BRETT, McKAY, HILLS, SINCLAIR ELECTED TO CITY COUNCIL AS CITIZENS POLL NEAR RECORD VOTE

Bus Purchase By-law Turned Down By Substantial Margin By Ratepayers

Prince Rupert's 1125 voters who went to the polls yesterday elected W. H. Brett, Robert McKay, G. E. Hills and Alexander Sinclair to serve on the City Council for two-year terms and the ratepayers turned "thumbs down" on the Bus Purchase By-law laid before them by the 1944 city council. Also elected were Dr. R. G. Large, Mrs. Emily Rothwell and Angus McDonald to serve as school trustees.

The vote was the second largest in the history of the city, being only 43 ballots short of the record of 1168 votes set in civic elections in 1929.

So even was the voting in favor of seven of the nine candidates for Aldermen it was not until the final ballot was counted that results were clear. A difference of only one vote between Alderman Alex Sinclair, who was returned to office, and Clifford G. Ham makes a recount of their votes more than likely. Seven of the candidates received more than 500 votes.

In the school board voting, Dr. R. G. Large took the lead early in the ballot count and finished 132 votes ahead of the second candidate, Mrs. Emily Rothwell. Angus McDonald was only five votes behind Mrs. Rothwell.

The standings:

Aldermen Elected
W. H. Brett	591
Robert McKay	547
G. E. Hills	532
A. Sinclair	528
Other Candidates
C. G. Ham	527

Emily Rothwell	517
Angus McDonald	512
Other Candidates
A. D. Ritchie	504
John Mulroney	443
G. D. Wood	378

Ratepayers who voted on the bus purchase by-law turned it down by a 180-vote majority with 781 votes cast. Indicating disfavor with the prospect of civic ownership of the bus system were 462 voters while 282 supported the by-law.

Out of the 1910 ballots cast yesterday 75 were rejected.

WOULD REMOVE COMMISSION

QUEBEC CITY — A Quebec City attorney has filed a writ of Quo Warranto in the Supreme Court, asking that J. E. LaForce of Montreal be removed from office as a one-man commission. The attorney, Fernand Choquette, said that legally the commission must be made up of three members, as it was until last October when Premier Duplessis appointed Mr. LaForce to take sole control. The previous board was asked to resign by the then newly-elected premier.

LONDON, Dec. 15 (CP) — Poor bombing weather gave the Germans another day yesterday to patch up their battered railway network in the west. The Allied air forces were held to large extent idle.

WAR NEWS

The East Front

MOSCOW—Soviet columns continue to roll ahead in the mountains of Hungary. Now Red forces are within two miles of the iron and coal centre of Szendro, ninety-five miles northeast of the capital city of Budapest. As for the Hungarian capital itself, Russian forces are inching forward towards the city, and Soviet artillery is battering the enemy fortress system in and around the city.

Tokyo Is Bombed Again

PEARL HARBOR—The Japanese capital has been slapped in the face again. The Japanese radio admits that again B-29 fortresses have attacked the city, but adds that only four of the huge planes were spotted overhead. The attack is said to have been carried out at 3:30 this morning, Japanese time. A single B-29 is said to have dropped bombs about two-and-one-half hours later. Other superfortresses have been reported over Osaka and Kobe on the east coast of Honshu Isah, that is the main island of the Japanese homeland.

LABOR STRIVING FOR HIGH PLACE IN POST-WAR ERA IN DOMINION

Compulsory Collective Bargaining Big Gain of 1944 in Trend Toward Recognition; Strikes Drop 82 Per Cent

By JACK WILLIAMS
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, Dec. 15 (CP) — Organized labor in Canada, its membership soaring to new heights, this year turned to the post-war period and, through efforts to solidify the position of its unions and the formulation of post-war programs, moved to consolidate its wartime gain

Throughout the movement there became apparent a determination to gain for labor a more important place in the Canadian structure than it held before the war.

