COL. SAM HUGHES DEFENDS ROSS RIFLE--NANAIMO STRIKE DEBATED IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

LARGE FUNERAL ATTENDANCE
DOES HONOR TO NOBLE LIFE

REV. WILLIAM HOGAN LAID TO REST WITH AFFECTIONATE REGARD--NUMBER OF LOCAL PEOPLE ENABLED TO BE PRESENT THROUGH COURTESY OF GOVT. STEAMER

The government fisheries passenger boat took a party from Port on Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Father Hogan in Massett. Among them were Bishop Du Vernet, Canon Rev. W. E. Collison, R. L. Atosh and Capt. McCroskie, old friends of the deceased. Hogan, a daughter, who made several unsuccessful attempts to get over, was also on the boat.

There was a great welcome on the ship when it drew up to dock at Massett; there had been an anxious waiting for its arrival and now that it came with the Bishop on board to take charge of the funeral, there was evident relief and satisfaction on the part of the islanders.

The service in the church was as if every person in and new Massett had turned up to honor the memory of their pastor, for the church was crowded and many not able to admission.

The coffin, which was really a fine piece of workmanship, was covered with flowers sent from Prince Rupert and Massett friends.

The service at the church was taken by Bishop Du Vernet, Canon Rix and the Rev. Heber Greene. The Bishop gave a most appropriate address which both touched and cheered the hearts of all present. There was a choir of fifteen men who led the singing in a splendid manner. After the church service, the casket was placed upon a hand carriage and covered with a Union Jack, a most suitable thing for such a loyal subject of the Empire as was "Father" Hogan, and a procession was formed, headed by the Massett brass band, which was followed by the clergy, pall bearers (who were white settlers), the mourners, and between three and four hundred of the people of Graham Island. At the grave Bishop Du Vernet and the Rev. W. E. Collison officiated, the latter taking the prayers in the Haida language.

The whole service was a wonderful tribute of love and respect.

ACTRESS ATTACKS EDITOR
TAYLOR VANCOUVER WORLD

NOT LIKE CRITICISM OF HER SINGING AND WENT AFTER EX-MAYOR WITH TRUNK STRAP--POLICE CALLED AND BIG CROWD GATHERED

(Special to The Daily News) Vancouver, Feb. 7.—Marie, the English comedienne, at the office of the World paper today and vigorously attacked L. D. Taylor, managing editor and former mayor of Vancouver. The police were sent and a big crowd gathered before the trouble was stopped.

Marie used a heavy trunk strap and struck Editor Taylor several sharp blows across the face before the bystanders interfered. The singer was enraged over an article in the World criticising her performance in a local theatre and referring to her difficulties with the immigration authorities.

PRESBYTERIANS' FAREWELL
GATHERING FOR REV. F. W. KERR

PRESBYTERIANS MET IN CHURCH HALL LAST EVENING--MANY EXPRESSIONS OF REGRET BY CONTEMPORARY CLERGYMEN--MUSICAL PROGRAM

The concert and social given evening by the ladies of the Presbyterian church were thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience which completely filled the Presbyterian hall. The ladies arranged the affair as a well reception to Rev. and Mrs. Kerr, who are leaving on their evening for New Westminster, and the large number testified to the high esteem in which they are both held. The hall was beautifully decorated in honor of the occasion, and the rear the ladies had a well loaded with good things.

Rev. G. R. Naden introduced various speakers of the evening. He did not think they could make the meeting a tear-farewell, but rather wish Mr. and Mrs. Kerr godspeed. He predicted that before long Mr. Kerr would be longing to get back to Prince Rupert.

Rev. J. F. Dimmick said Mr. Kerr's removal left him the senior pastor in the city, and he hoped that, when it came his turn to depart, he should be as fresh and vigorous as Mr. Kerr was. Mr. Kerr was leaving behind a circle of friends that he had never known so well as in the moment of his departure. The tie between pastor and congregation was like a sailor's knot—it only grew tighter by being strained.

Rev. G. H. Raley of Port Simpson laughingly remarked that he had a grudge against Mr. Kerr, for he had asked the latter to come to Port Simpson and give a lecture, and the latter had partly promised to do so, but later on he had married a wife, and so could not come. He predicted Rev. Mr. Kerr would be heard from in New Westminster.

Rev. Mr. Wright narrated one or two very amusing stories in the course of his speech. He said that he had not known Mr. Kerr very long, but from what he had heard of him, he was sure that the congregation was sustaining a very great loss. Right in this community there were grand op-

LIBERALS WILL MAKE A GENERAL ATTACK

Issue in Budget Debate Will Not Be Confined to Free Food Question Alone

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—It is rumored here that when the budget debate takes place the Liberals will make a general attack upon the tariff, as they are not limited to the free food idea already enunciated. Sir Wilfrid will question the party on the particular policy which appeals to them. The rural wing objects to a general crusade against the tariff on manufactured goods as well as on free food.

