Canada Vitally Concerned With Success of Parley, Finance Minister Abbott Says

WASHINGTON (CP)—Canadian Finance Minister Douglas Abbott said today that Britain, Canada and the United States have plans for an immediate attack on the British dollar problem.

He said "we have made encouraging progress. We have determined what steps can be taken at this time—and above all, have agreed on the direction in which we must all work."

He told a National Press Club luncheon that "we mustn't expect that the complete answers will be found within a few days, or that there can be any immediate relief from our difficulties."

He said that the talks are vital to Canada since this country is bound to be adversly affected by the world-wide dollar problem.

"Although we are small in population, almost a third of Canadian income is from trade," the Minister said. "Thus, we cannot adjust ourselves easily. There must be no breakdown in world trade."

Steel Leaders Ponder Gov't. Board Findings

PITTSBURGH (CP)—Policy-makers of the United Steelworkers' Union (CIO) gathered here today to decide if a Presidential fact-finders' report offers a satisfactory solution to settle the United States steel wage dispute.

Similar decision from more than 60 steel companies is also expected just as soon as officers and boards of directors finish studying the fact-fining board's recommendations.

The board suggested a 10-cent hourly "package" benefits covering pensions and insurance, but not wages.

Also before the union executive and policy committee is President Truman's request that the strike action deadline, now set to expire at midnight tomorrow, be extended 11 days.

The big five steel companies have agreed to the extension but the union has not yet.

"WOMANIA" CAREER SNAGGED SIGMUND

CHICAGO (AP)—Swindlin Sigmund Engel, 73, alleged specialist in women, appeared in court here today with a trial of eight women clamoring that he bilked them of $93,700.

Engel, dapper Romeo by his own admission, was arrested in June when his victims signed a complaint on confidence charges.

He cheerfully admits that "women are my career."

"I've got woman-mania—womania. I took women for millions of dollars, but they were trying to take me, too, you know."

ONTARIO WOMAN IS STABBED TO DEATH

SUDBURY (AP)—Police said that Mrs. Cecile Rainville was murdered in the bedroom of her apartment today. Edward Latour, a bushworker, is held for questioning. The young woman suffered stab wounds in her back abdomen, arms and hands. Latour, bleeding from a knife wound in the hand, went to the police station to report the incident.

'MISS CANADA' MEETS MET HEAD

NEW YORK (AP)—Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Co., said today he has an appointment to see Margaret Lynn Munn, of North Vancouver, "Miss Canada."

He said that the visit will be personal, not business and that Miss Munn has not been asked to audition at the Met. He said an audition might follow resulting in opera work or in advice on what to do with her voice.

CRUSADER FOR FAMILY PRAYER SPEAKER HERE

Last night 300 people gathered in Annunciation Parish Hall to listen to a priest tell a story. The priest was Father Patrick Peyton. If he has a home, it is in Albany, New York, for, since 1942 he has lived in a suitcase. He is a spiritual salesman, bartering in family prayer.

Appalled by the lack of prayer in so many homes, he has undertaken to restore it once more to the family circle. Brought up in a home where father, mother and nine children knelt each day to ask God's blessing, he is convinced of the value of joint family prayer.

Speaking with homely conviction, Father Peyton declared that he will not rest until 10 million homes have adpoted the practice of family prayer.. His calculation has some justification when one considers the enterprise he has started. Family Theatre of the Air is but one of them.

Three other speakers were heard. These were Bishop Jordan, Father Rayner and Bert Young, evening chairman. Annunciation Girls' Choir sang three selections during the program. Four Catholic Indians treated the audience to a spirited rendition of a favorite Indian hymn.

Earlier in the day Father Peyton addressed a supper gathering of 90 delegates in Annunciation Parish Hall. Forty of the delegates came from the interior. Among the latter were two Indian chiefs, Chief David Tibbetts of Burns Lake and Chief Moise Isador of Stellaco.

TORONTO ARREST MAY SOLVE GEM THEFT SERIES

TORONTO (AP)—Lou Ward, 27, free-spending former dance instructor, faces six charges of jewellry theft here and police are also checking the possibility that he may be the smooth-talking thief who charmed and bilked Vancouver social circles.