In this effort the unions kept prominently before them an invitation from Reconstruction Minister Howe, extended at the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress, for labor to share with government and management the responsibility of meeting post-war problems.

Some of labor's wartime gains received formal recognition during the year. The federal labor code, which introduces compulsory collective bargaining, became effective early in the year. While this is a purely wartime measure, action by a majority of the provinces in making it applicable to all occupations under their jurisdiction has been taken by labor as an indication the principles of the code will out-

CASUALTIES IN GREECE TOTAL 460

LONDON, Dec. 15 (CP) — Addressing the House of Commons yesterday, Prime Minister Churchill announced that British forces have suffered about 460 casualties since the landing in Greece.

Rejected Ballot Supported All Nine Candidates

The apparent overzealousness of one voter at Thursday's elections caused a ripple of mirth among scrutineers and candidates' representatives assembled in the polling station when the ballots were being counted last night. The voter had placed an "X" after the name of each of the nine candidates on the aldermanic ballot slip, causing it to be rejected.

"However, it was not quite as foolish as it seemed," Return-Officer H. D. Thain commented later. "If the voter had brought it to me declaring it spoiled I would have given him a new ballot."

Mr. Thain said that in cases where a voter spoils a ballot it is customary to put a mark after all the names so his voting intentions will not be revealed, then take it to the returning officer and get a new one.

"It could be that he loved them all and couldn't bear to vote against any of them," Mr. Thain commented. "But in doing so he didn't vote for any of them."

SON WITNESSED MOTHER'S DEATH

VANCOUVER, Dec. 15 (CP)—An inquest into the death Wednesday night of a man and a woman at Yale, described by police as murder and suicide, was adjourned until Saturday after it was learned that the woman's 13-year-old son had witnessed the shooting.

The bodies of Mrs. Margaret Leighton and Clarence Kokulniak, both middle aged, were found in the woman's home, and police believe the man shot the woman to death, then ended his own life by suicide.

The woman's son, Francis Leighton, witnessed the shooting, police said. Her husband also lives at Yale.

Police declined to comment on the motive.

Government In Exile Repudiated By Churchill

British Prime Minister Calls For Early Conference With United States and Russia—Sees Hardest Phase of European War Coming Up

LONDON, Dec. 15 (CP)—During a debate on the Polish situation in the British House of Commons this morning, Prime Minister Churchill appealed directly to President Roosevelt and Premier Stalin to come to Britain for a meeting at the earliest possible moment.

Earlier in his address, the Prime Minister virtually tossed overboard the London Polish government and demanded bluntly that Poland accept Russia's western border demands in return for territorial compensation at Germany's expense. His words apparently were a stern rejection of the present cabinet of the Polish government in London.

Mr. Churchill, who sided with Russia in the Polish dispute, and criticized American failure to be precise, referred to conditions if the great powers disagree. He mentioned "how much failure on the part of the three greatest powers to work together would damage all our hopes for the future structure of world government." A quarrel among these powers would fatally rupture world organization.

As for the battle with Germany, Mr. Churchill warned quite bluntly that "the largest and fiercest battles fought in this war" will occupy the spring and summer and he reported six to seven million Germans had already been killed.

In Greece—

Greek Rebel Drive Halts

However, British Authorities Have Said That Most Serious Phase Is Over

ATHENS, Dec. 15 (CP)—Civil war in Greece continues today, and Premier George Papandreaou has issued a call for more volunteers for the regular Greek army.

The drive of leftist rebels in Greece appeared yesterday to have halted. British leaders said that the most dangerous phase of the twelve-day turmoil has apparently passed. Heavy firing which shook Athens earlier this week had given way to sporadic machine gun bursts. However, civilians are still banned from the streets.

Leftist rebels hammered British defensive positions with artillery and rifle fire today.

Unofficial reports persisted that word was awaited from King George of Greece on a proposal that the Archbishop of Athens become temporary regent. The Archbishop is believed ready to attempt the formation of a government acceptable to all parties pending a plebiscite to decide whether Greece is to remain a monarchy or become a republic. In Athens there was no indication that the King would agree to the plan. The King is in London.