APPOINT GOVERNOR FOR AUSTRALIA

Necessitates Three Contests in England Which Will Show Public Opinion

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Feb. 7.—The King approves of the appointment of Lord Munro-Ferguson to succeed Lord Denman, governor-general of Australia, who is retiring owing to ill-health.

The appointment of Lord Munro-Ferguson causes a by-election in Leithburg. In political circles it is believed that this election will be coincident with two by-elections in London by reason of the granting of a peerage to Sydney Buxton and the appointment of F. G. Masterman his successor as president of the board of trade. These contests will afford much interest anticipating a revelation of public opinion on both the Irish and labor issues.

opportunities which demanded all that was heroic in mankind.

Perhaps the best speech of the evening was that of Rev. G. A. Rix, who although suffering from the after effects of his trip across the Hebride straits, delivered an address filled with humor, and also containing plenty of sound advice. He felt that Mr. Kerr's place would be very hard to fill. The situation reminded him of the old lady who, when the minister had left, and someone was trying to console her by saying that others equally good could be secured, replied that every solitary one was worse than the one before. He felt that the only man who would succeed here would be one who was supported by the men of his congregation.

On behalf of the members and adherents of the congregation, Lois McRae then presented, Mrs. Kerr with a purse containing a handsome sum of money in gold. Mr. Kerr, in rising to thank the congregation on behalf of Mrs. Kerr, was evidently much affected. He had often spoken very plainly, but he thought that when you found one to whom you could express yourself forcibly you had reached the true level of friendship. He trusted that his ministry among them had been understood. He believed that the congregation had helped him to grow and realize a man's responsibilities in life. Finally, he wished to thank the ladies for being so considerate and kind to Mrs. Kerr.

Those who took part in the program were: Misses Stephens, Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Miss Morgan, Mrs. Miller, Miss Irwin, Mr. Davey and Miss Dimmick. At the conclusion of Mr. Kerr's address refreshments were served, and the gathering broke up, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kerr every success in their new sphere of labor.

Rev. F. W. Kerr will preach at both services tomorrow. The C. P. R. boat has agreed to lay over until after the evening service.

NO CITY DEBENTURES
HAVE YET BEEN SOLD

Council in Informal Session This Morning--Bank Has Not Been Heard From

The city council has not yet been able to make a deal with the representative of Messrs. Terry, Briggs & Slayton, the Toledo bond brokers. The city offered the 10 and 20-year fives at 90, but Mr. Dean says he cannot handle them at that price. The finance committee is not willing to go lower.

As yet the Bank of Montreal has not sent word that they can sell the $371,000 of treasury notes at 97, but word is expected daily.

Mr. Dean leaves the city tomorrow evening. His firm have been in the Canadian field the past few years and he is making a tour of the Canadian cities to size up local conditions.

MANURE IS DUMPED ON MORESBY AVENUE

Water of Morse Creek Reservoir Subject to Contamination--Was Used This Week

At the present time stable manure is being dumped on a lot along Moresby avenue in section two. The lot is just above the Morse creek reservoir and drains directly into it. Several big loads have been dumped there within the past few days.

Early this week the water department found it necessary to pump a large quantity of water from this reservoir into the city water mains and the Aeropolis hill reservoir. Whether manure had been dumped on the slope of Morse creek prior to that or not The Daily News is not prepared to say, but certainly if any more water is taken from that source the public should be warned to boil the water before using it.

The News was given to understand that the owner of the lot gave permission to put the manure there as he wanted to use it on the lot, presumably for garden purposes. The lot, however, consists of a big hump of rock and a number of stumps. It does not look like a garden patch nor suitable for one. Certainly it is not prepared for the spreading of manure as a fertilizer.

The question of the rights of the interested parties to dump manure on the lot is one for the health department, but if the water is thus subject to contamination the public should be warned before water is used again from that reservoir.

Workmen Going In

A number of workmen went into the interior on today's train. Despite the fact that many men are being laid off it is found difficult to get men for the night shifts. On some of the grading contract work goes on day and night. Many of the men going up this morning were teamsters to work on the contractors' freight lines from the end of steel through to the construction camps.

Twelve Cars Ore

Five cars of ore from Silver Standard mine left New Hazelton yesterday for Prince Rupert. Five more cars are on the siding ready for shipment and two more cars are en route. "These twelve cars represent two weeks' work," said Mr. Angus Stewart. They are bound for the Trail smelter and will bring some rich returns to the mine owners. Active operations will continue at the Silver Standard and a lot of ore will be shipped out while the sleighing lasts.

FASHIONABLE DANCE
BY THE ROWING CLUB

Large Attendance, Good Music and Popular Occasion Made Very Pleasing Affair

The Prince Rupert Rowing and Yachting Club gave their second annual ball last night in St. Andrew's hall. The decorations were simple and tasty, being largely the symbols of a life on the ocean waves.

