ENGLISH HAND-MADE LACE

MADE BY THE COTTAGERS OF BUCKINGHAMSHIRE.

This is the old-fashioned lace made on the cushion, and was first introduced into England by the Flemish Refugees. It is still made by the village women in their quaint old way.

Our Laces were awarded the Gold Medal at the Festival of Empire and Imperial Exhibition, Crystal Palace, LONDON, ENGLAND, for general excellence of workmanship.

BUY some of this hand-made Pillow Lace, it lasts MANY times longer than machine made variety, and imparts an air of distinction to the possessor, at the same time supporting the village lace-makers, bringing them little comforts otherwise unobtainable on an agricultural man's wage. Write for descriptive little treatise, entitled "The Pride of North Bucks," containing 200 striking examples of the lace makers' art, and is sent post free to any part of the world. Lace for every purpose can be obtained, and within reach of the most modest purse.

Collars, Fronts, Plaistrans, Jabots, Yokes, Fichus, Berthes, Handkerchiefs, Stocks, Camisoles, Chemise Sets, Tea Cloths, Table Centres, D'Oylios, Mats, Medallions, Quaker and Peter Pan Sets, etc., from 25c. 60c., $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 up to $5.00 each. Over 200 designs in yard lace and insertion from 10c., 15c., 25c., 45c., up to $3.00 per yard.

Every sale, however small, is a support to the industry.

IRISH CROCHET. Mrs. Armstrong having over 100 Irish peasant girls connected with her industry, some beautiful examples of Irish hand-made lace may be obtained. All work being sold direct from the lace-makers, both the workers and customers derive great advantage.

DAINTY HANDKIE—40c. No. 212.—Lace 1 1/2 in. deep.

Collar—Pure Linen. $1.00

SKATING PARTY LOST IN THE WOODS

Enjoyed Jolly Evening on Salt Lakes Across the Harbor

About forty young people took in the skating party and picnic to the salt lakes across the harbor last evening. It was a novelty for many of them and the experience was a little rough, but all state today that they thoroughly enjoyed it.

The party went over in a launch, which was unable to land there nearer than the rocky shore outside. The forty then proceeded to hike it through the brush, with skates, boxes of refreshments, crockery, tinware, etc. It was tough going, but they finally landed at the lake and the boys soon after had a roaring fire going. Several hours of splendid skating was enjoyed and hot coffee and refreshments were served in liberal quantities.

The journey home was accomplished with the aid of a rowboat which carried the crowd to the launch. They docked in the city at 4:30 a. m.

Granby a Great Camp

"Our people feel sure that Granby Bay will become one of the greatest copper mining camps in the world," said H. H. Lancaster of that British Columbia city, at the Palace yesterday.

"The $3,000,000 smelting plant of the Granby Consolidated Company is just about completed. A London firm has lately bought the property of the United Metals Company, and early in the spring will start development work. The copper veins of the district can be traced for miles and are unusually wide." Mr. Lancaster is spending several days in this city before leaving for California.—Seattle P.-I.

FROM PRINCESS MAY TO LONELY STATION

Two Well-known Seamen on C. P. R. Passenger Boat Become Lightkeepers

Two old shipmates on board the C. P. R. steamer Princess May have given up their posts and are voyaging to St. James, Queen Charlotte Islands, to tend the great first-order light which is being constructed there. Taylor Ash, for many years quartermaster under Captain John McLeod, has been appointed by the Dominion Government lightkeeper for Cape St. James, and A. J. Macdonald, the other quartermaster in Ash's watch, is to be his assistant.

These two seamen are now en route to their new homes on board the lighthouse tender Quadra, and will be landed at Cape in a few days. The big light will not be placed in operation for about a month, but Ash and Macdonald will spend the time becoming acquainted with their new surroundings and getting everything shipshape for their lonely vigil in the northern wilds. These two men will have only their own company, and their nearest neighbors are at Rose Harbor, where there is a whaling station, and at Ikeda, which possesses a wireless station and a mine.

Ash has been in the employ of the C. P. R. for about 15 years. He has served in the capacity of quartermaster on the Princess May for a lengthy period, and is well known all along the coast. Although he has never gone up for examination for mate or master, Ash probably knows the northern routes as well as any skipper. He always liked to be on the ship Captain McLeod commands, and he hated very much to say goodbye to the vessel, while the men on the May regretted just as much to see him take his departure.

It is expected that the big light will be flashing its broad beams across the Pacific before the middle of next month. The Cape St. James light is the second first-order light to be erected in the north in connection with the development of Prince Rupert as a great shipping port. The Langara Island light is the other, and will be used by ships coming in from the Orient, while Cape St. James will assist ships proceeding north from Victoria and San Francisco.

MUD BURIES CITY HALL IN SEATTLE

Slide of Thousand Tons Dumped Into Fifth Avenue

Seattle, Jan. 22.—More than one thousand tons of earth were dumped on Fifth Avenue last night. Part of the Court House Hill came down as a result of the recent heavy rains that have prevailed.

The earth his banked against the wall of the city hall. There is an ever-increasing pressure as the slide continues.

Many men and teams are working clearing away the slide. The windows and doors of the city hall have been battened up to prevent the earth and water from invading the basement.

Girls' heavy winter coats will be $4.50 at Jabour Bros.' sale.

PAISLEY HAD MEDALS FOR SAVING LIVES

Man Who Disappeared Off the Prince Rupert Was Great Long Distance Swimmer

J. Paisley, the person who disappeared off the Prince Rupert on her last trip down, is a seaman who had won several medals for life-saving. A chum of his who was in the same training ship talked to The Daily News this morning.

Paisley's home is at Palmer's Buildings, Walls End, England. He first came out to this coast in the Prince Rupert on her voyage over from the shipyard. He was a good sailor and a great long distance swimmer.

Briggs, Paisley's friend, says he believes Paisley jumped overboard as soon as he heard the cry of a man overboard. He has frequently done the same thing. He was a great swimmer, and Briggs says he cannot understand why it was he was never found or even seen by those who took the lifeboat to the rescue.

Funeral on Monday

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—Canada will be officially represented at the funeral of Lord Strathcona on Monday by the Duke of Argyle, who, as the Marquis of Lorne, was governor-general of Canada from 1778 to 1883, and by Sir Charles Tupper, Lord Strathcona's predecessor as high commissioner. The funeral will be to Highgate cemetery.

Rails to Mile 337

Today the rails were laid to Mile 337, being the end of the completed grade, which the company has been striving for in order to get supplies in to the interior camps. At 337 there is a heavy cut which will not be ready for some weeks yet.

To Amend Shipping Law

(Special to The Daily News)
Ottawa, Jan. 23.—Hon. J. D. Hazen has introduced a bill to amend the law relating to merchant shipping with a view to enabling certain conventions to be carried into effect. The minister explained that the bill gave adherence on the part of Canada to the provision regarding commissions on sea salvage which were adopted at the international marine convention in Brussels in 1910.