As the situation now stands, the British and Greek regulars hold approximately five square miles in the centre of the Greek capital and about twenty-five per cent of Athens' port facilities.

Rumor has it, meantime, that a new government may be formed by General Nicholas Plastiras, who led the Greek Revolution in 1922. The General conferred for two hours yesterday with the Premier.

MUCH SHIPPING IS SALVAGED

LONDON, Dec. 15 (CP)—Officials disclosed yesterday that 2,500,000 tons of merchant shipping, all vessels sunk by Germans, are operating again after British salvors lifted them from the bottom of the sea.

DIFFERENCE OVER GREECE

Labor-Progressive and Social Credit Views On Matter in Direct Variance

MONTREAL, Dec. 15 (CP)—The Labor-Progressive member of Parliament for Montreal-Cartier, Fred Rose, believes the Canadian government's duty is to tell the British government that Canadians will not tolerate British actions in Greece or condone Canadian participation in them. Addressing a Labor Progressive meeting in Montreal, Mr. Rose said that a free election should be held without delay in Greece in order to avoid bitterness in the future. Mr. Rose declared that the Greeks now are subjected to Imperialism and that the imposition of British will on Greece is not "in the spirit of what we are fighting for."

The stand taken by Mr. Rose is very different to that of Solon E. Low, president of the Social Credit Association of Canada. Mr. Low said yesterday he supports Prime Minister Churchill's policy of intervening in Greece against forces endeavoring to unseat the government of Premier George Papandreaus.

A Peace River district airman previously reported missing, is now for official purposes presumed dead, according to a late R.C.A.F. casualty list. He is Pilot Officer Francis Robert Symons, whose father, R. D. Symons, lives at Fort St. John.

THINKS CITY MAY REMAIN MILITARY PORT

Address of Outstanding Interest at Rotary Club War Experiences

Moderate optimism for the future of Prince Rupert as a military port of embarkation was expressed by Col. J. H. Mellom, Allied Port Commander, who was guest speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon meeting Thursday.

"I do not know what plans have been made for this port but it seems unlikely to me that its facilities will be crippled by removal of the staff during the war. As a transportation officer I had an interest in the inception of Prince Rupert as a military port. It was chosen because it was the coast terminus of a railway line. Railway transport through the mountains is a major bottleneck on this continent."

Col. Mellom assumed command here a month ago. He was formerly port commander at San Francisco which he described as the main military port of embarkation on the Pacific coast.

The veteran soldier, who during his 43 years in the army has risen from a cavalry trooper to Colonel in the Water Division of the Transportation Corps, said that there was a possibility that Atlantic ports may be used to supply the Pacific arena at the close of hostilities with Germany but he thought it unlikely that facilities here would be abandoned.

The frantic movement of ships required to rehabilitate devastated defences at Pearl Harbor after the start of the war with Japan was outlined by the speaker.

"We loaded ships with mixed cargoes of munitions, gasoline, and troops at city docks and

The Civic Election . . .

The civic election is over. We have chosen by the majority of our preferences those whom we desire to conduct the business of the municipality. Now it is up to us to forget any differences of choice and, confident that the persons we have appointed will measure up to the responsibilities entailed, give them our co-operation and support. They will certainly need that co-operation and support in carrying on the duties which have been entrusted to them.

The results of the aldermanic polling were close enough to indicate clearly that no particular faction has any stranglehold on the preferment of the voters of the city. It may be assumed that the electors will be looking for results in the carrying of city affairs and will not have patience with the promotion of political and economic ideas merely as such. The voting in some cases at least was personal rather than for tickets.

