NEWS HIGHLIGHTS IN PRINCE RUPERT DURING YEAR WHICH CLOSES TODAY

Prince Rupert entered the year 1945 shrouded in wartime secrecy and crowded with military personnel and civilian war workers. The city has just emerged from the same year freed of wartime censorship and facing the peacetime future with confidence that the importance of the position it filled during the war will be enhanced by the coming years.

Here is a brief summary of outstanding local events which held leading news spots during the year:

January

4—Announcement was made by Canadian National Railways that local train service between Prince Rupert and Terrace by the diesel electric coach would be discontinued.
9—The Chamber of Commerce went on record as requesting that a qualified criminal investigator be assigned by the Attorney-General to Prince Rupert to curb a current crime wave.
12—A group of city merchants met city council to urge enforcement of the 6 p.m. closing by-law which they said, was being ignored by a number of suburban storekeepers.
31—An organization, the purpose of which was to find ways of keeping the Prince Rupert Dry Dock in operation was formed at a meeting held in the City Hall and attended by members of several labor and business organizations.

February

3—Major J. T. Harvey was named Progressive-Conservative candidate for Skeena federal riding by a nominating convention here. Major Harvey was overseas at the time.
5—Fire gutted the Stone Block on Third Avenue at Fifth Street, doing damage estimated at $50,000. The loss was covered by insurance.
12—Two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hanburg died of suffocation in their Fraser Street home when fire ignited a mattress in their bedroom.

MURDERER OF POLES HANGED

WARSAW — Twenty thousand Poles gathered yesterday to witness the hanging of Paul Hoffman who cremated Polish prisoners of war and was convicted by a Russian tribunal. Among those who saw the execution were relatives of persons who had been murdered at Hoffman's order. At Briansk a Nazi general and corporal were hanged as war criminals.

LAST TESTAMENT OF ADOLF HITLER

Revelations Made in Document of Former Fuehrer Recently Found

BERLIN — The last political testament of Adolf Hitler, which has been discovered, blames international Jewry for conditions leading up to the war. It reveals that he had fallen out with Hermann Goering and Heinrich Himmler who, the document says, had treated with the enemy and had been expelled from the Nazi party. However, Joseph Goebbels had kept on good terms with the Fuehrer and was to have been his successor.

It has been revealed that the marriage of Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun took place on April 29.

Dan Taylor, Noted Yukon Miner, Dies

VANCOUVER (CP)—The funeral took place here today of Daniel Taylor, noted miner and prospector during the Yukon gold rush and later in the Kootenays and Slocan, who died Friday.

Bulletins

MacARTHUR UNHAPPY

TOKYO — General Douglas MacArthur, Allied commander-in-chief in the Far East, in an explosive statement criticized arrangements agreed upon by the Moscow conference of foreign ministers but says he will make the best of them. The Moscow proposal is for a four-power Allied commission to advise MacArthur. The general says, contrary declarations notwithstanding, he was not consulted.

KOREA RESTLESS

SEOUL—A strict curfew has been clamped down in Korea in view of resentment over the Allied plan of control over Korea set down by the Moscow conference. There have already been disorders and demonstrations and a general strike is threatened. American soldiers were stoned. The Moscow plan is for a five-year trusteeship over a provisional Korean government. Korea wants complete independence at once.

YOUTH MURDERER?

TORONTO — Williams Mullen, 20-year-old Toronto youth, has been formally charged with the murder of Meyer Tobias, clothing merchant. He is also charged with armed robbery of a taxi driver in September. Three other youths had previously been arrested in connection with the Tobias killing with which they also are charged.

Bormann Arrested

NUERNBERG (AP) — Czechoslovak newspapers reported today that Martin Bormann, Adolf Hitler's former deputy and one of the Nazi war criminals named in the Nuernberg indictment, had been arrested in the British zone of Germany.