Also known as Lou Molner, he was arrested Sunday and charged with illegally carrying a weapon.

An exchange of telegrams between Toronto and Vancouver police led to additional charges of robbery, including one involving $30,000.

Meanwhile, Vancouver police have arrested Donald McGrath, 26, on charges of stealing $30,000 worth of jewels from the Fraser Valley home of E. S. Glaspy. They said they were seeking a young man who cultivated and charmed young society women. They alleged that he used the knowledge thus gained to perpetrate his gem raids.

BODY MAY BE THAT OF AIR CRASH VICTIM

DONNACONNA, Quebec (AP) — Relatives of Henri Paul Bouchard of Baie Comeau, Quebec, missing victim of the disastrous crash of C.P.A.'s DC-3 at Sault au Cochon Friday were summoned to this town 80 miles from the scene of the crash to examine the body of a man recovered from the St. Lawrence River yesterday.

The body of the scantily-clad man was found in the river by a steamer captain.

Provincial police said the man's hair appeared to be singed, his nose broken and his mouth injured.

Mrs. M. M Roper left by air at the week-end for Qualicum Beach, Vancouver Island to attend the annual meeting of the B. C. School Secretaries Asssociation. Trustee W. J. Scott, who also is a delegate, is already in the south.

Plebiscite Administrator Meets U.N. Internes

A group of forty young men and women from 28 countries is this year training for an eight-week period at U.N. Headquarters where they are assigned to different departments in the Secretariat to learn the work of the Organization. Here, Admiral Chester Nimitz of the United States, U.N. HEUSS NAMED PRESIDENT OF WEST REPUBLIC

BONN, Germany (CP)—Professor Theodore Heuss, whose books were burned by Hitler, tonight was elected first president of the new west-German republic.

The 65-year-old educationalist, candidate of the three-party rightist government coalition, got 416 out of 800 votes on the second ballot, better than a clear majority.

Dr. Kurt Schumacher, socialist candidate, got 312.

The second ballot was necessary because no one got a majority on the first.

Schumacher, former victim of Hitler prison camps, turned down right-wing efforts to have the socialists not contest the election.

NINE LOST IN EASTERN STORM

NANTUCKET ISLAND (AP) — Nine persons, including five women, were drowned and two men struggled against stormy seas all night to safety after the 38-foot cabin cruiser Constance was smashed to bits late Friday in a raging storm.

One of the survivors saw five members of his family and later, his fiancee die in the tossing waters.

First word of the tragedy came when a survivor staggered ashore Saturday morning on Dionis Beach on the north side of the island.

BANK LOANS TO ASSIST BRITAIN

WASHNGTON, (AP)— Britain, the United States and Canada announced Saturday that they will tap Wall Street and two big government banks for some of the dollars that Britain needs to break her economic crisis.

It was officially stated that the three governments agreed to seek the removal of obstacles from foreign investment of "private capital" and encourage loan requests to the World Bank and the United States Export-Import Bank.

Action along both lines would have the effect of pumping unestimated millions of dollars into Britain from other parts of the Empire.

Simple Life

WITH THE COMING of September most seekers of the simple life have returned to their ordinary jobs. The quest is still unsatisfied, is not capable of satisfaction if the return from lake or sea or mountains is dictated by the need of getting the children back to school. No parent ever leads a simple life.

Whether the simple life is possible or only an unattainable goal remains a matter of opinion. Thoreau, with his motto of "Simplify, simplify," was really a fairly complicated person. He may be admired for his acceptance of a jail sentence in lieu of paying a tax that he considered unjust, but the action was not consistent with his creed of simplicity. Tolstoi's theatrical simplicity caused more trouble to himself and others than living an ordinary life could have brought about. The simple lives of the Doukhobors, for whose migration to Canada he was partly responsible, have not brought complete peace of mind either to themselves or their neighbors.

Getting close to Nature is a phrase sometimes used as a synonym for simplicity of living, but the users of the phrase overlook the complications that attend the process. Go close to Nature, give her the least chance, and she'll start getting close to you with such unwelcome attention as sunburn, mosquito-bites and poison ivy. Her ants and wasps insist on sharing the simple picnic fare, and her winds blow smoke in your face.