The emphatic rejection of the bus purchase bylaw indicates that the voters are not inclined to toy with the idea of public ownership or putting out the civic financial resources either in cash or credit on responsibilities of secondary importance in comparison with such essential services as streets, sewers, etc. The new city administration would do well to accept the very definite suggestion of the ratepayers that they are disposed to a policy of first things first. The ratepayers certainly made it plain enough that they considered no good and sufficient reasons had been advanced as to why the city should go into the public transportation business at this time.

Financial Post and C.C.F. . . .

If Canadians wake up some day to find themselves in the complete and rigid grip of socialism they cannot complain they weren't warned.

Delegates to the CCF National convention in Montreal certainly were frank regarding their ultimate objective, which is the complete socialist revolution — taking over by government of all business, big and little.

Eventually this would mean that every farm, every store, every shoe shine parlor, as well as the great mercantile, financial and industrial enterprises would come under the direct control of a political party.

Convention delegates boasted freely and frankly that such complete domination was the ultimate aim. Only on the timing was there disagreement.

Die hards from British Columbia favored advocating such a step immediately . More subtle political strategists from Ottawa would wait until after the CCF won a general election. The latter viewpoint was summed up candidly by National Secretary Lewis who stated that he would not take second place to any CCF spokesman in advocating complete socialism but that "at the present time I am concerned with winning an election."

That lets the CCF cat right out of the bag. First win an election with frontal attacks on the so-called big interests in which support will be sought from little business, white collared workers and the farmer. Then if the party wins, drop the mask and proceed to socialize everything.

And that is what they would have to do, if the CCF won, because socialism is "whole hog" or nothing. That was the experience in Germany, in Italy and Russia. Eventually every means of production, including agriculture, comes under state control.

It is not just a case of taking over the banks, or the insurance companies or milk distribution. Once socialism starts to wind up industry, then the business of winding never ceases until everything is meshed into a single state-controlled economy.

This is the key reason why the CCF danger is so great. Because of CCF socialist plans, the Canadian people can't vote them into power in the spirit of "Let's take a chance on this new bunch and turn them out at the next election if we don't like them."

It is virtually impossible to socialize an industry under the reign of one political party then turn it back into private or other hands under another political party. The unscrambling process is simply not feasible.

Taking a chance on a spell of socialist government is like a rabbit taking a chance on a boa constrictor. It is a case of being swallowed or nothing. —Financial Post.

REGIMENT HAS FIRST DINNER

Splendid Affair Last Night by Local Reserve Unit

With over 250 persons—officers men, special guests and friends—in attendance, the first annual regimental dinner and dance of Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment was held last night in Wartime Housing staff dining hall and was an outstanding success.

Special guest of honor for the evening was Col. Colin Ferrie, commandant of Prince Rupert defences. Major C. J. Toombs, officer commanding of the regiment, presided.

Col. Ferrie was escorted to his place at the head of the table by Major Toombs, being piped into the hall by Piper Robertson.

After full justice had been done to an excellent turkey dinner, girls of the C.W.A.C. acting as serviteurs, there was a brief toast list.

Major Toombs, in speaking, expressed gratification at the large attendance. He welcomed Col. Ferrie, representatives of the Canadian Legion and other guests including the ladies. He expressed hope that the ladies would soon form a Women's Auxiliary to the unit. As for the training program for the unit, he announced that during the coming year it would be along more advanced lines. He bespoke the support of all officers and men to regular attendance at parades and assiduous perserverance with their training so that the regiment might be second to none.

Col. Ferrie, when called upon, stated that he had not been in Prince Rupert so long yet he felt no stranger with the regiment. It contained at least one of the old soldiers who had served with him in France in the last war—Sergeant A. W. Allaire. Col. Ferrie expressed especial gratification at the number of boys in the unit. He hoped that they would continue their interest and perseverance.

The toast to the King was duly honored.

Following the dinner and speeches, tables were cleared away and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the strains of excellent music by DeCarlo's Orchestra. A happy interlude was a session of community singing led by Col. Ferrie and Regimental Sergeant Major E. R. Macdonald.