Security officers here declined to confirm or deny the report and would not say whether Bormann, if arrested, would appear with 21 other major war criminals now on trial before an international tribunal in Nuernberg. Meanwhile Bormann is being tried in absentia.

The trial resumes on Wednesday after the holiday season recess.

One suggestion here was that a mysterious man who was arrested by British intelligence officers with a copy of Hitler's last testament in his possession was either Bormann or a man who gave information leading to Bormann's arrest.

NEAR DISASTER ON WEST COAST

TOFINO, Vancouver Island—Six persons narrowly escaped death when a Canadian Pacific Air Lines plane struck an obstruction in the water while coming in for a landing late Saturday and sank. The pilot of the plane was R. L. Salter of Victoria. He and five passengers escaped with minor injuries.

YUGOSLAV REVOLT

LONDON — A revolt is reported to be brewing in Yugo-Slavia with forces of General Mikilovich standing by in the mountains ready to overthrow the Tito government and restore King Peter to the throne.

DUTCH MARINES LAND IN JAVA

BATAVIA — Two thousand Dutch marines arrived off Batavia yesterday and were about to land. They will relieve Indonesian troops. They received their training in the United States—North Carolina, Oregon and Virginia.

J. N. Killas left last night on the Catala for Stewart on a week's business visit.

TORONTO—Hector Charlesworth, one of Canada's most celebrated newspapermen and authors, a former chairman of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, died Sunday in Toronto at the age of 73.

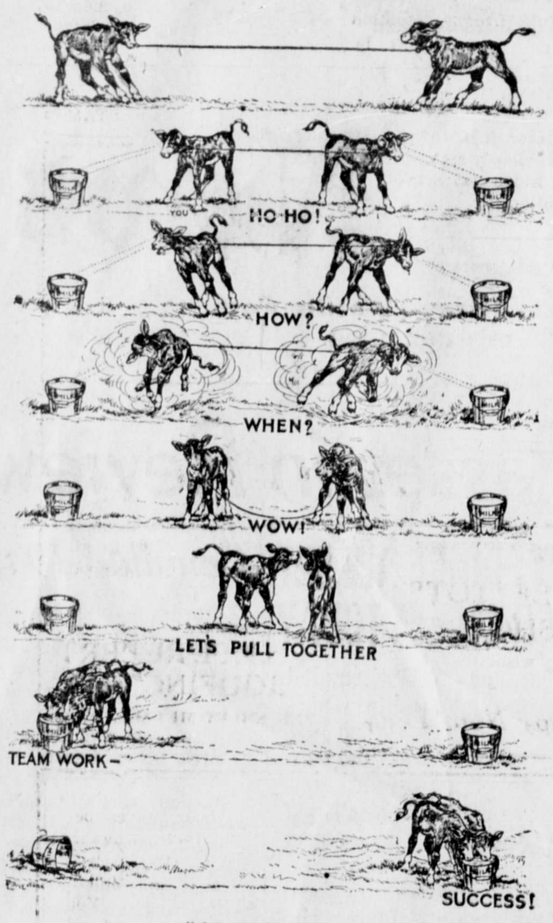
As We Enter a New Year...

LET'S TRY IT!



"CO-OPERATION."

Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Five, the year of Victory and of the world-shaking events physically, economically and spiritually, passes into history tonight. Never was there a year when changing world events had such a direct bearing on the affairs of this little but ambitious city of Prince Rupert. It was a year which, through the stress and emergency of a war precipitated on our very doorstep, brought us the realization of some of our long-held hopes in the way of physical recognition. And now, as it passes, it finds us a little dazed, a little uncertain but, nonetheless, as hopeful and as confident as ever.

Carried along by the momentum of a great conflict which required little effort on our own part to keep us busy and prosperous, we now find ourselves squarely on our own faced with a new situation which, if we are to progress as we hope, will require more of our own resources and our own ingenuity. We are in competition with the world now as a New Year dawns. Possibly more than we realize does it depend upon us ourselves whether the new year of 1946 will commence to see the fruition of some of those permanent and lasting aims which we have so long cherished. War brought us recognition as "Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Coast" port. The coming years of peace will see whether, with all our advantages and our opportunities, we shall advance as such.

