Two Famous Trade Marks

Each of the above trade marks is identified with ROYAL STANDARD. The BIG V is the symbol for flour made from the pick of the prairie wheat crop, scientifically milled, absolutely uniform, laboratory tested. The other trade mark urges you to be loyal to goods made in B. C., to help swell local payrolls and encourage home manufacturing. Why not ROYAL STANDARD? Our offer to refund your money if dissatisfied should take the edge off your unwillingness to "make a change." If you're loyal to B. C. show your colors by ordering ROYAL STANDARD next time. All grocers sell it.

LARGE FUNERAL DOES HONOR TO NOBLE LIFE

pect for a man who had lived among them for years as pastor, brother and friend, and for whose departure the Haida's and the white settlers mingled their tears with those of the immediate friends of the deceased.

The affection exhibited by all classes during the time of the illness of Mr. Hogan and up to the day of the funeral, was not only a fine tribute to the splendid man who had so nobly labored among them, but it also did great credit to the people themselves and showed they were not forgetful of the faithful service that had been given by the one whom they mourned.

The following is a telegram of appreciation:

Prince Rupert, B.C., Feb. 6, '14
To the Hon. the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa.

Honorable Sir,—On behalf of Mrs. and Miss Hogan and the whole population of Graham Island, as well as on behalf of myself and many sorrowing friends on the mainland, I wish to convey to you our most sincere thanks for the kindness of the Canadian Government in acceding to my earnest request, presented through our member at Ottawa, Mr. H. S. Clements, whereby when there was no other vessel available to cross the stormy waters of Hecate Straits, the very fast and thoroughly sea worthy ship the Malaspina, with its most corteous commander, Capt. Newcombe, was put at our disposal, thereby enabling the bereaved daughter of Rev. Wm. Hogan, the Bishop of the Diocese, two of the clergy, and two representative citizens from Prince Rupert to attend the funeral at Masset of one of the best known and most highly respected pioneers of the coast.

We laid the body of this veteran of the Cross to rest in the Haida cemetery within a few yards of the lofty beacon light which guides the mariner into Masset Inlet, a fit symbol of one who was a bright and shining light leading men onward and upward.

Yours respectfully and gratefully,

F. H. DU VERNET,
Bishop of Caledonia