The committee responsible for the success of the evening was headed by Capt. W. R. McAfee and Regimental Sergeant Major E. R. Macdonald.

The regimental band, under direction of Sergeant Peter Lien, rendered excellent music before and during the dinner. There was acceptable incidental piano music by Andy McNaughton

MAY CLOSE UNSANITARY RESTAURANTS

Intention to order the closure of "three or four" city restaurants early in January if they do not comply with public health regulations was indicated Wednesday by Dr. R. G. Knipe, director of the Prince Rupert Public Health department. A continuous state of poor sanitation in the restaurants was given as the reason.

Coincident with his warning to the operators of poor restaurants, Dr. Knipe announced that it is the intention of his department to present restaurants which have class "A" standing under sanitation rules with display certificates which will bring their standing to the attention of the public.

These certificates at present will not make serious inroads on the paper situation, since Dr. Knipe revealed that there is only one restaurant in the city which merits grade "A" rating.

Grading of the restaurants is done by means of a sanitation chart which indicates the state of cleanliness of dining rooms, kitchens, food, equipment, and the hygiene of the employees. Restaurants graded "D" indicate conditions which make them subject to closure by the health authorities.

Certificates issued to grade "A" restaurants are subject to recall, if the standard drops, Dr. Knipe said.

While the general standard of sanitation in public eating houses has risen considerably in the last 18 months, it is still only fair and is very bad in some places, he continued.

CANTATA IS WELL DONE

Familiar "Silent Night" Makes Acceptable Seasonal Entertainment

A very impressive dramatic cantata was presented by the First Baptist Church last evening, depicting the story of the origin of the familiar Christmas carol "Silent Night" by Franz Gruber. Twelve musical choruses and songs were presented by the choir, interspersed by a dramatic presentation of scenes depicting the life of Franz Gruber based upon allegory.

Three impressive tableaux fitted into the play in a very effective manner. Fifteen characters made up the tableaux and the cast in the play comprised nine characters, supported by a well-trained choir under the leadership of Clarence Reimer, with Mrs. J. C. Gilker at the organ. The leading roles in the drama were taken by S. Calder as Franz Gruber and Miss G. Silverthorn as Frau Gruber. Rev. W. W. Silverthorn made the announcements.

The cantata will be repeated this evening in the church.

LABOR STRIVING FOR HIGH PLACE

live the war period.

Trend Toward Recognition

Coupled with this has been a tendency by conciliation boards and by employers to give increased recognition to contract clauses which introduce union shop terms which require all employees to join the recognized union within a specified time.

Even wider recognition was gained for the maintenance-of-membership plan through which those employees who belong to the union must continue their membership for life of the agreement.

Such measures as these are being eagerly sought by unions to assure security for the organizations in the post-war period. So extensive has the effort to obtain agreements of this type become, that disputes during the year centred more about union status than wages.

The strike record for the first 10 months of 1944 was down 82 percent from the corresponding period of 1943.

Up to October 31 the time loss this year amounted to 485,924 man-working days. This resulted from 172 strikes in which 74,391 workers were involved. For the same period last year there were 358 strikes involving 165,866 workers with a loss of 885,282 man-working days.

Recent labor department figures placed the membership in Canadian labor organizations at 664,535 at December 31, 1943, which represents an increase of 85 percent compared with 1939. During 1944 there have been further increases and it now is unofficially estimated that close to 750,000 Canadian workers belong to some union.

Timely Topics from Terrace

The Terrace High School Junior Red Cross held a very successful tea and sale of work last Saturday at the Orange Hall. The doors were open from three to five-thirty. In order that this tea might be successful, the students had spent many of their spare periods and noon hours in preparing articles for the sale. The girls did all kinds of embroidery work, stuffed animals, knitted baby articles, made pot holder sets and two baby crib quilts while the boys did all kinds of fret saw work. Donations were made to the tea by Mrs. Timms, Mrs. Levesque, Mrs. Giggey, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Barr and Mrs. Lambly presided at the tea table and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. de Kergommeaux helped in the kitchen. The serving at the tables and the helping in the kitchen was done by the students. Many patronized the tea and thus helped to make it a success. The treasurer announced that, since all expenses had been paid, the sum of $50 had been sent to aid the crippled children who are taken care of by the Junior Red Cross.