If there is one lesson that 1945 should have taught us and which it is to be hoped we shall apply in 1946 and the years to come it is the necessity of unity and harmony in our own community in the effort to promote the realization of our common hopes and ambitions to make Prince Rupert a better city—commercially, culturally—indeed in every way.

We can think of no more appropriate spirit than that in which to enter into the new year of 1946.

SPRINGTIME NOVELTY

One of the peculiarities of the ruffled grouse is the odd drumming noises it produces in the springtime to attract attention.

THIS AND THAT

"Can I see references from your last secretary?"

MARKET STRONG AT YEAR'S END

Contrary to all predictions and precedents set by previous years, all continental stock markets were strong today on the final trading day of the year. This note of optimism may indicate that 1946 is expected to be a year of great industrial and market activity.

A strong oil market which developed in Toronto this morning hit a new high for several years. Home Oil was quoted at $4.30; C. and E. $2.60; Okalta 65c, and Anglo-Canadian $1.25.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. Thomas Cliff, arrived in port at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and sailed at 10:45 for Skagway and other northern points whence she is due back here Thursday afternoon southbound. The vessel had a fair-sized passenger list with half a dozen or so for Prince Rupert. Acting as purser on the Norah this trip is Fred Campbell, formerly well known as a freight clerk on northern runs but who had not been here for ten years and who noticed many changes here. "Indeed, it was hard for me not to get lost along the old waterfront among the many new installations," he said.

Making an earlier arrival than in years, Union steamer Catala, Capt. Halcrow, having been favored all the way north by winds and tides, arrived in port at 3:30 yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and way points and sailed at 10 o'clock last night for Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here early tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon for Vancouver and way points.

VANCOUVER (P) — Jonathan Rogers, Vancouver park commissioner for many years, who died recently, willed $100,000 to the city for the purchase of a park site in the Cambia and Broadway district.

Sought As Mediator

CHUNGKING (P)—The central government of China has suggested that General George C. Marshall, special envoy of President Truman of the United States, be called upon to arbitrate differences between the Chinese nationalists and communists with a view to bringing an end to the civil war.

Meantme President Chiang Kai-Shek made an outright bid to the rival Chinese communist forces today to join in a government that would unify China. In a New Year message to the Chinese people he announced that the government is ready to invite leaders of other parties "to take part in the government either in policy-making councils or executive branches." He said they would be welcomed into the government before the National Assembly meets May 5 to consider a new constitution ofr China.

The only condition set by Chiang is that those other representatives "must not maintain autonomous armies to serve as instruments for forcible seizure of power."

150 ATTEND WORKLESS MEET

Warnings Against Wave of Unemployment Are Voiced

Warnings against a wave of unemployment created by "big business" which seeks vast profits by using a pool of unemployed workers to smash the labor unions were broadcast by speakers at a meeting on unemployment called by the George Henderson Labor-Progressive Club Sunday afternoon.

More than 150 men and a few women heard Bruce Mickleburgh, Stan Boshier, Mrs. Doris Blakey and Jack Parker, the latter a former dry dock worker, express opinions in the Deep Sea Fishermen's Hall on the present unemployment "crisis."

The meeting passed a five-point resolution aimed at stimulating employment nationally and selected a committee to interview local Wartime Housing authorities regarding an alleged increase in staff house rents to discharged dry dock workers.

Big Business Sitting Down

Declaring that the present crisis is not caused by the sudden ending of the war but by a "sit-down strike" by big business which will not operate its plants at capacity while excess profits are taken by the government in taxes, Bruce Mickleburgh urged that the government take over the plants and operate them at capacity if the industrialists would not.