The truly simple life seems, on analysis, to be that which is lived in familiar surroundings. The value of holidays is to provide a contrast. Farmers and woodsmen should take their recreation in the city, returning to their accustomed work with a heightened appreciation of those rural virtues that the city man appreciates best from a distance. To the city man, after his annual bout with Nature, and even more to the city woman, the simple life exists in the world of washing machines, gas stoves, unlimited hot water and automatic heat and refrigeration.

Gambling

IN ENGLAND a Royal Commission on Gambling has been holding public hearings and, like most Royal Commissions, will probably discover a good deal about what everybody knows already, with some statistics to prove that its discoveries are true.

The Economist discussing the widespread habit of gambling in its various English forms, incidentally shows that morals are relative, for it says that "the mere fact that so great a proportion of the public now accept betting as a normal form of entertainment has removed much of the viciousness from it. Pool forms are filled up in the family circle and they are for the most part regarded as competitions and not as a form of gambling."

The paper does not seem particularly hopeful that anything will be done to curb the gambling industry, although it is notorious that it employs thousands of persons who might be turned to more socially productive work. No government, however high its pretensions of morality and however desirous it might be of eliminating the "spivs" from the national life, can afford to offend these thousands, who also possess votes.

It might also be mentioned that the Government has a steady revenue from the gambling industry. Off-track betting is discouraged by heavy legal penalties, unless it is done on credit. And credit bets must in practice be placed by mail, telephone or telegraph. All these services are under the British post office, so the Government thus collects a small but certain fee on every bet placed. It also shares in the football pools, because the bets are sent in by postal notes, which are also a government monopoly.

It is within the bounds of possibility that, whatever the Royal Commission may report, the Chancellor of the Exchequer may persuade his Cabinet colleagues to have pity on his difficulties and leave gambling alone.

. . . and Reminisces

Ottawa is interesting, particularly so this week when Parliament will assemble. Special visitors in their thousands will assemble, along with scarcity of rooms and housing shortage. There will be a judicious amount of pomp. The Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod will do his bit. The Viceroys Foot Guards will march as one, and the Governor-General himself will read that absorbing document, the Speech from the Throne.

A Los Angeles judge has ruled that it is illegal to search a man's stomach for evidence. But on the other hand, plenty of us are prepared to swallow anything, and do, without any tangible proof of possession.

It came out at the United Nations conference in Washington last week, that Sir Stafford Cripps, who finds tobacco smoking a comfort, if not an inspiration, has decided to refrain from further smoking, for an indefinite period. A small gesture, it is true, yet done as an example of national economy. It has not yet been learned what Winston Churchill thinks, although a good guess might be made.

Great Britain is buying canned salmon from Soviet Russia. This may seem somewhat unusual, but the same can be said of the British financial situation—only more so.

For this relief, let praise ascend. No longer will the crossing of Third and Fourth Streets at Third and Second Avenues involve the possibility of injured ankles, and arousing of unlovely thoughts. Having to pick one's way with watchful caution, from sidewalk to sidewalk in the heart of the business district was poor publicity. Surfacing has been achieved. Let the needed work go on.

RED SHIELD APPEAL
This space donated by Northern B.C. Power Co. Ltd.

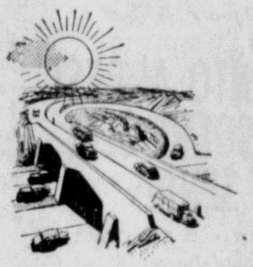
We're putting silver linings in some of your clouds!

1. Are you forced to live with in-laws because of the housing shortage? Then you'll be glad to learn that things are looking brighter now — because . . .

life insurance dollars invested in housing projects to earn money for policyholders, are providing many new homes throughout the nation!

3. Is there a narrow bridge that chokes traffic and causes accidents in your locality? You may be surprised to find it replaced some day with . . .



one of the many wide, safe bridges being built — thanks to life insurance dollars—in places where they're needed. Then watch the traffic flow!