The attendance was very good and well illustrates the popularity of the club. There were about sixty couples present and the revenues of the club will be augmented to a considerable extent.

The music was furnished by the Westholme orchestra and was as usual full of dash and enthusiasm.

The committee in charge of the affair were Commodore Judge Young, S. P. McMorde, A. D. Golden, R. A. McGee, C. C. Purdy and Adam Carss. Mr. A. G. Vidler also assisted very materially with the preparations and great regret was expressed that he was compelled to depart so soon for his new destination.

BISHOP TO LECTURE
VANCOUVER COLLEGE

Bishop Du Vernet Left for South This Morning to Talk on Theology

Bishop Du Vernet left this morning by the steamer Princess Maquinna in order to deliver a series of lectures on theology in the Anglican college in Vancouver. His lectures will occupy about a week's time.

Following that, the bishop will attend the representative gathering in Victoria of the Anglican Church of British Columbia. Bishop Du Vernet, as the senior bishop in the province, will preside at that gathering.

He will be absent from the city for about three weeks.

Methodist Services

Services at the Methodist church Sunday will be as follows: Morning service at 11, subject of sermon, "The Bible, a Necessity." Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30. A special service of music and song will be given by the choir Sunday evening. The pastor's subject for the evening will be, "Amiability." A hearty welcome to all.

Southbound

The Princess Maquinna sailed for the south at noon today. She was in port all morning. Among the passengers going south were: H. McCurdy, W. J. McLean, W. D. Haugh, Rev. F. H. Du Vernet, W. E. Morall, P. C. Adams and two prisoners.

Special Sunday dinner 6 to 8 p. m. at the Bay View.

CARVELL ATTACKS LABOR DEPT.
WANTS EVERYBODY FIRED

HON. COL. SAM HUGHES SAYS ENGLISH WAR OFFICE IS ALWAYS ADOPTING FADS--HE DEFENDS ROSS RIFLE IN VIGOROUS DEBATE AT OTTAWA

(Special to The Daily News)

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—Two questions engaged the attention of the house to the exclusion of all other topics throughout a long sitting last night. They were a dispute with the National Rifle Association of Great Britain over the Ross rifle and the Nanaimo strike.

E. M. McDonald introduced the Ross rifle discussion in a brief speech in which he expressed the hope that the minister of militia would adhere to his determination not to send a team to Great Britain next year unless the war office ruling against the aperture sight was withdrawn.

Hon. Col. Sam Hughes in an emphatic speech said he did not propose to do so. The new regulations were aimed at the Canadian arm because it is a superior weapon to the Lee-Enfield, which is obsolete. The minister said the war office was always adopting fads. The new figure target is one of them.

The Nanaimo strike trouble was brought up when the estimates of the department of labor came up. F. B. Carvell, M. P. of New Brunswick, charged the minister of labor with incompetency and neglect in dealing with the Nanaimo strike matter. He said the report of Commissioner Price was cut off the day the rioting commenced and that the situation was glossed over in the Labor Gazette. He claimed the minister of Labor, the Gazette, and everybody concerned should go.

Hon. Mr. Crothers, the minister of labor, replied with heat. He said Price had returned from the west before the trouble started. He had made his report before the minister's departure for England. The minister reviewed the matter and said every possible effort was made to bring the miners and employers together, but it was very difficult and a particularly hard matter to deal with because neither side would admit that a strike existed.

GOVERNMENT SALE OF LOTS
FORT GEORGE HELD NEXT MAY

SALES WILL BE IN PRINCE RUPERT, VANCOUVER, VICTORIA, AND ON THE TOWNSITE--J. T. ARMSTRONG WILL BE SELLING AGENT FOR GOVERNMENT

Victoria, Feb. 6.—The provincial government will hold its first land sale as far as the property in Fort George is concerned in the month of May. Some 2300 lots in various townships, including Fort George and surrounding sites, will be auctioned.

It is generally expected the total price to be received will exceed $2,000,000. J. T. Armstrong of Vancouver has been appointed selling agent for the government.

The first sale will be held in Vancouver. The other sales will follow in Victoria, Prince Rupert and Fort George. In the past the sales that have been held have been of G. T. P. property in the townships.

Fort George, or Prince George, as it is now commonly known owing to the fact that the G. T. P. has adopted this latter name, is very much in the public eye. It is evident that the lots there will reach high figures, as it is generally felt that the town will be a very important one in connection with the general development of the interior.

With the completion of the G. T. P. there will be a lively centre

Ordained Preacher

During his visit to Massett to attend the funeral of the late Rev. William Hogan, Bishop Du Vernet took occasion to ordain Rev. Heber Green to the ministry. Thus there is a fully ordained preacher of the Anglican Church in that district.