"This is not one of those cyclical crises of capitalism but, unless this 'sit-down strike' on the part of the capitalists is stopped, a cyclical crisis will recur which will make previous depressions appear very mild," he said.

He presented a resolution which "emphatically" protested the "failure of our federal and provincial government to put into effect plans for the reconversion period and to take action against the crippling tactics of big business interests which are deliberately holding up production in order to create a backlog of surplus labor."

It is part of an international reactionary scheme, he asserted.

Five-Point Resolution

The resolution contained the following recommendations:

1. A billion-dollar national home building program.
2. Implementation of a large scale public works program with local applications.
3. Legislation for a 40-hour week with no reduction in take-home pay.
4. A 50 per cent increase in unemployment benefits.
5. Improvement of provisions for veterans' rehabilitation.

Stan Boshier, president of the George Henderson Labor-Progressive Club, said that there are 175,000 men looking for work in Canada and that the figure is growing daily.

"But Reconstruction Minister C. D. Howe says that there is no unemployment in Canada. He says that the problem is caused because so many people want to live on this coast where the climate is pleasant," Mr. Boshier said.

He tackled General Hoffmeister for what he termed "splitting tactics" between veterans and other workers, asserting that such a division would create weakness in the ranks of labor.

The cause of it all, he assured his audience, was a "diabolical plot" on the part of big business to reap super-profits in the future.

Mrs. J. R. Blakey spoke on women and unemployment, recalling conditions in the pre-war depression.

Jack Parker, recently discharged shipyard worker, told of how his rent at the staff house was increased from 46 cents a day to $1 a day immediately on his discharge from the dry dock and moved that a committee be formed to have such practice stopped.

Harold A. Ponder urged unity between veterans and non-veterans, and read a message from Jack Henderson, Legion provincial president, which declared that jobs, homes and security were the prime needs of the people.

BRITAIN HAS WORST FOG IN YEARS—★ ★ ★ ★ ★ BRINGS DEATH, CRIPPLES TRANSPORT

LONDON (CP)—Britain's worst fog since 1925, complicated by freezing conditions, brought death today to at least four children and three adults and crippled year-end transport throughout most of the country.

Firemen, groping through the dense mist over slippery roads, arrived too late to save children who were burned to death in the home of their parents in Sheffield.

Collision of two London suburban trains at Northwood Hill killed two men and one woman and seriously injured three other persons.

A change is as good as a rest—so if the holiday week has you in a whirl you can at least have a change in the season's festive fare by making a sizzling steak the focal point of Sunday dinner. Monday's suggestion is to cook a tongue and serve it hot with a horseradish or mustard sauce. To ring in the New Year on Tuesday, roast Turkey will be King of the Feast. Wednesday calls forth the tongue to be sliced and reheated in a tangy tomato sauce; or if you prefer a take-it-easy-meal it can be served cold, alternated with sliced turkey. A return to plainer living is intimated in Thursday's meat loaf, made from half a pound each of ground beef and veal. But it can be given a party touch by being removed from its pan when baked, frosted with whipped potatoes and returned to the oven for a delicate browning. On Friday, the remnants of the New Year's bird can be done up in regal fashion—sizeable cubes along with green peas and mushrooms in your best cream sauce served on hot corn bread squares. For a final fling, the bones are scheduled for the soup pot. And if you have not already tried it, cream of turkey soup should prove worthy of being added immediately to your reminder list for next year. Sausage for Saturday is a flexible purchase. One pound will nicely serve four. Or if you are still in company mood, it can be tastefully extended by being served atop a savoury spaghetti dish.

The week's rationed meats have taken barely half your coupon allotment. The remainder is to help you to stretch your holiday catering capacity if need be, or to be set aside in your "Sunday roast bank".

None on this earth your equal I'll find.

Loving and faithful to the end of your days;

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I wash a feather pillow?

