AFTER THE SNOWSTORM!

WILL CANADIAN PACIFIC TAP THE PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

SPECULATION AS TO WHAT BIG CORPORATION WILL DO WITH FORTY TWO MILLIONS THEY HAVE TO SPEND IN CONSTRUCTION

Some considerable discussion has been taking place lately throughout the Dominion as to what form the future policy of the C. P. R. is going to take. By its latest financing it has now on hand a surplus of $42,000,000. The proposal that it was about to absorb the C. N. R. appears to be eliminated, and in its place seems to be offered the suggestion that it is about to commence an aggressive construction throughout Northern Saskatchewan, Northern Alberta, and Northern British Columbia. The only portion of the great agricultural West which the C. P. R. does not tap is the vast valley of the Peace River and the fertile stretches of Northern British Columbia. Both the C. N. R. and the G. T. P. have been applying for charters in every direction, and it is now generally believed that the C. P. R. is also planning an invasion of the North. This being the case, it is hard to say what direct effect it would have on Stewart, but it would undoubtedly force the hand of those holding the charter from Stewart inland. The waiting game played so far would then come to an untimely end and they will be forced into action or out of the field.

POPE GAVE TANGO AUDIENCE CALLS IT SAD AND DULL DANCE

SAYS A SINNER COMPELLED TO DANCE THE TANGO AS A PENANCE WOULD BE HARSHLY TREATED—FAVORS 'LA FURLANA' NOW THE VOGUE IN ROME

Paris, Jan. 30.—Le Temps creates a sensation by publishing news concerning the pope and the tango. According to Le Temps Vatican correspondent, Pope Pius has made a thorough investigation of reasons that induce the vicar of Rome and other ecclesiastics to issue inhibitions against the tango. Some days ago the pope questioned several chamberlains of the pontifical court on the subject, and these assured the holy father that the tango was not more offensive, from a pure and moral point of view, than the waltz, the polka, or the mazurka, because the tango, when properly danced, monopolizes the attention of the dancers. Pope Pius, greatly impressed by this, received two young members of the pontifical aristocracy, a prince and his cousin, a princess, who in a strictly private audience, danced the tango. The pope regarded the couple with astonishment as they concentrated all their attention and energy on the performance of the intricate steps and asked: "So that is the tango, as it is danced in society, is it?" "Yes, your holiness." "Well, my children," replied the pope, "you don't seem to get much fun out of it. It is a sad and gloomy dance. It is one of the dullest things imaginable. If a sinner were compelled to dance the tango as a penance he'd be treated harshly." But before allowing the couple to go away, embarrassed as they were with the pontifical irony, the pope said: "I quite understand that you young folk like to dance and there is no reason why you should not dance to your heart's content, but instead of adopting these ridiculous, barbarian contortions why don't you dance that beautiful Venetian dance that I often saw in my youthful days and which is at once elegant, merry and graceful? It is called La Furlana." The prince and princess asked, greatly surprised: "La Furlana?" "What?" exclaimed Pope Pius, "don't you know La Furlana?" The pope suddenly rose and began to indicate with gestures the harmonious evolutions of La Furlana as danced not only by the gondoliers and the people, but by Venetian patricians. The pope explained that La Furlana was danced by couples with uplifted arms and with alterations of groups or couples. The measure is vivacious and slow by turns, the music being inspiring

POSTMASTER ROBBED REGISTERED LETTERS

Stole $600 to Give to Drunken Friend—Confessed to Salvation Army—Now in Jail

St. John, N. B., Jan. 30.—Benjamin Gaskill, postmaster at North Head, Grand Manan, who gave himself up to the police on Tuesday and confessed to having misappropriated about $600 of the government funds, was placed on trial in police court and was remanded until arrangements have been made with the department at Ottawa. Gaskill is anxious to settle the case and he seems to feel his position very keenly.

Gaskill, who is about 33 years of age, had been associated with a man said to be a hard drinker. The prisoner himself is fairly well off. It is said that he took the money from registered letters passing through the office and handed it over to the other man, who was continually bothering him for it. This had been going on since last September. Gaskill then disappeared with the man and they came here.

Tuesday afternoon Gaskill went to Adjutant Cummings of the Salvation Army and told him the whole story. An interview was arranged with Inspector Colter, but the matter had gone too far and there was nothing the inspector could do on his own authority. Detective Killen was telephoned for and Gaskill was taken to jail.

Gaskill belongs to one of the best known and most highly respected families in the province and has a brother who is a clergyman.

Adjutant Cummings of the Salvation Army and Rev. W. R. Robinson, pastor of the Ludlow Street Baptist Church, are doing all they can in the interests of the prisoner and despatches have been sent to Ottawa to try to have the matter settled, as Gaskill is willing to pay everything with costs. He would not say anything that would implicate the other man.

and harmonious. To illustrate La Furlana, the pope called in a couple of Venetian domestics and had them dance it.

La Furlana, now that it has been launched with the personal approval of the pope, is becoming the vogue in Rome, where, according to Le Temps, it has completely supplanted the tango.