Charlie Agar arrived home on Thursday evening from Saskatoon. He is with the Signal Corps and will remain in town until Christmas Eve.

NAVAL WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED

Wren Daisy Hendrickson Becomes Bride of A.B. Jack Barrington-Boam

A naval wedding of widespread interest took place in St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Prince Rupert when Wren Daisy Hendrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hendrickson of Fort William, Ontario, was united in marriage to Able Seaman Jack Barrington-Boam of Victoria. Both the bride and groom are attached to H.M.C.S. Chatham, the naval base at Prince Rupert.

The bride, who is the second Wren to be married from this port, wore a frock of pale blue sheer with pink hat and shower bouquet of pink roses. She was given in marriage by Lieut. Ernest Ray of Vancouver, First Lieutenant on a west coast patrol ship. Her attendant was Miss Ina Montgomery of Prince Rupert who wore a light wool gown of cream and carried red roses.

The groomsman was Ordinary Seaman Ray Kay of Hamilton, Ont., and the wedding ceremony was performed by the Naval padre, Rev. J. W. Goos. The church was filled with Wrens, ratings and officers of the base. After a quiet dinner which included only the wedding party, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to Fort William and will return here to reside.

Inquest into the death of George Ross, elderly United States Army civilian guard, who died following a traffic accident on Second Avenue Wednesday night began this morning. Ross was struck by a light U.S. Army truck allegedly driven by a woman, and died in hospital a short time later.

He outlined experiences of a shipmaster who ran the Philippines blockade to take supplies to General MacArthur on Bataan and who later ran between Brisbane and Port Moresby when the latter port was under heavy bombardment.

"At Bataan his crew had been given a monkey for a pet. The ship was armed with only one .30 calibre machine gun, but it managed to bring down a Jap plane. Later, at Brisbane, the sergeant gunner thought he made a fine deal when he traded the monkey to an ordnance man for two .50 calibre machine guns. He did not know that he would have been issued with the new guns anyway."

Col. Mellom was thanked by president R. C. St. Clair for his interesting talk. Guests at the meeting were Sam Joy of Vancouver, Major Stewart of the U.S. Army, and Gnr. H. Crooks and Sgt. H. J. Moore, R.C.A.

Student Nurses' Parents To Get Tax Exemption

"Parents of student nurses may now secure an income tax deduction of 20% of the amount contributed (but not exceeding $400) to the support of a daughter under twenty-one years of age training as a nurse at a public or provincially-licensed private hospital." This announcement is made by Miss Fanny Munroe, president of the Canadian Nurses' Association, following the passing of a clause in the Bill on national finance at the last session of the House of Commons. "This income tax deduction is applicable also to the sister or brother of a dependent sister under twenty-one training at such a hospital," added Miss Munroe.

CHURCH PLANS FOR "V" DAY

Order of Service When Hostilities Cease Announced

An order of service to be used when hostilities cease by both communities and churches has been published by the Canadian Council of Churches and has the approval of leading officials of Anglican, Baptist, Presbyterian, United Church and other communions.

Available to any congregation or community upon application to Dr. W. J. Gallagher, the general secretary, it contains those ever-moving hymns, "All people that on earth do dwell," "O God our help in ages past," "Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven," concluding with "Now thank we all our God."

Suggested Scripture passages are from Micah, Chapter 4; St. Matthew, Chapter 5; Isaiah, Chapter 40, and Revelation, Chapter 21.

Also included are prayers of thanksgiving, prayers for the bereaved, prayers of confession and dedication, as well as a number of litanies.