A. Dissolve 1 lb. sal-soda and ½ lb. soap in ½ gallon boiling water. Put about 5 buckets of tepid water in a tub and pour in the above solution. Then dissolve ½ lb. of chloride of lime in 1 qt. boiling water, let it settle, then stir in tub. Beat pillows well and then put in tub, pressing down. Let soak for an hour, stirring and pressing constantly with a stick. Rinse in several changes of water, wring, press out all water possible and hang on line to dry, turning and shaking them often. Choose a windy day for quick drying.

Q. What is the best way of dampening clothes before ironing?

A. The longer the clothes lay damp before ironing, the better is the result. Sprinkle starched clothes with hot water, half an hour before ironing.

Q. How can I keep the skins of baked apples from breaking?

A. When baking apples, prick the skins with a fork and they will not burst.

PROPER HOUSING FOR ARMY MEN

Recommendation Made By Jury Investigating Terrace Fire Tragedy

A recommendation that army personnel be housed in barracks huts with proper chimneys resulted from a coroner's inquest at Terrace in which the jury found that Sapper Otto D. Rempel perished of suffocation and burns of the lungs in an army hut early Thursday morning.

The jury, called by Coroner Will Robinson, found "no evidence upon which to base a decision as to the origin of the fire but recommended strongly that, in view of the fact that the hut in which deceased died lacked a proper chimney, only the approved type of army hut be used to house army personnel."

Rempel, the jury found, perished between 1:15 and 2 o'clock Thursday morning when fire swept a Royal Canadian Engineers' building in which he was sleeping.

Serving on the jury were C. J. Norrington, foreman, R. W. Squires, George Dover, Angus R. Seaton, Joseph McConnell and Lloyd Johnstone.

OLD TIMER OF STEWART

Henry J. Thomey Passes Away in Prince Rupert General Hospital

One of the real old timers of the Stewart district, Henry J. Thomey, who began prospecting at the head of the Portland Canal in 1906, passed away in Prince Rupert General Hospital on Sunday. He was 71 years old.

Well known in mining circles along the coast, he was recognized as a competent prospector and it was said of him by other miners that he could "smell" ore. About five years ago he sustained injuries to his back and pelvis in an accident and he never quite recovered. He entered hospital here in January, 1945.

The late Mr. Thomey was born at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland. He is survived by his widow in Prince Rupert, and three sons, William, at Richmond, California; Arthur, with the Royal Canadian Engineers at Chilliwack; and John, at Britania Beach.

Terrace Welcomes Veterans—

MEN WHO SERVED IN WAR HONORED ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ WITH ROUSING BANQUET - DANCE

TERRACE (Special to Daily News) — Terrace gave its official welcome home last Friday night to veterans returned home from war service in various parts of the world. The event was sponsored by the Board of Village Commissioners, Board of Trade, the Canadian Legion, Orange Lodge, Oddfellows and Masons and was one of rousing success and his enjoyment. First some 200 guests banqueted, heard speeches of appreciation and indulged in community singing in one of the town's halls. Later all repaired to the Oddfellows' Hall for dancing.

No less than 40 turkeys were used for the big meal, Mr. and Mrs. Greer having been in charge of the big job of cooking and carving the birds. Girls of the Canadian Girls in Training were charming and efficient serviteurs.

Harry King, president of the Terrace and District Board of Trade, was chairman and toastmaster, and the speakers, led by Emil Haugland, chairman of the Board of Village Commissioners, were Frank Morris, on behalf of the Canadian Legion; Fred Smith, Oddfellows; Bert West, Masons; James Smith, Orange Lodge; Nigel Sherwood, Board of Trade, and Capt. Warburton, for the active forces. Father Racette, O.M.I., pronounced the grace and Rev. T. C. Colwell offered a prayer of thanks. There was due observance of one minute silence in honor of the dead of war.

The musical program included piano solos by Nigel Sherwood and Miss Jean Kirkaldy. Community singing was led by Mrs. O. Kirkaldy.
