One more week of bargains at Wark's. 43tf

Frank McKinnon came in from New Hazelton last evening.

New shipment of dresses—Demers. 44-47

The Malaspina, the fisheries cruiser, was in port over Sunday.

Buy a lot in Port Edward before the railroad is completed. 39-1f

Delivery boy wanted. McRae Brothers. 42-44

First shipment of new shapes opened up—Demers. 44-47

The Chelhosin will be in tonight from the south with mail.

Rogers' cutlery and brass goods going at half price at Cameron's sale. 39tf

The Prince John brought a good passenger list from the south yesterday.

The Spokane will sail south on Tuesday evening. She is due at 9 o'clock.

The Island Dancing club will give another of their enjoyable dances this evening.

Visitors—Go to the Royal Cafe for your meals. It is the best service and best selected menu in the city. It is the popular restaurant.

Mr. Ed Oleson, from Terrace, went down on the Princess Beatrice. He is on a business trip and will not make a long stay in the south.

A meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arnold, Fifth avenue. 1t

The Prince John brought a cargo of structural steel for the dry dock this last trip. It was unloaded yesterday and the John left last evening for the Island.

Mr. Bowerman, chief of the wireless station on Digby island, spent the week-end in town. He was the guest of Mr. H. Davie of the post office staff.

The Prince Albert on Friday unloaded 313 tons of coal for the Pacific Transfer company, 500 tons for the G. T. P., and also a small shipment to the dry dock.

Mr. F. R. Giertzen, who has been engineer on the Pacific end of the G. T. P. since the work started, came in from New Hazelton yesterday. He will be staying at the Central hotel for a few days.

Messrs. McIntosh and Potter, who have just returned from Chisana, are registered at the Central. They report that one or two claims in the district are looking good but that generally the prospects are over-rated.

Mr. A. V. Cocks, bookkeeper at the Grossman clothing store, was taken to the hospital. He is suffering from blood poisoning, but his friends look for an early convalescence.

Messrs. D. J. Anderson and W. H. Johnston returned to Inverness after a short holiday. Things have been very quiet on the Skeena during the winter but already great activity is in sight.

The tug McCullough picked up the fishing schooner Zellah May in Swanson Bay, to which port the crippled boat had made her way. The Zellah May belongs to the C. E. R. Fish company of Seattle. She is being repaired at the Rupert Marine and Iron works.

Several Prince Rupert citizens have met the city's exiled bride and groom in the Sound cities. The blushing groom and his charming wife are always pleased to meet Prince Rupert people, but thus far have feared to return to their northern home. They have warnings of an enthusiastic reception and are trying to negotiate an unostentatious entry.

Big discount sale still on—Wark's. 43tf

Meet me at the Royal Cafe. We can have an excellent dinner and a quiet chat. tf

Mr. J. G. McNab left last evening for a couple of weeks visit to Vancouver and Seattle.

Cut glass, silver, brass, leather goods and jewelry, a third off.—Wark's. 43tf

L. J. Conkey of New Hazelton is spending a few days in the city.

A. Swanson returned from Dundas on the Regal on Saturday. He was out with a party looking over some land and timber tracts.

F. H. Mobley is having his boat the Prospector overhauled in anticipation of a good season. He is having an 8-h. p. Frisco Standard engine installed by the Rupert Iron works.

Mr. White, superintendent of the work on the Portland Canal Tunnel, reports that a little ore has been struck in one of the drifts. This is looked upon as a very encouraging sign.

Piano drawing, March 21st. We have a few tickets left, will sell two for $1 while they last. Now is your last chance to get the piano.—Wark's. 43tf

Dan Lindeberg of Stewart came in from Goose Bay on his launch Ena on Saturday afternoon. He will remain in town on business until the 25th of this month.

Constable Doolittle took James McGinley south yesterday to New Westminster. James has to labor hard for six months to expiate the crime of supplying liquor to Indians in Prince Rupert.

Sunday's Sermon spoilt by Coughing

A dose of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil taken before leaving for church will check that service spoiling cough.

This preparation acts as a tonic as well as a cough cure and its use soon enables the system to throw off all signs of cold.

Keep it in the house—large bottle 35c at all dealers.

J. L. MATHIEU CO., Prop., Sherbrooke, P.Q.

P.S.—Mathieu's Syrup is a pure food and does not contain any harmful ingredients. It is the only cough medicine that is safe for children.

FOR OBSTRUCTED SINKS and Sewers

The Prince Rupert Lumber company shipped 100,000 feet of lumber up the line yesterday. The lumber is mostly heavy timbers and is intended for construction work at Smithers.

Mr. George Frizzell writes that Messrs. Williams & Carr, contractors in Smithers, report that they have orders for 64 houses to be built in Smithers by May 1. Several new buildings have gone up since George was last there.

The Rev. J. A. Levin, pastor of the Lutheran church on Ninth avenue, went south on the Princess Beatrice yesterday. He is on his way to Tacoma to attend the annual conference of the Evangelical Lutheran church and expects to return in two weeks.

Mr. Jack Johnson of Rosswood, Kitsumkalum valley, went south on the Princess Beatrice on Sunday. He will return shortly with several teams for use on his own and neighboring ranches near the lake.

Mr. Charles Newnham of Kitsumkalum valley is in town arranging for a supply of fruit trees for his ranch. He had great success with those planted last year and intends to make a feature of fruit trees in the future. Last season his trees grew from 22 to 23 inches in every limb.

Provincial Constables Allison and Pitney came in from Fort Fraser during the week-end and left for the south on the Princess Beatrice yesterday. They had in charge Sam Bray, accused of indecent assault, and Albert Duter, an insane man, and were en route for New Westminster.

One of the most persistent pioneers of northern British Columbia is now registered at the Royal hotel. This is Mr. W. P. McDonald, who came in from Copper City yesterday. This is the first time for seven years that he has been able to break away from his home in Lakelse valley. He is a true exponent of the home, sweet home doctrine, but admits freely that Prince Rupert surprises him. He looks for great things in the interior when transportation facilities are afforded.

ROYAL STANDARD

Absolutely Uniform FLOUR Tested

LINKED up with ROYAL STANDARD is the appeal to loyalty to goods made in B. C. But don't buy ROYAL STANDARD for that reason alone. Of course you want the BEST flour, regardless of where it is made. Again we say buy ROYAL STANDARD because laboratory tests in company with leading brands on the market prove it to have no peer. That's why we take all risk in asking you to change. Money back if you regret the change after using your first sack. Made in B. C.—the best manufactured anywhere—ROYAL STANDARD.