2. Are you a farmer, or farmer's wife, doing hard chores by hand? Electric power may soon save you time and energy with machines, provide convenient light and water because . . .

electric power lines are being brought into more rural areas. Invested life insurance dollars are helping to finance many of these labour-saving power developments for farmers.

4. Are waters polluted by raw sewage in your community? A new sewage filtration plant will solve this problem. And . . .

perhaps your city will soon have one of these disease-reducing plants which life insurance dollars are helping to build.

A Helpful Citizen in Your Community

These aids to better living are founded on the work of the life insurance representative. It is largely because of his efforts that so many people buy life insurance and pay premiums — the major part of which is invested in vital projects that benefit Canadians from coast to coast.

Thus your life insurance representative is more than a helpful advisor on financial security. He's a helpful citizen, too!

5. More silver linings will be provided by life insurance dollars, invested in government bonds, which help build new roads, schools, harbours, recreation centres.

So you can see that life insurance companies do not keep policyholders' money stored away in vaults! A large part of every premium dollar is invested in sound enterprises that help raise living standards for all!

BATTERY EXTENDS ADVANTAGE IN MOBLEY SERIES

Friday evening's Mobley Cup football game produced another of the thrilling battles that have made football so interesting with the Heavy Battery winning from General Motors by two goals to one.

Mercer showed neat football and Owens forced a corner. Mazzone spoiled Mercer as the latter neatly converted a cross from Pat Wilson. Bishop was good and then John Wilson robbed Vuckovich. Price's pass gave Pat Wilson a chance and his good drive was just too high. Owens centred well and Pat Wilson just missed. Darrow Gomez was good and then Lien just stopped Parkouse. Morgan saved well on the line a low drive from Mercer and immediately after seved a hard shot from Price with one hand. Olson was good and from Pat Wilson's cross Price shot wide. Parkhouse was fast and the Battery got more of the game with the sun bothering the Motors' defence. Boulter stopped a great shot by Parkhouse and cleared. John Wilson headed away a good centre by Vuckovich. Parkhouse and Vuckovich were dangerous. From Mazzone's free kick Parkhouse first-timed a grand shot past Boulter to put the Battery a goal up. McKay was good and Morgan saved. Parkhouse came back to help his defence. Dunbar cleared well and then Lien miskicked a hard drive past Boulter to put the Battery two goals up. Dave Ward was dangerous. With Bishop, Joe Ward, Price and McKay combining beautifully the Motors threatened but Ferguson broke it up. Morgan did well to save a high drive from Pat Wilson.

The Motors now had the hill and the sun in their favor but the Battery attacked and Boulter saved from Parkhouse. Charlie Currie and John Wilson stopped Pavlikis and then Darrow Gomez broke up a Motors attack. Bishop and Darrow had a football duel with honors about even. Veitch was too strong for Pat Wilson twice. The Motors again showed neat and clever ball control but Dunbar sent them back.

Dave Ward crossed a beauty that Boulter saved well. Then Bishop seemed to have Morgan beaten but Herbie got his foot to a low drive and brought off a great save. The Battery defence was being hard pressed with forwards dropping back to kick hard and drive the ball away. A long pass from Pat Wilson to Owens was returned by the latter cleverly and Bishop turned a picture shot past Morgan to give the Motors their first goal.

Motors renewed the pressure but found few openings. Mazzone raised the siege when he drove a long shot just high. Ferguson came through. Then Morgan had to save twice. Ward broke away but his cross was cleared. Pavlikis broke through but shot badly. The Battery were being kept busy defending but made dangerous breakaways and Darrow Gomez drove in a beauty. Vuckovich missed a great chance and Pavlikis finished weakly. Mercer went close and Bishop just was squeezed out. John Wilson cleared and Pat Wilson was stopped with difficulty. But no more goals were scored and the Battery were winners by two goals to one.

Teams:

Heavy Battery—Morgan; Dunbar, Ferguson, Mazzone, Veitch, W. Gomez, Vuckovich, Parkhouse, Pavlikis, D. Gomez, Ward.

General Motors — Boulter; Lien, John Wlson, Olson, Bishop, Ward, McKay, Pat Wilson, Price Mercer, Owens.