Sport Chat

Down in Wiltshire, at the historic Manton racing stable, there lives a chestnut colt that exemplifies patience and good manners. So far as the colt, Court Martial, knows life is mainly a round of eating, growing and being groomed. But the two-year-old, who stands 15 hands, 2½ inches, has had an ambitious future mapped out by his owner, Lord Astor. He will be entered in the 1945 Derby, St. Leger and 2,000 Guineas, three of Britain's five yearly classics, in the strong hope he will break Lord Astor's string of non-successes in important races. So far, Court Martial has run only twice. Each time he won without being pressed. He didn't see a racecourse until last August and then won by two lengths from 10 opponents, despite his amateurish touch of staring about as he ran.

In his second race a month later he was bumped on the stretch and nearly fell, but recovered enough to win by half a length. Now, in the winter books, he is quoted at 7-1 for the Guineas and 8-1 for the Derby. Joe Lawson, veteran trainer who has turned out nine classic winners, admits that stamina in Court Martial is a question mark. "His sire, Fair Trial, has yet to produce a strayer, and the dam, Instantaneous, hasn't produced a first-class strayer either," said Lawson. "But there are always the exceptions to the rule."

Navy Revue Fine Show

Splendid Entertainment Draws Big Crowd to Drill Hall

The drill hall at Prince Rupert's naval base was thrown open last night to personnel of all services and their guests when H. M. C. S. Chatham's newly founded drama league known as "The Chatham Chatterers" offered their first production, an all-Navy revue which was received with enthusiasm by a crowded house.

Especial credit for a very smooth and well directed show is due to the producer-manager, Captain's Writer Bill Merkley, who, before the war, was attached to the Department of External Affairs at Ottawa and was also associated with the Little Theatre there.

The orchestra recently formed from H.M.C.S. Chatham Band gave an exceptionally fine performance under the baton of Bandsman Frank Dutton of Toronto who himself composed the overture and theme. Dutton, a student of the Hambourg Conservatory, played reed sextette with Clifford Poole in the east and has done the arranging for the Navy band here as well as conducting Chatham's dance orchestra.

Chief singer with the orchestra and one of the outstanding beauties of the show was Miss Yvonne Riffou of Prince Rupert, civilian writer in Captain's office at the base. Miss Riffou's charming voice rendered "It's Spring Again" and "White Christmas" followed by carols supported by a chorus of Wrens and sailors.

Another musical highlight of the evening was a Dinah Shore torch song by Wren Rita Bradd of Windsor, Ontario, accompanied by the quartet including Bandsmen Frank Dutton, George Dutton, Lynn Jackson and Bill O'Driscoll.

Artie Shaw In Rupert

All told the excellent numbers on the program were too numerous to cover but, before the curtain went down, the audience hissed the villian, Petty officer "Artie" Shaw of Windsor, former orchestra leader, and applauded the hero, Surgeon-Lieutenant John Virtue of Toronto, in a thrilling melodrama entitled "She Was Only a Farmer's Daughter But—" Both the above mentioned actors gave outstanding performances. The farmer's daughter was delightfully played by Leading Wren Lee Sauve of Mattawa, Ont. These three leads were supported by a cast which included Sub-Lieut. Bunty Dawson, W.R.C. N.S. Leading Wren Marion Merryfield, Leading Wren Mary Francis, Wren Lucy Cox and Petty Officer Lawson Elliott.

The beautiful gay nineties costumes worn in the play were loaned by Mrs. J. B. Gibson of Prince Rupert and able assistance was given the producer by Mrs. Allen Nobelston, Toronto writer and Hart House Theatre player who is at present Y.W.C.A. war services hostess here.

The review will be presented again at the opening of the new War Services Centre on January 15.

Lieut. Cdr. Roland F. Astbury, executive officer at H.M.C.S. Catham, opened the show with a few words of praise for the excellent job done by the whole cast. He also said farewell on behalf of the officers of the base to Surgeon-Lieutenant John Virtue who left immediately following the show for a new appointment to H.M.C.S. Naden, Victoria.
