TWO FORMER RUPERT MEN ARE DISMISSED

Minister Explains Why William Turnbull and R. A. Fisher Lose Jobs at Victoria

Hon. F. P. Burden, minister of lands, has issued a statement in Victoria in reply to reports in some newspapers about the dismissal of officials from his department. He declares that William Turnbull, former assistant deputy minister of lands, was dismissed because he engaged in political activities, unseemly in a civil servant. Such actiitives, the minister said, will not be tolerated. Mr. Burden denied that Mr. Turnbull's position is now being filled by two men. Actually the staff has been reduced by one man, he said.

In regard to the dismissal of R. A. Fisher, junior forester, also attacked in some newspapers, Mr. Burden said this action had been recommended for years, but for some reason had not been taken. The position vacated has not been filled.

"It frequently takes the place of fresh cream at much less expense and it is absolutely pure."