Referee—S. P. Woodside.

TERRACE PLANS AUTUMN FAIR

TERRACE—Terrace is looking forward to its first Fall Fair in many years which is going to be held in the Civic Centre September 15.

In addition to the exhibits, races have been arranged for the children and the local stores are closing at 2 p.m. on Thursday. Attractions in plenty are being arranged and good weather is hoped for. However, should the weather be wet the Civic Centre will be used.

The prize list is large and there are entries for everything produced on a farm, baking and handiwork, as well as photography and painting and a special children's section.

A display of prizes, some of which have been donated by Manson's Jewellers in Prince Rupert and include a handsome silver tea service are on display in the window of the local drug store. It is hoped that this Fair will be the beginning of many successful fairs in years to come.

EARL INVEIGH AT JASPER LODGE

Kindly Prospectors Offers Welcome To Visitors At Gold Creek Canyon

TERRACE — James Trulson, a former prospector lives alone at Gold Creek Canyon, 15 miles east of Terrace, but he does not find time to be lonely.

His cabin at the foot of the canyon, one of the most picturesque beauty spots in the province, is a Mecca for picnic parties and holidayers know that he will make them welcome.

In fact, he does more than that. By his own efforts, he has cleared a half-mile trail from the highway, built picnic tables and even a couple of swings for children.

"I like to have people here" he says. "If someone says he is coming and fails to show up, I get restless. Find myself walking down the road to meet them."

Even without Mr. Trulson's cheerful hospitality, Gold Creek Canyon would be a major holiday attraction. But his presence there makes a unique and pleasant spot which is becoming better known to district residents.

Not only has Mr. Trulson cleared the trail from the highway, using a wheelbarrow to cart gravel from the creek to make a roadbed, but he will cheerfully guide visitors over the high prospectors' trail above the canyon to look-out spots of magnificent beauty.

And if you want to fish for steelhead or trout, he will lead you a mile more upstream to a couple of deep, rock-girt pools where big ones lie.

He knows all the trails in the district, having used them for years as a prospector He does not pan much gold now on account of his health, but he will take out his gold pan and teach his callers how to pan the gravel bar near his cabin for minute specks of gold.

Recently, Will Robinson paid tribute to Mr. Trulson's kindliness at a Board of Trade meeting in Terrace and expressed the hope that some day Gold Creek Canyon would be set aside as a provincial park are for the enjoyment of holiday makers.

TERRACE CHURCH LADIES MEET

TERRACE — Routine business matters concerning the church were brought up at Thursday afternoon's meeting of St. Matthew's Women's Auxiliary which was held at the home of Mrs. George Martin on East Greig Avenue. The meeting, the first since the summer recess was presided over by Mrs. Bert West. A W.A. cookery book is being compiled by Mrs. Martin and the members were asked to send their favorite recipes into her, especially for soups, light luncheon and supper dishes.

Following the close of the business session refreshments were served, including a fancy birthday cake made by the hostess in honor of the W.A. vice-president, Mrs. J. Maxted. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Dover.

60 YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

Fifty years ago, fruits and vegetables out of season could only be provided through the skill and industry of the housewife. A goodly store of dried apples and canned fruit was laid away during the summer and fall. Today commercial canneries and quick freezing plants help to make housekeeping easier. In these plants, equipment and utensils which come in contact with food are usually made of pure Nickel or Nickel Alloys. Such metals are rust-proof, sanitary, durable and extremely easy to keep clean. They safeguard the flavor and color of foods, because they resist the corrosive action of food acids.

Nickel Brings Dollars to Canada

Since more than ninety per cent of the Nickel produced in Canada is sold to the United States and other countries, it brings a constant flow of dollars back to Canada. In fact, Canada's Nickel industry is one of our chief sources of U.S. dollars so essential at the present time to maintain our foreign trade and make available products not produced in this country.

These dollars help pay the wages of the 14,000 Nickel employees, and help provide the dollars which make it possible to pay millions in freight to Canadian railways, to buy timber, steel, coal, machinery and supplies amounting to many millions each year.

These millions, flowing into all industries through the length and breadth of Canada, help create jobs for Canadians.
